PREFACE

The foundation of our government rests upon the confidence of the people in the ability of their courts to achieve liberty and justice for all under the law. The fair, impartial, and speedy resolution of cases without unnecessary delay maintains this confidence, safeguards the rights of litigants to the just processing of their causes, and earns the trust of the public.

To secure these ends, the Supreme Court of Ohio adopts the following Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio to serve the public interest that mandates prompt disposition of all causes, at all times, in all courts of this state.

RULE 1. Applicability; Authority; Citation.

(A) Applicability. Except where otherwise provided, these Rules of Superintendence for the courts of Ohio are applicable to all courts of appeal, courts of common pleas, municipal courts, and county courts in this state.

(B) Authority. These rules are promulgated pursuant to Article IV, Section 5(A)(1) of the Ohio Constitution.

(C) Citation. These rules shall be known as the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio and shall be cited as “Sup. R. __.”

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 1 is patterned after Rule 1 of the Rules of Superintendence for Courts of Common Pleas and has been revised to reflect the adoption of uniform superintendence rules. The Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio are intended to apply to all trial and appellate courts, except the Court of Claims, unless a rule clearly is intended to apply only to a specific court or division of a court.

RULE 2. Definitions.

As used in these rules:

(A) “Case” means a notice of appeal, petition, or complaint filed in the court of appeals and any of the following when filed in the court of common pleas, municipal court, and county court:

(1) A civil complaint, petition, or administrative appeal;

(2) A criminal indictment, complaint, or other charging instrument that charges a defendant with one or more violations of the law arising from the same act, transaction, or series of acts or transactions;

(3) A petition, complaint, or other instrument alleging that a child is delinquent, unruly, or a juvenile traffic offender based on conduct arising out of the same act, transaction, or series of acts or transactions or a petition alleging that a child is dependent, neglected, or abused;

(4) An estate, trust, guardianship, petition for adoption or other miscellaneous matter as defined in Sup. R. 50.

(B) “Court” means a court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court.

(C) “Division” means the general, domestic relations, juvenile, or probate division of the court of common pleas, any combination of the general, domestic relations, juvenile, or probate divisions of the court of common pleas, or the environmental or housing divisions of the municipal court.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

This rule contains definitions of several terms used throughout the Rules of Superintendence. Because the Rules of Superintendence relate primarily to the internal operation of Ohio courts, these definitions are not intended to apply to questions of statutory interpretation. For example, the definition of “case” is designed as a benchmark for statistical reporting purposes that will allow for some uniform measure of the workload of the courts. The definition is not designed to address statutory issues such as the proper assessment of court costs or filing fees in civil and criminal cases. Reference should be made to Sup. R. 37(A)(4) and 43, and the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court’s implementation manual for further information pertaining to the definition of “case.”

- (A) Be responsible for and exercise control over the administration, docket, and calendar of the court or division;
- (B) Be responsible to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in the discharge of the administrative judge's duties, for the observance of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio, and for the termination of all cases in the court or division without undue delay and in accordance with the time guidelines set forth in Sup.R. 39;

RULE 4.04. Administrative Judge Service as Presiding Judge.

An administrative judge of a court or a division of the court may serve as a presiding judge pursuant to Sup.R. 3.

RULE 5. Local Rules.

(A) Adoption of local rules. (1) Nothing in these rules prevents the adoption of any local rule of practice that promotes the use of any device or procedure to facilitate the expeditious disposition of cases. Local rules of practice shall not be inconsistent with rules promulgated by the Supreme Court.

(2) A local rule of practice shall be adopted only after the court or division provides appropriate notice and an opportunity to comment on the proposed rule. If the court or division determines that there is an immediate need for the rule, the court or division may adopt the rule without prior notice and opportunity for comment, but promptly shall afford notice and opportunity for comment.

(3) Upon adoption, the court or division shall file a local rule of practice with its clerk and the clerk of the Supreme Court. On or before the first day of February of each year, each court or division of a court shall do one of the following:

(a) File with the clerk of the Supreme Court a complete copy of all local rules of the court or division in effect on the immediately preceding first day of January;

(b) Certify to the clerk of the Supreme Court that there were no changes in the immediately preceding calendar year to the local rules of the court or division.

(B) In addition to local rules of practice adopted pursuant to division (A)(1) of this rule and any other Rule of Superintendence, each court or division, as applicable, shall adopt the following by local rule:

(1) A case management plan for the purposes of ensuring the readiness of cases for pretrial and trial, and maintaining and improving the timely disposition of cases. In addition to any other provisions necessary to satisfy the purposes of division (B)(1) of this rule, the plan shall include provisions for an early case management conference, referral to appropriate and available alternative dispute resolution programs, establishment of a binding case management schedule, and a pretrial conference in cases where the trial judge determines a conference is necessary and appropriate. A municipal or county court may establish separate provisions or exceptions from the plan for small claims, traffic, and other types of cases that the court determines would not benefit from the case management plan.

(2) A jury management plan for purposes of ensuring the efficient and effective use and management of jury resources. In addition to any other provisions necessary to satisfy the purposes of division (B)(2) of this rule, the plan shall address the provisions of the Ohio Trial Court Jury Use and Management Standards adopted by the Supreme Court of Ohio on August 16, 1993.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

This rule consolidates several former provisions relating to the adoption of local rules of court. Division (A)(1) recognizes the rule-making authority granted to local courts by Article IV, Section 5(B) of the Ohio Constitution. Division (A)(2) incorporates provisions of the rules of practice and procedure adopted by the Supreme Court that mandate notice and an opportunity to comment prior to the adoption of local rules of court. See the following rules and accompanying 1994 staff notes: Rule 83(B) of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure; Rule 57(A)(2) of the Ohio Rules of Criminal Procedure; Rule 45(A) of the Ohio Rules of Juvenile Procedure; and Rule 31(B) of the Ohio Rules of Appellate Procedure.

The first sentence of division (A)(3) incorporates and modifies the former requirement that a court or division file local rules upon adoption with the clerk of the Supreme Court. The remainder of division (A)(3) contains a new requirement that each court and division annually file a complete set of its local rules with the clerk of the Supreme Court or certify that there were no changes to the local rules in the prior calendar year. Together with the requirement that local rules be filed with the Supreme Court upon adoption, this provision will ensure that the Supreme Court has a current, comprehensive set of local rules adopted by each court or division.

Division (B) retains two former requirements that courts and divisions adopt case management and jury management plans as local rules of court. While each court and division must have a case management plan, the requirement of a jury management plan applies only to those courts or divisions that use juries in the hearing and disposition of cases.

Court Security Plans

The former requirement that each court adopt a security plan has been moved to Rule 9 since the plans no longer are required to be included in local rules of court.

RULE 5.01. Local Child Restraint Rule.

Each court or division of a court shall adopt a local rule governing the use of physical restraints on children appearing in court proceedings before the court or division. The local rule shall do all of the following:

(A) Create a presumption that physical restraint shall not be utilized unless the judge or magistrate before whom the child is appearing makes an individualized determination on the record that there is no less restrictive alternative to the use of physical restraint and that the physical restraint of the child is necessary because of either of the following:

- (1) The child represents a current and significant threat to the safety of the child's self or other persons in the courtroom;
- (2) There is a significant risk the child will flee the courtroom.

(B) Require the judge or magistrate to permit any party, as defined in Juv.R. 2(Y), to be heard on the issue of whether the use of physical restraint is necessary for that particular child at that particular proceeding;

(C) If physical restraint is found necessary by the judge or magistrate, require the restraint be the least restrictive necessary to meet the risk requiring the restraint and in a manner which does not unnecessarily restrict the movement of the child's hands.

RULE 6. Attorney or Pro Hac Vice Registration Number.

Each court shall require an attorney to include the attorney or pro hac vice registration number issued by the Supreme Court on all documents filed with the court. Each court shall use the attorney or pro hac vice registration number issued by the Supreme Court as the exclusive number or code to identify attorneys who file documents with the court.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 9.01 relating to the use of attorney registration numbers assigned by the Supreme Court.

RULE 6.01. Appearance Pro Hac Vice.

A request by an out-of-state attorney for permission to appear pro hac vice in a proceeding of a court shall be governed by Rule XII of the Rules for the Government of the Bar.

RULE 7. Filing of Judgment Entries.

The judgment entry specified in Civil Rule 58 and in Criminal Rule 32 shall be filed and journalized within thirty days of the verdict, decree, or decision. If the entry is not prepared and presented by counsel, it shall be prepared and filed by the court.

Commentary

This rule implements the provisions of Civ. R. 58, which places the burden on the court to “* * * promptly cause the judgment to be prepared * * *.” The purpose of the rule is to assure the entry of judgment in a civil case is not delayed by failure of counsel to prepare and file the entry. The court need not wait thirty days before acting to make the entry.

Crim. R. 32(B) does not explicitly place the burden for preparation of the judgment entry on the court. In criminal cases, Rule 7 explicitly places the burden on the court to prepare a judgment entry when not otherwise prepared within thirty days of judgment. As in civil cases, the court need not wait thirty days before acting to journalize the judgment.

RULE 8. Court Appointments.

