Introductory Message

For the facilitator:

Welcome to the 21st Century Literature 11 Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM) Module on Conventional and 21st Century Genres.

This module was collaboratively designed, developed, and reviewed by educators both from public and private institutions to assist you, the teacher, or facilitator in helping the learners meet the standards set by the K to 12 Curriculum while overcoming their personal, social, and economic constraints in schooling.

This learning resource hopes to engage the learners in guided and independent learning activities at their own pace and time. Furthermore, this also aims to help learners acquire the needed 21st-century skills while taking into consideration their needs and circumstances.

Also, you will see this box in the body of the main text in this module:

Notes to the Teacher

This contains helpful tips or strategies that will help you in guiding the learners.

As a facilitator, you are expected to orient the learners on how to use this module, encourage and assist them as they do the tasks, and track their progress while allowing them to manage their learnings.

For the learner:

Welcome to the 21st Century Literature 11 Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM) Module on Conventional and 21st Century Genres.

The hands are one of the most symbolized parts of the human body. They are often used to depict skill, action, and purpose. Through your hands, you may learn, create, and accomplish. Hence, the hands in this learning resource signify that you, as a learner, are capable and empowered to successfully achieve the relevant competencies and skills at your own pace and time. Your academic success lies in your own hands!

This module was designed to provide you with fun and meaningful opportunities for guided and independent learning. You will be enabled to process the contents of the learning resource while being an active learner.

This module has the following parts and corresponding icons:

What I Need to Know

This will give you an idea of the skills or competencies you are expected to learn in the module.

What I Know

This part includes an activity that aims to check what you already know about the lesson to take. If you get all the answers correct (100%), you may decide to skip this module.

What's In

This is a brief drill or review to help you link the current lesson with the previous one.

What's New

In this portion, the new lesson will be introduced to you in various ways such as a story, a song, a poem, a problem opener, an activity or a situation.

What is It

This section provides a brief discussion of the lesson. This aims to help you discover and understand new concepts and skills.

What's More

This comprises activities for independent practice to solidify your understanding and skills of the topic. You may check the answers to the exercises using the Answer Key at the end of the module.

What I Have Learned

This includes questions or blank sentence/paragraph to be filled in to process what you learned from the lesson.

What I Can Do

This section provides an activity which will help you transfer your new knowledge or skill into real life situations or concerns.

Assessment

This is a task which aims to evaluate your level of mastery in achieving the learning competency.

Additional Activities

In this portion, another activity will be given to you to enrich your knowledge or skill of the lesson learned. This also tends retention of learned concepts.

Answer Key

This contains answers to all activities in the module.

At the end of this module you will also find:

References

This is a list of all sources used in developing this module.

The following are some reminders in using this module:

1. Use the module with care. Do not put unnecessary mark/s on any part of the module. Use a separate sheet of paper in answering the exercises.
2. Don't forget to answer What I Know before moving on to the other activities included in the module.
3. Read the instruction carefully before doing each task.
4. Observe honesty and integrity in doing the tasks and checking your answers.
5. Finish the task at hand before proceeding to the next.
6. Return this module to your teacher/facilitator once you are through with it.

If you encounter any difficulty in answering the tasks in this module, do not hesitate to consult your teacher or facilitator. Always bear in mind that you are not alone.

We hope that through this material, you will experience meaningful learning and gain deep understanding of the relevant competencies. You can do it!

What I Need to Know

This module is a standalone section that you can use based on your needs and interests to enhance your competency on how to differentiate the various 21st century literary genres and the ones from the original genres, citing their elements, structures and traditions.

After going through this module, you are expected to:

Lesson

1

21st Century Literary Genres

21st Century Literature

21st Century Literature refers to new literary work created within the last decade. It is written by contemporary authors which may deal with current themes/ issues and reflects a technological culture. It often breaks traditional writing rules.

21st Century Reader

A 21st Century Reader grew up using technology as a primary learning tool. He is capable of navigating and interpreting digital formats and media messages. He also possesses literacy skills, which include technological abilities such as keyboarding, internet navigation, interpretation of technological speak, ability to communicate and interpret coded language and decipher graphics.

What's In

This module will help you classify literary pieces you have read or will be reading into different 21st century literary genres.

Notes to the Teacher

This self-learning module is an introduction to different 21st Century Literary genres. It provides students with lectures and activities, which focus on these genres and the ones from the original styles, periods citing their elements, structures, and traditions.

What's New

Directions: Look for the conventional literary genres in the puzzle below and, on a separate sheet of paper, answer the questions that follow.

W	F	H	I	O	M	B	O	Z	I
A	E	C	D	R	A	M	A	A	O
P	T	S	U	P	B	W	P	F	L
U	O	T	H	U	N	D	I	I	K
L	I	E	S	W	R	F	Y	C	F
K	F	L	T	Q	T	W	T	T	I
G	X	P	M	R	A	S	K	I	C
H	N	W	N	L	Y	E	V	O	T
D	J	R	V	A	E	R	B	N	I
X	Y	J	C	U	I	U	Y	E	O
N	O	N	F	I	C	T	I	O	N

1. What are the four conventional literary genres have you found in the puzzle?
2. What are their unique features?

Let's recall the major literary genres!