(A) Definitions

As used in this rule:

- (1) “Appointment” means the selection by a court or judicial officer of any person or entity designated pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority, rule of court, or the inherent authority of the court to represent, act on behalf or in the interests of another, or perform any services in a court proceeding. The term “appointment” does not include the selection by a court or judicial officer of the following:
 - (a) An acting judge pursuant to R.C. 1901.121(A)(2)(a), (B)(1), or (C)(1) or R.C. 1907.141(A)(2)(a), (B)(1), or (C)(1);
 - (b) A receiver pursuant to R.C. 2735.01;
 - (c) An arbitrator, mediator, investigator, psychologist, interpreter, or other expert in a case following independent formal or informal recommendations to the court or judicial officer by litigants;
 - (d) Any individual who is appointed by any court pursuant to the Revised Code or the inherent authority of the court to serve in a non-judicial public office for a full or unexpired term or to perform any function of an elected or appointed public official for a specific matter as set forth in the entry of appointment;
 - (e) A guardian ad litem pursuant to Sup.R. 48;
 - (f) A guardian pursuant to Sup.R. 66.
- (2) “Appointee” means any person, other than a court employee, receiving an appointment by a court or judicial officer. “Appointee” does not include a person or entity who is selected by someone other than the court.
- (3) “Equitable distribution” means a system through which appointments are made in an objectively rational, fair, neutral, and nondiscriminatory manner and are widely distributed among substantially all persons from the list maintained by the court or division of persons pre-qualified for appointment.
- (4) “Judicial officer” means a judge or magistrate.

(B) Local rule

(1) Each court or division of a court shall adopt a local rule governing appointments made in the court or division.

(2) The local rule required by division (B)(1) of this rule shall include all of the following:

(a) For appointments frequently made in the court or division, a procedure for selecting appointees from a list maintained by the court or division of persons pre-qualified to serve in the capacity designated by the court or division. The procedure shall ensure an equitable distribution of appointments. To ensure an equitable distribution of appointments, the court or division may utilize a rotary system from a graduated list that pairs the seriousness and complexity of the case with the qualifications and experience of the person to be appointed. The court or division may maintain separate lists for different types of appointments.

(b) A procedure by which all appointments made in the court or division are reviewed periodically to ensure the equitable distribution of appointments;

(c) If not addressed by the Revised Code or Supreme Court rule, the compensation appointees will receive for services provided and expenses incurred as a result of the appointment, including, if applicable, a fee schedule.

(3) The local rule required by division (B)(1) of this rule may include the following:

(a) Qualifications established by the court or division for inclusion on the appointment list;

(b) The process by which persons are added to or removed from the appointment list;

(c) Other provisions considered appropriate by the court or division.

(C) Compensation review and report

At least once every five years, each court or division of a court shall review the compensation paid court appointees to determine the compensation's adequacy and effect upon the availability of court appointments. The court or division shall provide the report to all funding authorities of the court or division.

(D) Factors in making appointments

In making appointments, a court or judicial officer shall take into account all of the following:

- (1) The anticipated complexity of the case in which appointment will be made;
- (2) Any educational, mental health, language, or other challenges facing the party for whom the appointment is made;
- (3) The relevant experience of those persons available to accept the appointment, including proficiency in a foreign language, familiarity with mental health issues, and scientific or other evidence issues;
- (4) The avoidance of conflicts of interest or other situations that may potentially delay timely completion of the case;
- (5) Intangible factors, including the court or judicial officer's view of a potential appointee's commitment to providing timely, cost-effective, quality representation to each prospective client.

(E) Payment of fees

- (1) Except as provided in division (E)(2) of this rule, if a party or other person is required to pay all or a portion of the fees payable to an appointee, the appointee promptly shall notify that party or person of the appointment and the applicable fee schedule. The court or division shall require the appointee to file with the court or division and serve upon any party or other person required to pay all or a portion of the fees itemized fee and expense statements on a regular basis as determined by the court or division. If the party or other person required to pay all or a portion of the fees claims that the fees are excessive or unreasonable, the burden of proving the reasonableness of the fees is on the appointee.
- (2) Division (E)(1) of this rule shall not apply to the repayment of all or part of the costs of indigent defense by a criminal defendant as a condition of probation.
- (3) The notification requirement of division (E)(1) of this rule may be satisfied with service upon counsel of record as provided in the applicable rules of procedure.

(F) Code of Judicial Conduct

In making appointments, a court or judicial officer shall conform to all applicable ethical and campaign finance restrictions and requirements of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct.

(G) Effect of inclusion on appointment list

Persons on a list maintained by the court or division of persons pre-qualified to serve are not assured a substantially equal number of appointments. No person is granted a legal right or claim by virtue of this rule.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 8 requires each court or division of a court to adopt a local rule outlining the procedures to be followed within the court or division for making court appointments. Division (B)(2) of the rule specifies three general items that must be included in each local appointment rule. Together with division (B)(3), division (B) provides courts and divisions with flexibility as to the specific content of the local rule in recognition of the different types of appointments that are made in various courts and divisions.

The rule contemplates that each court or division will maintain a list from which appointments will be made. Lists of potential appointees would be required only for appointments frequently made in a court or division, such as the appointment of counsel in criminal cases. However, a list would not be required for appointments rarely made in the court or division, such as the appointment by a probate court of an appraiser for a rare art collection.

Commentary (January 1, 2017)

The 2017 amendments to this rule primarily address questions that have arisen about appointment of counsel for indigent criminal defendants, but in key respects also apply to all court appointments. The amendments are intended to make the following clarifications:

- The rule does not apply to appointments made by a public defender office or other entity outside the control of a court or judicial officer;
- The rule applies to post-sentencing selection by a court or judicial officer;
- That all applicable ethical and campaign finance restrictions and requirements in Ohio's Judicial Conduct Rules apply to every appointment made by a court or judicial officer;
- That the appointment system used by courts or divisions ensures the equitable distribution of appointments, but does not require a blind rotation system among all those available for appointment or a substantially equal number of appointments to everyone on an appointment list. The goal of equitable distribution is to distribute appointments as widely as reasonably possible among available appointees, but without limiting the discretion used in individual courts and individual cases. Studies show the availability of potential appointees across the state varies widely and that a large majority of responding judges seek to maintain their discretion in making appointments. As has been true for nearly two decades, individual courts remain obligated to adopt an appointment system by local rule. In addition, this amendment clarifies that all appointments are to be made in an objectively rational, fair, neutral, and nondiscriminatory manner, even though judicial officers may take into account many factors including the complexity of individual cases, special needs of a party, avoidance of conflicts of interest, time constraints in a case, and the judicial officer's experience with a potential appointee, including current or prior representation of the client, and the perception of the appointee's commitment to providing quality representation to each client.

RULE 9. Court Security Plans.

(A) Court Security Plan

For purposes of ensuring security in court facilities, each court shall develop and implement a court security plan. If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively develop and implement a single court security plan. In addition to any other provisions necessary to satisfy the purposes of this rule, the plan shall address the provisions of the Ohio court security standards adopted by the Supreme Court and as set forth in Appendix C to this rule.

(B) Public Access

For purposes of ensuring security in court facilities, a court security plan, including any security policy and procedures manual, emergency preparedness manual, and continuity of operations manual adopted as part of the court security plan, shall not be available for public access.

RULE 10. Notifying Law Enforcement Agencies of Criminal or Civil Protection Orders.

(A) Upon issuance of a civil or criminal protection order by a court pursuant to section 2151.34, 2903.213, 2903.214, division (E)(2) of 2919.26, or 3113.31 of the Revised Code, the court shall complete “Form 10-A.” “Form 10-A” and a copy of the order shall be filed by the court with the local enforcement agency for entry in the “National Crime Information Center” database and nationwide dissemination. To accommodate local court or law enforcement procedures, the format of “Form 10-A” may be modified, provided the modification does not affect the substantive content of “Form 10-A.”

(B) A court shall follow the instructions in “Form 10-B” for thorough and accurate completion of “Form 10-A” and to facilitate correct entry of criminal or civil protection orders in the “National Crime Information Center” database.

Commentary (March 1, 2000)

FORM 10-B: HOW TO COMPLETE A PROTECTION NOTICE TO NCIC

These instructions are contemplated in light of Form 10-A, Protection Notice to NCIC, to ensure the court's protection order or consent agreement entry is accepted into the protection order database of the National Crime Information Center ("NCIC"). Thorough and accurate completion of Form 10-A is critical, as this form is the sole method to enter the terms and conditions of a protection order into the computerized index of criminal justice information. Inaccurate or inconsistent information in Form 10-A will result in delay in entering the protection order into the NCIC index and enforcing the order. Form 10-A must be completed each time the court approves, issues, modifies, renews, or terminates a protection order or consent agreement, regardless of whether it is an ex parte or full hearing order.

Courts are encouraged to verify with law enforcement that orders are being entered in a timely fashion. The delay in entering a protection order or consent agreement may not only result in the failure to enforce the order, but may also result in the improper authorization of the subject of a protection order to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition.

ELEMENTS OF FORM 10-A

- (A) The required fields in Form 10-A appear in BOLD.
- (B) Form 10-A is the primary method used to inform law enforcement of the terms and conditions of the protection order. The court must mark the appropriate box "Initial NCIC Form" or "Modification of Previous Form."

The court must check "Initial NCIC Form" anytime the court is issuing a protection order for the first time based on a current filing, i.e., an ex parte order or a full hearing order where an ex parte order was not issued. The court must check "Modification of Previous NCIC" for any subsequent change in the terms and conditions of a protection order, including modifications due to a clerical or orthographical correction or termination of the order.

- (C) SUBJECT'S INFORMATION. The subject's full name, including first and last name; race; and sex are mandatory identifiers pursuant to federal guidelines. The other identifiers, i.e., height ("HGT"), weight ("WGT"), hair, and eyes, are not mandatory, yet they are helpful information to ensure the correct person is identified. Similarly, the address is not mandatory information.
- (D) NUMERICAL IDENTIFIER. Pursuant to federal guidelines, the court must provide at least one of four numerical identifiers to properly identify the subject of the protection order:
1. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER ("SSN");
 2. DATE OF BIRTH ("DOB");
 3. DRIVER'S LICENSE NUMBER ("DRIVER'S LIC. NO."): In the instance the driver's license number is provided, the state that issued the driver's license and the expiration date of the driver's license must also be included;
 4. VEHICLE LICENSE NUMBER ("VEHICLE LIC. NO."): In the instance the vehicle's license plate is provided, the state that issued the license plate and the expiration date of the license plate must also be included.

The court should consider providing additional numerical identifiers, if information is available.

- (E) BRADY DISQUALIFIERS. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8), all three factors must be met to be federally disqualified from possessing or purchasing firearms or ammunition due to the issuance of a protection order:

- (1) The parties have an intimate relationship:
 - Spouse of the person;
 - Former spouse of the person;
 - An individual who cohabits or has cohabited with the person;
 - An individual who is a parent of a child of the person.
- (2) The court observed the parties' due process rights, i.e., notice of hearing and opportunity to be heard; AND
- (3) A finding that the person subject to the order poses a credible threat of harm to the protected party.

The subject of a protection order may be Brady disqualified pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(1) through (9), state law, or a court order.

- (F) CASE/ORDER NO. The case/order number of the protection order is a required element. It is particularly relevant when the court modifies, renews, or terminates a protection order. Law enforcement and NCIC will use the case/order number to cross-reference the appropriate order. In addition, law enforcement also uses this information to verify the currency of an order.
- (G) COURT ORIGINATING AGENCY IDENTIFIER. To accept a Form 10-A entry into the federal protection order database, NCIC mandates the court issuing the protection order to include its agency identifier (a.k.a. "ORI"). This is a unique 9 digit alphabetic and numeric series issued by the FBI to identify the court issuing the order.

Although the "Name of Judge/Magistrate" is not a mandatory field, it is prudent to include the name of the judicial officer issuing the protection order. Similarly, NCIC does not require a court to indicate under which Revised Code section the order is being issued. However, this information is captured through the Ohio Courts Network and is useful for law enforcement to quickly determine the possible scope of the order and assess risk.

- (H) DATE OF ORDER AND EXPIRATION OF ORDER. The court must note on the form the date the protection order was issued and the date when it will expire. Civil protection orders expire on a date certain within 5 years of being issued. The protection order database will automatically purge the orders on their expiration date.

In a Criminal Protection Order (R.C. 2903.213) or Temporary Domestic Violence Protection Order (R.C. 2919.26), the order terminates by operation of law upon the disposition of the criminal case. The court may indicate "NONEXP" as the expiration date when the court does not know the exact date the order will expire. The court must submit to law enforcement another Form 10-A indicating "Modification of Previous Form" stating the expiration of the order when such a date is known so that the order can be purged from the NCIC protection order file.

If a protection order or consent agreement is terminated before the original expiration, the court must also submit to law enforcement another Form 10-A indicating "Modification of Previous Form" and state the new expiration date for removal of the order from the protection order file.

- (I) TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ORDER. The court must check every box that corresponds to terms of the protection order. Note that the numbering next to each term and condition in Form 10-A does not correspond to the sequence of the remedies in a protection order or consent agreement. However, the remedies in the protection order forms are cross-referenced with the terms and conditions listed in Form 10-A, e.g. NCIC 01.

The court should submit a new Form 10-A indicating "Modification of Previous Form" to law enforcement in every instance that a term of the court order, i.e., divorce decree or custody order, results in a modification of the protection order.

- (J) LIST ALL PROTECTED PERSONS. A maximum of 9 persons, including the petitioner, may be listed as protected parties in a protection order. The full name and date of birth for each protected person must be provided. The protected person's social security number, race, and gender are not required entries in Form 10-A.

- (K) AUTHORIZED SIGNATURE. The judge or magistrate who issued the protection order must sign and date Form 10-A. Pursuant to Civ.R. 65.1, an ex parte civil protection order issued by a magistrate and filed with the clerk of court has the full force and effect of a court order.

RULE 10.01. Standard Civil Protection Order Forms -- Domestic Relations Division.

(A) The domestic relations division of a court of common pleas shall distribute, upon request, a forms and instructions packet for use in civil protection order proceedings under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. The packet shall include, at a minimum, forms and instructions that are substantially similar to “Forms 10.01-A through 10.01-H.”

(B) An action for a civil protection order pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code shall be commenced by filing a petition form that is substantially similar to “Form 10.01-D.”

(C) In every case in which the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas issues or approves an ex parte civil protection order, a full hearing civil protection order, or a consent agreement pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, the court shall use, as applicable, forms that are substantially similar to “Forms 10.01-H through 10.01-J.”

(D) Every ex parte civil protection order, full hearing civil protection order, and consent agreement that the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas issues or approves pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code shall include a cover sheet that is substantially similar to “Form 10.01-G.”

(E) In every case in which the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas modifies the terms of a full hearing civil protection order or a consent agreement pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, it shall use the applicable forms that are substantially similar to “Forms 10.01-L and 10.01-M.”

(F) In every case in which the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas terminates a full hearing civil protection order or a consent agreement before its original expiration date pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, it shall use the applicable form that is substantially similar to “Form 10.01-L.”

Commentary (January 1, 1998)

On December 9, 1994, Am.Sub.H.B. No. 335 became effective, which made significant changes to Ohio's domestic violence laws. Section 4 of Am.Sub.H.B. No. 335, states as follows:

The General Assembly hereby requests the Supreme Court, in consultation with the Department of Human Services, to prescribe a form that is to be filed by a petitioner seeking a civil protection order under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and that makes reference to all the forms of relief that a court is authorized to grant under division (E) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, contains space for the petitioner to request any of those forms of relief, and includes instructions for completing the form so that a petitioner may file the form without the assistance of an attorney.

The Supreme Court, in consultation with its Domestic Violence Task Force, developed Forms 10.01-C and 10.01-D in response to the General Assembly's request in Am.Sub.H.B. No. 335.

During its eighteen months of study, the Supreme Court's Domestic Violence Task Force determined that pro se victims of domestic violence often do not have access to the forms necessary to obtain a civil protection order pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. The Task Force also found that due to the variety of protection order forms used by Ohio courts, it can be difficult for law enforcement officers to recognize valid protection orders and understand the pertinent provisions of such orders. Further, the Task Force discovered that misconceptions exist in regard to the penalties for violating protection orders. The Court developed this rule and Forms 10.01-A, 10.01-B, and 10.01-E through 10.01-J to address these concerns.

This rule applies to all courts of common pleas that have jurisdiction over civil protection orders and consent agreements pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code.

FORM 10.01-A: GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTION ORDERS

DEFINITIONS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Domestic violence is when a family or household member uses physical violence, threats, intimidation, and/or emotional, sexual, and economic abuse to maintain power and control over the other person, usually within an intimate relationship. Domestic violence is most often a combination of psychological and physical actions; the physical results are just the most visible. Domestic violence is a pattern of conduct in which one intimate partner uses force or threats of force to control the other person.

State law has determined that some forms of abuse do not constitute criminal behavior or behavior requiring the Court's intervention. For example, psychological battering, economic abuse, or verbal harassment without evidence of threats or physical harm are not recognized by Ohio law as domestic violence that allows a petitioner to obtain a protection order or request that criminal charges be filed.

When a family or household member tries to cause you bodily harm by hitting, pushing, beating, or physically hurting you, that is domestic violence. When a family or household member makes you afraid that you will be harmed, that is domestic violence. When a family or household member stalks, commits sexually oriented offenses against you, or forces sexual relations on you, that is domestic violence. When a family or household member abuses your children, that is domestic violence.

IN A CIVIL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASE:

Petition for Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order ("CPO") is the document a domestic violence victim, the victim's parent, or an adult household member of the victim must file with the domestic relations court to obtain a civil protection order against an alleged offender.

Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order ("CPO") Ex Parte is an emergency order the Court issues in response to the Petition for a Civil Protection Order after an ex parte hearing. The ex parte hearing is described in this form on page 3.

Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order ("CPO") Full Hearing is the final order the Court issues after a full hearing. The full hearing is described in this form on page 3. The full hearing CPO replaces the ex parte CPO. Sometimes the final order issued by the Court is a Consent Agreement and Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order, Form 10.01-J, upon terms agreed to by the parties.

Petitioner is the person asking or "petitioning" the Court for protection. By filing the Petition for a CPO, YOU are the Petitioner.

IN A CRIMINAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASE:

Motion for a Criminal Domestic Violence Temporary Protection Order ("DVTPO") is the document that must be filed in a criminal case if a victim of domestic violence or victim of a sexually oriented offense wishes to obtain a protection order against an alleged offender, who is a family or household member. The criminal case must allege the offender committed negligent assault, criminal damaging or endangering, criminal mischief, burglary, aggravated trespass, endangering children, any offense of violence, or any sexually oriented offense against a family or household member. The prosecutor has a form for this purpose.

Domestic Violence Temporary Protection Order ("DVTPO") is the order the Court issues in response to the Motion for Temporary Protection Order. The DVTPO requires the offender to stop abusing and to stay away from the victims named in the Motion for Temporary Protection Order. A DVTPO expires when the alleged offender's criminal case ends or when a new CPO is issued based on the same facts.

Alleged Victim is the person asking the Court for protection in the Motion for a DVTPO.

Defendant is the person the Motion for a DVTPO is filed against. The Defendant is the person accused of the crimes of negligent assault, criminal damaging or endangering, criminal mischief, burglary, aggravated trespass, endangering children, any sexually oriented offense, or any offense of violence against a family or household member.

FEES

You cannot be charged any costs or fees for filing, issuing, registering, modifying, enforcing, dismissing, withdrawing, serving, or obtaining a protection order.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CIVIL PROTECTION ORDERS (CPO)

What is a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order (“CPO”)?

A CPO is issued by a domestic relations court to protect a victim of domestic violence. A CPO is intended to prevent further domestic violence. It orders someone who has been abusive to do or not do certain things in the future. You may want to consider getting a CPO even if you have a DVTPO from a criminal court because a CPO lasts longer and provides more benefits – such as child custody and support orders. Domestic violence includes the commission of sexually oriented offenses.

Violating a CPO is a crime. If the Respondent violates the CPO, he or she may be arrested, jailed, and fined for disobeying the CPO. A CPO can remain in effect for up to 5 years. If the Respondent violates the CPO, you can call the police, go back to the domestic relations court to file a contempt charge, and go to the prosecutor's office to have the Respondent charged with the crime of violating the CPO.

Why get a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order?

If you are a victim of domestic violence, a CPO may help you. Once domestic violence starts, the violence often happens more often and gets increasingly severe. A CPO may stop this cycle of violence because the Court orders the Respondent to stop hurting or threatening you and your family or household members. The Court can use a CPO to order the Respondent to stay away from you for up to five years. A CPO can give you time to "sort things out" and decide what you want to do next without having to be afraid all of the time. If your children have seen domestic violence, a CPO may give all of you a chance to get some help so that you and your children are safe.

Domestic violence is a crime. A CPO tells the Respondent you and the Court are serious about requiring the Respondent to stop his or her abusive behavior and not to hurt or threaten you again.

A CPO sets some "rules" that the Respondent must obey while the CPO is in effect. These rules may require the Respondent to pay child or spousal support; give up possession of a home or car; and/or obey the Court's orders about visitation.

A CPO issued by a domestic relations court may last longer than a DVTPO issued by a criminal court and can provide more kinds of help. You should know that if you get a CPO based upon the same facts as the DVTPO, the DVTPO from the criminal court will automatically end, even if the criminal case continues.

Who can get a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order?

You can apply for a CPO if you are related to the Respondent by blood or marriage AND have lived with Respondent at any time; OR you are living with or have lived with the Respondent during the past five years; OR you used to be married to the Respondent; OR you have a child with the Respondent, whether or not you ever married or lived together.

You can also get a CPO for any member of your household.

You may be able to get a CPO if you have been dating the Respondent; if you share family or financial responsibilities with the Respondent; AND you have an intimate relationship with the Respondent.

Remember that a CPO has limits. If you suspect that the Respondent will not obey the terms of a CPO, contact your local domestic violence program or the Ohio Domestic Violence Network at 800-934-9840.

Do I need an attorney for me to obtain a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order?

No, but you are often better off having legal representation in your CPO proceeding. Neither the Clerk of Court nor other Court employees can give you legal advice. Having an attorney represent you is especially helpful when your case involves contested custody and visitation and/or when an attorney represents the Respondent. If you cannot afford an attorney, contact your local legal aid office at 866-LAWOHIO (toll free), bar association, or Ohio State Legal Services (800-589-5888) for information on low cost or free legal representation.

Must there be a court hearing for me to obtain a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order?

Yes. There are two hearings involved in a CPO case: the ex parte hearing and the full hearing.

Ex Parte Hearing: At this hearing, only you are present. The Respondent is not present.

An ex parte hearing is held on the same day a Petition for Civil Protection Order is filed. If a Petition for a CPO is filed early enough in the day, an ex parte hearing is held that same day. At the ex parte hearing, you take an oath to tell the truth and a judge or magistrate hears your statement of what happened. If the judge or magistrate finds that the events you described meet the requirements of the law, the Court will issue an Ex Parte CPO and schedule a full hearing. If the Respondent is asked to vacate the home in which you live, there will be a full hearing within 7 business days. Otherwise, a full hearing will be set within 10 business days. The Court can hold a full hearing only after the Respondent has been served with the Ex Parte CPO. You may need to fill out forms for the Clerk of Court to cause service.

Full Hearing: The full hearing is the final hearing.

At this hearing, both you and the Respondent can testify. You must be present at the full hearing. You should bring any witnesses and other evidence to support your case. If the Court issues a Full Hearing CPO, it remains in force until the date indicated in the CPO, with 5 years being the maximum.

If the Respondent does not show up for the full hearing, you can still obtain a final CPO. However, if the Respondent is not served with the Ex Parte CPO before the full hearing, the Court postpones the full hearing until the Respondent is served. If the full hearing is postponed, the Ex Parte CPO remains in effect until the full hearing is held.

You may bring an advocate with you to the ex parte and full hearings for support. Some domestic violence shelters and victim assistance programs can provide advocates to go with you to these hearings. Contact your local domestic violence program or the Ohio Domestic Violence Network, 800-934-9840, for program and shelter information.

CRIMINAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDERS (DVTPO)

Your local criminal court grants a DVTPO. You ask the Court for a DVTPO when a criminal complaint is filed alleging someone has committed domestic violence or a sexually oriented offense against you. The DVTPO orders someone who has abused you to do or stop doing certain things in the future. Violating a DVTPO is a crime. If the Defendant violates the DVTPO, the Defendant may be arrested, jailed, and fined for disobeying the DVTPO. Violating a DVTPO is also a reason for the Court to revoke the Defendant's bail. A DVTPO lasts only until the criminal case is ended or a CPO, based on the same facts, is issued by a domestic relations court.

FORM 10.01-B: HOW TO OBTAIN A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CIVIL PROTECTION ORDER (“CPO”)

FORMS TO FILL OUT FOR A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CPO

To obtain a CPO, you need the following documents. You can get all of these documents from the Clerk of Court’s office:

1. Petition for Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order, Form 10.01-D.
2. Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order Ex Parte, Form 10.01-H.
3. If you are requesting temporary custody of a child, Information for Parenting Proceeding Affidavit, Form 10.01-F.
4. If you request financial support, you might need to fill out additional forms that the Clerk of Court’s office will provide you.

Complete the Petition for a CPO form. Complete additional forms, if applicable. Take these documents to the Clerk of Court’s office.

FILING THE PETITION FOR A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CPO FORM

Present your completed forms to the filing window/counter of the Clerk of Court’s office for filing. Do NOT file the Ex Parte CPO form at this time.

A Clerk of Court’s office employee helps you file your documents. You should know that neither the Clerk of Court nor other Court employees can provide you with legal advice.

There is NO FEE for filing the Petition for a CPO form.

Ask a Clerk of Court’s office employee or your local domestic violence assistance group about local Court procedures.

VICTIM ADVOCATE

State law permits you to have a victim advocate with you at all times in court during protection order proceedings. “Victim advocate” means a person who provides support and assistance for a victim of an offense during Court proceedings. Contact your local victim assistance program, local domestic violence program, or the Ohio Domestic Violence Network, 800-934-9840, for advocate information.

ATTENDING THE EX PARTE COURT HEARING

You must appear in front of a judge or magistrate for the ex parte hearing. The judge or magistrate listens to your testimony.

You should tell the judge or magistrate what the Respondent did to make you fear that you or a family member may be in danger. Tell the judge or magistrate if the Respondent injured you, attempted to injure you, or threatened you.

Tell the judge or magistrate what you would like the Court to do to help keep you and other family members safe and to protect the children. For example, you might ask the judge or magistrate to:

1. Order the Respondent to stay away from you;
2. Order the Respondent to be removed from your home;
3. Order the Respondent to get counseling;
4. Award you custody of any children;

5. Order the Respondent to have visitation only under conditions that will keep you and the children safe;
6. Order the Respondent to pay you child support and/or spousal support (alimony);
7. Order the Respondent to be prohibited from having any weapons;
8. Award you possession of a car for your use;
9. Award you possession of your personal property and the children's personal property.