POETRY- is an imaginative awareness of experience expressed through meaning, sound and rhythmic language choices to evoke an emotional response. It has been known to employ meter and rhyme. The very nature of poetry as an authentic and individual mode of expression makes it nearly impossible to define.

DRAMA- is a composition in prose or verse presenting in dialogue or pantomime a story involving conflict more contrast of character, especially on intended to be acted on a stage: a play. It may be any situation or series of events having vivid, emotional, conflicting or striking interest.

FICTION- is literature created from the imagination, not presented as fact, though it may be based on a true story or situation. Types of literature in the fiction include the novel, short story and novella.

NON-FICTION- is based on facts and the author's opinion about a subject. The purpose of non-fiction writing is to inform and sometimes to persuade. Its examples are biographies, articles from textbooks and magazines and newspapers.

What is It

You have rediscovered the conventional literary genres. This part of the module would let you learn modern literary genres presently used by 21st century writers.

21st Century Literature Genres

ILLUSTRATED NOVEL

- Story through text and illustrated images
- 50% of the narrative is presented without words
- The reader must interpret the images to comprehend the story completely.
- Textual portions are presented in traditional form.
- Some illustrated novels may contain no text at all.
- Span all genres.
- Examples include The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick and The Arrival by Shaun Tan.

DIGI-FICTION

- Triple Media Literature
- Combines three media: book, movie/video and internet website
To get the full story, students must engage in navigation, reading, and viewing in all three forms.
- Patrick Carman's Skeleton Creek and Anthony Zuiker's Level 26 are examples.

GRAPHIC NOVEL

- Narrative in comic book formats
- Narrative work in which the story is conveyed to the reader using a comic form.
- The term is employed in broadly manner, encompassing non-fiction works and thematically linked short stories as well as fictional stories across a number of genres.
- Archie Comics by John Goldwater and illustrator, Bob Montana, is a good example.

MANGA

- Japanese word for comics
- It is used in the English-speaking world as a generic term for all comic books and graphic novels originally published in Japan.
- Considered as an artistic and storytelling style.
- Ameri-manga- sometimes used to refer to comics created by American artists in manga style.
- Shonen- Boy's Manga (Naruto, Bleach, One Piece)
- Shojo- Girl's Manga (Sailormoon)
- Seinen- Men's Manga (Akira)
- Josei- Women's Manga (Loveless, Paradise Kiss)
- Kodomo- Children's Manga (Doraemon, Hello Kitty)

DOODLE FICTION

- Literary presentation where the author incorporates doodle writing, drawings and handwritten graphics in place of the traditional font.
- Drawing enhances the story, often adding humorous elements
- Examples include The Diary of a Wimpy Kid by Jeff Kinney and Timmy Failure by Stephan Pastis.

TEXT-TALK NOVELS

- Blogs, email and IM format narratives
- Stories told almost entirely in dialogue simulating social network exchanges.

CHICK LIT or CHICK LITERATURE

- Is genre fiction which addresses issues of modern womanhood, often humorously and lightheartedly.
- Chick Lit typically features a female protagonist whose femininity is heavily thermalizing in the plot.
- Scarlet Bailey's The night before Christmas and Miranda Dickinson's It started with a Kiss are examples of this.

FLASH FICTION

- Is a style of fictional literature of extreme brevity
- There is no widely accepted definition of the length and category. It could range from word to a thousand.

SIX-WORD FLASH FICTION

- Ernest Hemingway: For sale: baby socks, never worn.
- Margaret Atwood: Longed for him. Got him, Shit.

CREATIVE NON-FICTION

- Also known as literary non-fiction or narrative non-fiction
- A genre of writing that uses literary styles and techniques to create factually accurate narratives.
- Contrasts with other non-fiction, such as technical writing or journalism, which is also rooted in accurate fact, but is not primarily written in service to its craft.
- As a genre, creative non-fiction is still relatively young and is only beginning to be scrutinized with the same critical analysis given to fiction and poetry.
- 1000 Gifts by Ann Voscamp and Wind, Sand, and Stars by Antoine de Saint-Exupery are examples.

SCIENCE FICTION

- Is a genre of speculative fiction dealing with imaginative concepts such as futuristic science and technology, space travel, time travel, faster than light travel, a parallel universe and extra-terrestrial life.
- Often explores the potential consequences of scientific and other innovations and has been called a “literature of ideas”.
- Examples include Suzanne Collins’ Mockingjay and Sarah Maas’ Kingdom of Ash.

BLOG

- A weblog, a website containing short articles called posts that are changed regularly.
- Some blogs are written by one person containing his or her own opinions, interests and experiences, while others are written by different people.

HYPER POETRY

- Digital poetry that uses links and hypertext mark-up
- It can either involved set words, phrases, lines, etc. that are presented in variable order but sit on the page much as traditional poetry does, or it can contain parts of the poem that move and transform.
- It is usually found online, through CD-ROM and diskette versions exist. The earliest examples date to no later than the mid-1980’s.

What's More

After learning about different conventional and modern genres of literature, you are now ready to explore more about these concepts by answering the activities that follow.

Activity 1

Direction: Analyze the content of the text below and identify its literary genre.