If the judge or magistrate determines that you or your family or household members are in danger of domestic violence, the judge and/or magistrate signs an Ex Parte CPO.

The judge or magistrate then schedules a second hearing (called a "full hearing") within 7 to 10 business days to give the Respondent a chance to be heard. You must appear at the full hearing. Some issues, such as support, may be postponed until this second hearing.

Take the signed Ex Parte CPO to the Clerk of Court's office and have it filed. Tell the Clerk's office where law enforcement officers can find the Respondent to serve him or her with the Ex Parte CPO and other necessary papers.

DISCOVERY

Unless you have received an order from the Court regarding discovery, you have no obligation to comply with a deposition notice, interrogatories, request for production of documents, physical or mental examination, or request for admissions.

If ordered, the Court will indicate each of the following:

1. The time and place where discovery will be held;
2. The names of persons who can be in the room during discovery, including a victim advocate;
3. The necessary terms and conditions to keep everyone safe, including keeping the Petitioner's address confidential.

Discovery must be completed prior to the full hearing.

YOU MUST ATTEND THE FULL HEARING

The full hearing on the Petition for a CPO will be set within 7 to 10 business days after the ex parte hearing. You must attend the full hearing. You may have an attorney present with you at the full hearing.

At the full hearing you must tell what happened again. This time you tell what happened in more detail. Bring with you any witnesses and evidence you have, such as photographs, answering machine tapes, other audio and video recordings, papers such as police reports, hospital records, etc, and any other evidence that will help you prove that the Respondent committed domestic violence against you or another family or household member. Tell the judge or magistrate why you fear the Respondent. You may call the Respondent as a witness to help you prove your case. Tell the judge or magistrate again what you want the Court to do to help keep you and your family members safe.

The Respondent may have an attorney. You may want to ask for a continuance in order to get an attorney. The Respondent may also present evidence and call you as a witness. You may be asked questions by the Respondent or the Respondent's attorney.

After the hearing, if the judge or magistrate decides you are entitled to a CPO, the Court issues a new CPO called a "Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order 'CPO' Full Hearing." This CPO is usually more detailed than the Ex Parte CPO issued after the first hearing. The judge or magistrate could also deny your Petition for a CPO if the Court decides you are not entitled to a CPO. The law does not allow the Court to issue a protection order against you, unless the Respondent has filed a separate action against you.

At the full hearing, you and the Respondent can decide to enter into a Consent Agreement instead of having a hearing in front of the judge or magistrate. If you and the Respondent decide to enter into a Consent Agreement, complete Form 10.01-J: Consent Agreement and Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order, which is contained in the Protection Order packet, and give it to the judge or magistrate. The Consent Agreement and Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order form is also available from your local court web site, the Supreme Court of Ohio web site, or your local court clerk of courts.

ENFORCING YOUR CPO

Your CPO remains in effect for 5 years, unless the Court sets a different expiration date.

Violating a CPO is a crime. If the Respondent violates the CPO, it is a crime. Immediately contact the police.

You may also bring a contempt action in domestic relations court for CPO violations. A contempt action is brought because the Respondent is disregarding the Court's order. You must complete and file a contempt motion with the Clerk of Court's office to begin a contempt action against the Respondent.

CRIMINAL COURT

In addition to the ex parte hearing and full hearing in domestic relations court, you should attend all meetings and hearings as requested by the prosecutor and the Court related to any criminal case filed against the Respondent.

Tell the domestic relations court about any pending criminal cases. Tell the criminal court about any pending domestic relations court cases.

Any Domestic Violence Temporary Protection Order ("DVTPO") issued by a criminal court expires as soon as the criminal case is ended. A DVTPO issued by a criminal court also expires when a CPO is issued by the domestic relations court based upon the same facts.

FORM 10.01-N: HOW TO COMPLETE A MOTION FOR CONTEMPT FOR VIOLATING A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CIVIL PROTECTION ORDER

ENFORCING YOUR CIVIL PROTECTION ORDER

Violating a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order ("CPO") is a crime. If the Order is violated, call the police or prosecutor. You may also bring a contempt action in the Court that issued your CPO if the other party is not obeying the Order. You may hire an attorney to assist you. You must file a contempt motion with the Clerk of Court to begin a contempt action.

SOME HINTS BEFORE YOU BEGIN

- All forms must be typed or printed.
- When you write your name on the Motion for Contempt of a Domestic Violence Civil Protection Order, use the same name that is on your CPO.
- Fill out the Motion as completely and accurately as possible.

FORM YOU WILL NEED

You can get the Motion from the Clerk of Court. Complete the Motion as explained below:

- Fill in the name of the Court, the case number and the judge's last name.
- If you obtained the CPO, you are the Petitioner. Fill in your name and address. If you want your address to be confidential, do not write your address anywhere on the Motion. However, you must include someone's mailing address to allow the Court to send you legal notices about your case.
- If the Court issued the CPO against you, you are the Respondent. Fill in your name and address.
- Fill in the other party's name and address.
- Complete the first paragraph.
- In the numbered paragraphs, check every box that applies. There is space at the end of the Motion for any facts or explanations that you want to tell the Court. Attach additional pages, if needed.
- Signing the Motion: Try to fill out the Motion before you go to the courthouse. AFTER YOU HAVE FILLED OUT THE MOTION, TAKE IT TO A NOTARY PUBLIC TO HAVE YOUR SIGNATURE NOTARIZED. DO NOT SIGN THE MOTION UNLESS YOU ARE IN FRONT OF A NOTARY PUBLIC. An employee of the Clerk of Court may be available to notarize your Motion.
- Complete the Instructions for Service at the end of the Motion. This tells the Clerk of Court how you want the Motion delivered.

FILING THE MOTION FOR CONTEMPT OF A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CPO

- Present your completed Motion to the filing window/counter of the Clerk of Court's office for filing.
- A Clerk of Court's office employee helps you file the Motion.
- The Court shall not charge a fee for filing a contempt motion to you if the CPO was issued for your protection.
- Ask a Clerk of Court's office employee or your local domestic violence assistance provider about your local court procedures.

VICTIM ADVOCATE

State law permits you to have a victim advocate with you at all times in Court during protection order proceedings. Victim advocate means a person who provides support and assistance for a victim of an offense during Court proceedings. Contact your local victim assistance program, local domestic violence program, or the Ohio Domestic Violence Network, 800-934-9840, for advocate information.

ATTENDING THE CONTEMPT HEARING

At the hearing, you should tell the judge or magistrate what the other party did to fail to obey the CPO. If you have any physical evidence (photographs, documents, broken property, etc), bring it to this hearing. If you have any witnesses to the violations, bring them to this hearing. If you want the Court to order any witness to appear at the hearing, you can ask the Clerk of Court to issue a subpoena. This needs to be done as far in advance of the hearing as possible.

The Court will give each party the opportunity to present evidence and witnesses.

After all the evidence is presented at the contempt hearing, the Court may find that the Respondent or Petitioner has failed to comply with the CPO. If so, the Court may order the offending party to do or stop certain acts to comply with the terms of the CPO. The Court can also order the offending party to serve time in jail, pay a fine, or both.

(A) A court that has jurisdiction to issue a temporary protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code shall distribute upon request a forms and instructions packet for use in domestic violence temporary protection order proceedings. The packet shall include, at a minimum, forms and instructions that are substantially similar to Forms 10.01-A, 10.01-B, 10.01-G, 10.02-A, and the motion for temporary protection order form set forth in section 2919.26 of the Revised Code.

(B) In every case in which the court issues a temporary protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, it shall use a form that is substantially similar to Form 10.02-A.

(C) Every temporary protection order that the court issues pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code shall include a cover sheet that is substantially similar to Form 10.01-G.

Commentary (January 1, 1998)

During its eighteen months of study, the Supreme Court's Domestic Violence Task Force determined that due to the variety of protection order forms used by Ohio courts, it can be difficult for law enforcement officers to recognize valid protection orders and understand the pertinent provisions of such orders. The Task Force also discovered that misconceptions exist in regard to the penalties for violating protection orders. Upon recommendation of the Task Force, the Court developed this rule and Forms 10.02-A and 10.01-G to address these concerns.

RULE 10.06. Inter-Court Communication in Domestic Violence and Related Cases.

(A) Determining existence of conflicting order

(1) A court issuing a protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 or 3113.31 of the Revised Code should make a reasonable effort to determine the existence and terms of any domestic violence civil protection orders, domestic violence temporary protection orders, and orders allocating parental rights and responsibilities issued by another court and involving the same parties. A court issuing an order allocating parental rights and responsibilities should make a reasonable effort to determine the existence and terms of any protection orders issued by another court pursuant to section 2919.26 or 3113.31 of the Revised Code and involving the same parties.

(2) To determine the existence and terms of other orders pursuant to division (A)(1) of this rule, a court may utilize the Ohio Courts Network, examine publicly available court records involving the same parties from other courts, or use any other reasonable mechanism suitable for communicating and sharing public information.

(3) A court need not make a record of any communication between it and another court made for the purpose of determining the existence and terms of other orders pursuant to division (A)(1) of this rule.

(3) Division (B)(1) of this rule is not intended to change the procedures for the modification or early termination of a domestic violence civil protection order pursuant to division (E)(8) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code or the procedures for the filing of a copy of a civil or criminal protection order with the local enforcement agency for entry in the National Crime Information Center database pursuant to Rule 10 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio.

All other expenses of electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings shall be costs in the action.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 11 is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 10 and M.C. Sup. R. 8.

The rule authorizes the use of any one of several media in recording proceedings before a court.

In this comment and in the comment to Rule 12, the terms, "record," "transcript of proceedings," "transcribe," and "transcription" are used. As a preliminary consideration, the manner in which those terms are used in these comments is set forth.

The definition of "record" is the same as that contained in App. R. 9(A):

The original papers and exhibits thereto filed in the trial court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, including exhibits, and a certified copy of the docket and journal entries prepared by the clerk of the trial court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases. * * *

The transcript of proceedings is the part of the record that reflects the events in the trial not represented by original papers. Essentially, it is the testimony of witnesses and the oral participation of counsel and of the trial judge, as recorded by the court reporter, and required for the purposes of appeal. The transcript of proceedings is the end product of whatever medium is used to record the proceedings. In traditional practice, the stenographic notes constituted a transcript of proceedings in that oral testimony was transcribed into stenographic notes. Of course, a second transcription into written form was necessary to put the proceedings into a form that could be readily used by all.

When the verb, transcribe, is used in these comments, it means preserving oral testimony by conversion to another medium. The other medium may be stenographic notes, videotape, motion picture sound track, or audio tape. It may also mean the conversion from one recorded medium to another.

When the noun, transcription, is used, it means the copy, either in the original medium or in the conversion medium.

Rule 11(A) Recording Devices

Recordation represents the best method of providing an accurate base for the creation of a transcript of proceedings required for an appeal under App. R. 9(A). In civil matters, there is no obligation to record the proceedings before the court. However, the court must provide a means of recording the proceedings in a civil matter upon the request of a party. R.C. 2301.20 requires the court of common pleas to provide a reporter on request of a party or their attorney. That provision applies to the municipal court by virtue of R.C. 1901.21(A).

Rule 11(A) authorizes stenographic means, which refers to shorthand in one of its forms. Phonogramic means refers to the use of a stenotype. Photographic means refers to sound motion pictures, the recording on photographic film. Audio electronic recording devices refers to the several systems for recording sound on magnetic tape, magnetic discs, or an impression disc or belt. A video recording system is one which records sound and picture on videotape.

Rule 11(A) directs that the choice of method of recording of proceedings is vested in the administrative judge rather than in the individual judge in a multi-judge court.

Rule 11(B) Appeal

A major source of delay in the appellate process is the transcribing from stenographic notes to written record. One of the advantages of recording proceedings on videotape is that there is an instant record prepared. The preparation of briefs can begin at the conclusion of the trial without a lengthy wait for the transcribing of the reporter's notes. Videotape has an advantage over the other electronic media in that it is easier to identify overlapping voices than it is in a pure audio recording.

On appeal, the record is composed of the original papers (pleadings, motions, depositions, exhibits, etc.), the transcript of proceedings, if any, including exhibits, and a certified copy of the docket and journal entries. The parties to the appeal have control over the extent of the transcript of proceedings under App. R. 9(B). The appellant selects the portions of the transcript that are necessary to the appeal. The appellee may require additional inclusions, if necessary to the resolution of the assignments of error. When the appellant intends to urge that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the weight of the evidence, the appellant must include a transcript of all evidence relevant to the finding or conclusion. Even where it is claimed that a verdict is against the manifest weight of the evidence, it is not automatic that all evidence is relevant to that issue. For example, where a verdict finds no liability, evidence as to damages is not relevant to the issue of the verdict being against the manifest weight of the evidence. Appellants have followed a common practice of ordering the entire transcription of the proceedings for inclusion in the record on appeal, thus aggravating the problem of delay. The record on videotape negates the problem.

Rule 11(E) requires that the reference in a brief to a particular portion of a videotape recorded transcript of proceedings be to the event, the reel of videotape, and the elapsed time counter reading. For example: Testimony of Dr. Doug Ross, Reel 3, 1-06-55 to 1-14-23. The party would have the testimony within that time span transcribed into written form and append it to the brief to comply with Rule 11(B). The party may make the transcription from the videotape or from an audio tape recording furnished by the reporter, provided there is an accurate frame of reference to the elapsed time counter. The inclusion assists the reviewing court in that the court does not have to place the appropriate reel on the playback equipment, find the appropriate portion, and view the testimony, remembering it for the purposes of decision.

Rule 11(C) Custody

R.C. 2301.20 provides that the official shorthand reporter is required to retain and preserve the shorthand notes. The provision is necessary because the reporter may be called upon to transcribe the notes into written form. It is a difficult task for another person to transcribe a reporter's shorthand notes. In contrast, records made in electronic media are complete at the conclusion of the proceedings and do not require a reporter's transcription to be utilized by others.

The trial court has custody and control over the electronic recordings of proceedings, including the release of the videotape recording after it has served its function. Videotape is reusable and specific provision is made in Rule 13(E) for the disposition of videotape recordings filed with the court. The same standards serve to guide the court in releasing a videotape recording of proceedings under this rule.

Rule 11(D) Inspection of electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings

All electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings are required to be maintained in the manner directed by the trial court as provided in Rule 11(C).

Rule 11(D) provides that a party may view or hear the transcript of proceedings on file. Party is used as a simplified reference; the reference includes a party's counsel. There is a clear implication that electronic transcripts of proceedings are not available for indiscriminate public viewing, anymore than stenographic notes in the hands of the official court reporter are available for public inspection and reading. Rule 11(C) places the responsibility for custody and maintenance of the filed electronically recorded transcripts in the trial court. The court may entertain and dispose of requests to view the videotape record by persons other than parties or their counsel.

The important aspect of the rule is that a party does not have to order a copy of the videotape recording in videotape or in an audio recording for the purposes of preparing an appeal. The party may work from the original. As a practical matter, the inexpensive audio cassette recording made simultaneously with the videotape recording or made from the videotape sound track provides the information needed for brief preparation with the exception of the superimposed time readings.

Rule 11(E) References to electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings

The rule implements App. R. 16(D) and Rule VI, Section 1(B)(3) of the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court. Those references contemplated written records and call for reference to the pages of the record. This rule adapts the reference system to the electronically recorded transcript of proceedings. The example used in the discussion above is repeated to illustrate the reference to videotape: Testimony of Dr. Doug Ross, Reel 3, 1-06-55 to 1-14-23.

Rule 11(F) Expense of electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings

The rule refers to three distinct areas of expense: (1) the recording of the proceedings themselves; (2) the securing of copies of the transcript of proceedings; and (3) the viewing of the transcript of proceedings.

The expense of recording the proceedings electronically may be made up of different items: the cost of the videotape used, a fee for personnel and equipment to make the recording, and a fee for renting equipment operated by court personnel. The rule provides that these expenses are costs in the action. The official shorthand reporter's services are paid for on an annual salary basis or, if the appointment is for less than one year, on a per diem fixed by the court. R.C. 2301.22. It is also provided that an $25.00 per diem fee be taxed as costs in each reported case and paid into the county general fund. R.C. 2301.21. The rule provision that the expenses of making the electronic recording of the proceedings be costs has the force of statute by virtue of Article IV, Section 5 of the Ohio Constitution and provides an equivalency to the statutory provision relating to an official shorthand reporter. The costs charged for electronic recording consist of the disbursements made by the court; the amounts applicable to the official shorthand reporter are not the amounts charged. Costs would not include allowances for regular court employees. The owner of the videotape is the party who pays the assessed costs, which include the price of the videotape used in the recording of the proceedings.

The rule provides that the cost of an electronically recorded transcript of proceedings shall be borne by the party requesting the copy or as provided by law. This is in contrast to the provisions made for copies of transcripts from the notes of the official shorthand reporter. R.C. 2301.24 provides that the requesting party pay the compensation specified directly to the reporter, and R.C. 2301.25 provides that the cost of the transcript shall be charged as costs in the case. The same statutes provide that the cost of copies ordered by the trial judge or the prosecuting attorney are to be paid from the public treasury and charged as costs in the case. The difference in treatment between an electronically recorded transcript and one recorded stenographically or phonographically is that the electronic transcript is completed, accessible and usable at any given time without a transcription. A transcription is a convenience, not a necessity, in contrast to stenographic notes which must be transcribed to be useful. R.C. 2301.24 and 2301.25, relating to the provision of transcripts to indigent criminal defendants remain in effect, leaving the matter to the discretion of the trial court. Copies of the transcript may be whole or partial. It may be in the same medium or it may be transcribed into another medium. For example, videotape may be reproduced, the sound track alone may be reproduced as an audio tape recording, or the testimony may be transcribed into written form. Rule 13(A). The cited section applies in municipal courts by virtue of R.C. 1901.21. An example of a provision of law which would make the cost of a transcript recorded on videotape an item of costs in the case is App. R. 24.

Electronically recorded transcripts of proceedings introduce a new factor, viewing or hearing the original transcript of proceedings for brief preparation or the purposes of post-judgment motions. The rule provides that the expense of such viewing or hearing is an expense to be borne by the requesting party. The provision has no counterpart in the statutes by virtue of the nature of the reporter's notes. The provision is commensurate with the requirement that the requesting party bear the cost of a copy. It is a substitute for securing a copy. Viewing or hearing by the prosecuting attorney will be at public expense whether through the prosecuting attorney's budget or through the court's budget. The rule does not provide for that expense to be charged as costs in the case as was true of the expense of copies under the cited statutes.

RULE 12. Conditions for Broadcasting and Photographing Court Proceedings.

(A) Presiding judge. The judge assigned to the trial or hearing shall permit the broadcasting or recording by electronic means and the taking of photographs in court proceedings that are open to the public as provided by Ohio law. After consultation with the media, the judge shall specify the place or places in the courtroom where the operators and equipment are to be positioned. Requests for permission for the broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking of photographs in the courtroom shall be in writing and the written order of the judge shall be made a part of the record of the proceedings.

(B) Permissible equipment and operators.

(1) Use of more than one portable television, videotape, or movie camera with one operator shall be allowed only with the permission of the judge.

(2) Not more than one still photographer shall be permitted to photograph trial proceedings without permission of the judge. Still photographers shall be limited to two cameras with two lenses for each camera.

(3) For radio broadcast purposes, not more than one audio system shall be permitted in court. Where available and suitable, existing audio pickup systems in the court facility shall be used by the media. If existing audio pickup systems are not available, microphones and other electronic equipment necessary for the audio pickup shall be as inconspicuous as possible but shall be visible.

(4) Visible audio recording equipment may be used by news media reporters with the prior permission of the judge.

(5) Arrangements between or among media for “pooling” of equipment shall be the responsibility of the media representative authorized to cover the proceeding. “Pooling” arrangements are to be made outside the courtroom and without imposing on the judge or court personnel. If disputes arise over arrangements between or among media representatives, the judge may exclude all contesting representatives from the proceedings.

(6) The judge shall prohibit the use of electronic or photographic equipment that produces distracting sound or light. No artificial lighting other than that normally used in the courtroom shall be employed, provided that, if the normal lighting in the courtroom can be improved without becoming obtrusive, the judge may permit modification.

(7) Still photographers and television and radio representatives shall be afforded a clear view but shall not be permitted to move about in the courtroom during court proceedings from the places where they have been positioned by the judge, except to leave or enter the courtroom.

(C) Limitations.

(1) There shall be no audio pickup or broadcast of conferences conducted in a court facility between attorneys and clients or co-counsel or of conferences conducted at the bench between counsel and the judge.

(2) The judge shall inform victims and witnesses of their right to object to being filmed, videotaped, recorded, or photographed.

(3) This rule shall not be construed to grant media representatives any greater rights than permitted by law.

(4) Media representatives shall not be permitted to transmit or record anything other than the court proceedings from the courtroom while the court is in session.

(D) Revocation of permission. Upon the failure of any media representative to comply with the conditions prescribed by this rule or the judge, the judge may revoke the permission to broadcast or photograph the trial or hearing.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 12 is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 11 and M.C. Sup. R. 9. Division (A) was revised to include a reference to standards set forth in Ohio law, such as In re T.R. (1990), 52 Ohio St.3d 6, that govern public access to court proceedings. The 1997 amendments also eliminated the prohibition against changing film and videotape during court proceedings.

Rule 12(A) Presiding Judge

The judge assigned to the trial or hearing shall permit the broadcasting or recording by electronic means and the taking of photographs in court proceedings open to the public, upon request, if the judge determines that to do so would not distract the participants, impair the dignity of the proceedings or otherwise materially interfere with the achievement of a fair trial. Both the request for permission and the ruling on the request must be in writing and made a part of the record of the proceedings.

The filming, videotaping, recording, or taking of photographs of victims or witnesses who object shall not be permitted.

After consultation with the media the judge specifies the locations within the courtroom where operators and equipment may be located. However, still photographers and television and radio representatives must be given a clear view of the proceedings under division (B)(7).

Rule 12(B) Permissible Equipment and Operators

Not more than one portable television, videotape, or movie camera with one operator and not more than one still photographer with two cameras shall be allowed unless the judge presiding at the trial or hearing specifically permits additional cameras or operators. Each of the two still cameras permitted by the rule is limited to two lenses.

For purposes of radio broadcasting, not more than one audio system is permitted. If an existing audio system is available and suitable, it shall be used. If an audio system is not available, then microphones and other necessary equipment "shall be as inconspicuous as possible but must be visible."

Portable audio recording equipment may be used by reporters if it is visible and if the permission of the judge presiding at the trial or hearing is first obtained.

All pooling arrangements are the responsibility of the media representatives. Pooling arrangements must be made without involving the court. If any disputes arise, the judge may exclude all contesting media representatives.

Electronic or photographic equipment that produces distracting sound or light shall be prohibited by the judge. No artificial lighting, other than that normally used in the courtroom, is permitted unless the judge, upon request and after consultation with the media representatives, determines that the normal light can be improved without becoming obtrusive.

Still photographers and television and radio representatives shall not move about the courtroom from the place where they have been positioned by the judge, except to leave or enter the courtroom.

Rule 12(C) Limitations

Audio pickup or broadcast of conferences in a court facility between attorney and client or between counsel and the judge are prohibited.

The trial judge must advise victims and witnesses of their right to object to being filmed, videotaped, recorded, or photographed.

No part of Rule 12 gives authority for media coverage where it is otherwise limited or prohibited by law.

While the court is in session, media representatives are not permitted to either transmit or record anything from the courtroom other than court proceedings.

Rule 12(D) Revocation of Permission

If any media representative fails to comply with the conditions set by either the judge or this rule, the judge may revoke the permission to broadcast or photograph the trial or hearing.

RULE 13. Videotaped Testimony and Evidence.

(A) Videotape depositions.

- (1) Authority. Videotape depositions are authorized by Civil Rule 30(B)(3).
- (2) Notice. The notice requirements of Civil Rule 30(B)(3) regarding the manner of recording, preserving, and filing depositions apply to videotape depositions. Notice is sufficient if it specifies that the videotape deposition is to be taken pursuant to the provisions of this rule.
- (3) Persons authorized to take depositions. The officer before whom a videotape deposition is taken shall be one of those persons enumerated in Civil Rule 28.
- (4) Date and time recording. A date and time generator shall be used to superimpose the year, month, day, hour, minute, and second over the video portion of the recording during the taking of the deposition. The total deposition time shall be noted on the outside of the videotape.
- (5) Objections. The officer shall keep a log of objections referenced to the time of making each objection as superimposed on the video portion of the recording. If the deposition is transcribed, the log shall include the page of the transcript on which each objection occurs.
- (6) Copies of the deposition. Upon the request of a party, the officer shall provide an audio cassette recording of the deposition at the conclusion of its taking. Upon the request of a party, the officer shall provide a copy of the deposition in the medium of videotape or a written transcript of the deposition within a reasonable period of time. The requesting party shall bear the cost of the copy requested.
- (7) Submission to witness. After a videotape deposition is taken, the videotape shall be shown immediately to the witness for his examination, unless the examination is waived by the witness and the parties.
- (8) Certification of original videotape deposition. The officer before whom the videotape deposition is taken shall cause a written certification to be attached to the original videotape. The certification shall state that the witness was fully sworn or affirmed by the officer and that the videotape is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. If the witness has not waived his or her right to a showing and examination of the videotape deposition, the witness shall also sign the certification.

When an officer makes a copy or a transcription of the videotape deposition in any medium, he or she shall attach a written certification to the copy or transcription. The certification shall state that the copy is a true record of the videotape testimony of the witness.
- (9) Certification of edited videotape depositions. The officer who edits the original videotape deposition shall attach a written certification to the edited copy of the videotape deposition. The certification shall state that the editing complies with the rulings of the court and that the original videotape deposition has not been affected by the editing process.

(10) Filing where objections not made. Where objections are not made by a party or witness during the deposition and, if pursuant to Civil Rule 30(F)(1) a party requests, or the court orders, that the deposition be filed with the court, the officer shall file the deposition with the clerk of the court.

(11) Filing where objections made. When a deposition containing objections is filed with the court pursuant to Civil Rule 30(F)(1), it shall be accompanied by the officer's log of objections. A party may request that the court rule upon the objections within fourteen days of the filing of the deposition or within a reasonable time as stipulated by the parties. In ruling upon objections, the court may view the videotape recording in its entirety or view only those parts of the videotape recording pertinent to the objections made. If the parties are not present at the time the court's rulings are made, the court shall provide the parties with copies of its rulings on the objections and his instructions as to editing.

(12) Editing alternatives. The original videotape shall not be affected by any editing process.

(a) In its order and editing instructions the court may do any of the following:

(i) Release the videotape to the officer with instructions to keep the original videotape intact and make an edited copy of the videotape that deletes all references to objections and objectionable material;

(ii) Order the person showing the original videotape at trial to suppress the objectionable audio portions of the videotape;

(iii) Order the person showing the original videotape at trial to suppress the objectionable audio and video portions of the videotape.

(b) If the court uses alternative in division (A)(12)(a)(i) of this rule, the officer shall cause both the original videotape recording and the edited videotape recording, each clearly identified, to be filed with the clerk of the court. If the court uses the alternative in division (A)(12)(a)(ii) of this rule, it shall, in jury trials, instruct the jury to disregard the video portions of the presentation when the audio portion is suppressed. If the court uses the alternative in division (A)(12)(a)(iii) of this rule, it shall, in jury trials, instruct the jury to disregard any deletions apparent in the playing of the videotape.

(13) Storage. Each court shall provide secure and adequate facilities for the storage of videotape recordings.

(14) Inspection or viewing. Except upon order of the court and upon such terms as it may provide, the videotape recordings on file with the clerk of the court shall not be available for inspection or viewing after filing and prior to use at trial or disposition in accordance with this rule. Upon the request of a party under division (A)(3) of this rule, the clerk, without court order, may release the videotape to the officer to allow the making of a copy of the videotape.

(15) Objections at trial. Objections should be made prior to trial, and all objections shall be made before actual presentation of the videotape at trial. If an objection is made at trial that has not been waived pursuant to Civil Rule 32(D)(3) or previously raised and ruled upon, the objection shall be made before the videotape deposition is presented. The trial judge shall rule on objections prior to the presentation of the videotape. If an objection is sustained, that portion of the videotape containing the objectionable testimony shall not be presented.

(B) Videotape trials.

(1) Authority. Videotape trials are authorized by Civil Rule 40. In videotape trials, videotape is the exclusive medium of presenting testimony irrespective of the availability of the individual witness to testify in person. All testimony is recorded on videotape and the limitations of Civil Rule 32 upon the use of depositions shall not apply.

(2) Initiation of videotape trial. By agreement of the parties and with the consent of the trial judge all or a portion of testimony and appropriate evidence may be presented by videotape. The trial judge may order the recording of all or a portion of testimony and evidence on videotape in an appropriate case. In determining whether to order a videotape trial, the trial judge, after consultation with counsel, shall consider the costs involved, the nature of the action, and the nature and amount of testimony.

(3) Procedure. Divisions (A)(3) to (13) and (D) apply to videotape trials. The sequence of taking the testimony of individual witnesses and the sequence of presentation of that testimony shall be at the option of the proponent. In ordering or consenting to the recording of all of the testimony on videotape, the trial judge shall fix a date prior to the date of trial by which all recorded testimony shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

(4) Objections. All objections shall be made and ruled upon in advance of the trial. Objections may not be made during the presentation of the videotape evidence.

(5) Presence of counsel and trial judge. In jury trials, counsel for the parties and the trial judge are not required to be present in the courtroom when the videotape testimony is played to the jury. If the trial judge leaves the courtroom during the playing of the videotape, the judge shall admonish the jurors regarding their duties and responsibilities. In the absence of the judge, a responsible officer of the court shall remain with the jury. The trial judge shall remain within such proximity to the courtroom that he or she can be readily summoned.

(C) Equipment.

(1) Standard. There are several recording format standards used in the trial courts of this state. Proponents of videotape testimony or evidence shall determine the format utilized by the trial court in which the videotape is to be filed and shall make the videotape recording on the appropriate format machine. If a party records testimony or evidence on videotape that is not compatible with the trial court equipment, the party shall be responsible for the furnishing of reproduction equipment of institutional quality or for the conversion of the videotape to the standards used in trial court equipment, all of which shall be at the cost of the party and not chargeable as costs of the action.

Each court shall provide for the availability of playback equipment. As may be appropriate, the court may purchase or lease equipment or make contract for the equipment on occasions of need. The court shall provide for the adequate training of an operator from the personnel of the court or for the services of a competent operator to operate the equipment when videotape testimony or evidence is presented in court.

(2) Minimum equipment. At a minimum, facilities for playback at trial shall consist of a videotape player and one monitor, having at least a fourteen-inch screen. Color facilities are not required.

(3) Maintenance. The trial court shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the equipment is maintained within operating tolerances. The trial court shall provide for competent regular maintenance of equipment that is owned or leased by the court.

(D) Costs; videotape depositions.

(1) The expense of videotape as a material shall be borne by the proponent.

(2) The reasonable expense of recording testimony on videotape, the expense of playing the videotape recording at trial, and the expense of playing the videotape recording for the purpose of ruling upon objections shall be allocated as costs in the proceeding in accordance with Civil Rule 54.

(3) The expense of producing the edited version of the videotape recording shall be costs in the action, provided that the expense of the videotape, as a material, shall be borne by the proponent of the testimony.

(4) The expense of a copy of the videotape recording and the expense of an audio tape recording of the videotape sound track shall be borne by the party requesting the copy.

(E) Disposition of videotape filed with the court.

(1) Ownership. Videotape used in recording testimony shall remain the property of the proponent of the testimony. Videotape may be reused, but the proponent is responsible for submitting a recording of acceptable quality.

(2) Release of videotape recordings.

(a) The court may authorize the clerk of the court to release the original videotape recording and the edited videotape recording to the owner of the videotape upon any of the following:

- (i) The final disposition of the cause where no trial occurs;
- (ii) The expiration of the appeal period following trial, if no appeal is taken;
- (iii) The final determination of the cause, if an appeal is taken.

If the testimony is recorded stenographically by a court reporter during the playing of the videotape at trial, the videotape may be returned to the proponent upon disposition of the cause following the trial.

(b) The court shall order release by journal entry.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 13 is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 12 and M.C. Sup. R. 10. The rule is revised to require the exterior of the videotape to include the total deposition time [division (A)(4)]; to require objections to be noted on the log of transcribed depositions [division (A)(5)]; and to allow expenses associated with the use of videotape to be allocated as costs in the proceeding [division (D)(6)(b)].

In general, the rule implements Civ. R. 30(B)(3), which permits the recording of oral depositions by a means other than stenographic, and Civ. R. 40, which authorizes the prerecording of testimony on videotape for presentation at trial. The rule adapts the provisions developed in stenographic recording to use in electronic recording. Depositions in criminal cases are taken in the same manner as in civil cases. Crim. R. 15(E).

Rule 13(A) Videotape depositions

Rule 13(A)(2) Notice

Civ. R. 30(B)(3) provides that the notice must specify the manner of recording, preserving, and filing of the deposition taken by other than stenographic means. A complete statement of notice would be lengthy, serve no useful purpose, refer to procedures within the control of the court, and not be uniform. Division (A) specifies the manner of recording, preserving and filing; thus it is necessary in the notice to merely make reference to Rule 13 to satisfy the requirements of Civ. R. 30(B)(3).

Rule 13(A)(3) Persons authorized to take depositions

R.C. 147.01 was amended in 1977 to provide that a notary public is appointed and commissioned as a notary public for the state. A videotape equipment operator need only be commissioned as a notary public to be an officer before whom a deposition may be taken anywhere in the state.

Rule 13(A)(4) Date and time recording

A date and time generator is required because it facilitates reference to any portion of the tape and provides an assurance that no material has been edited out of the tape.

Rule 13(A)(5) Objections

The officer before whom the deposition is taken is required to keep a log of objections and where recorded on the tape to facilitate reference to the objections. For the same purpose, the log must include the page of the transcript on which objections occur if the videotaped deposition is transcribed.

Rule 13(A)(6) Copies of the deposition

This provision was formerly a part of division (A)(3). It is more specific than its predecessor by providing for immediate delivery of an audio cassette recording and by placing the responsibility for the cost of copies on the requesting party.

Rule 13(A)(7) Submission to witnesses

Civ. R. 30(E) provides that an oral deposition, when fully transcribed, is to be submitted to the witness for examination and reading. The rule provides that changes in form or substance desired by the witness may be entered on the deposition with a statement as to the reasons the witness had for making the changes. The changes are not corrections. They are additions with explanations for the additions. When videotape is used, there is no necessity for waiting for a transcription into written form. As soon as the deposition is completed, it is ready for viewing by the witness. If there are changes desired, those additions may be made to the deposition, together with the reasons therefor, and recorded on the videotape in the same manner that the initial testimony was entered. The showing can be waived just as the reading can be waived.

In neither the stenographic method of recording nor in the videotape method of recording is the primary purpose of the review by the witness a check on the accuracy of the recording. It is intended to be an assurance that the final product is the testimony that the deponent wants used in the trial or proceeding.

Rule 13(A)(8) Certification of original videotape deposition

Civ. R. 30(F), relating to certification by the officer before whom the deposition was taken, was designed for the written deposition. Division (A)(8) allays confusion as to how a reel of videotape can be signed. It provides that a written certification be attached to the original videotape recording reel. The content of the certification is the same for either method. The rule also provides for adding the signature of the witness, if the witness' signing is not waived by the parties. Civ. R 30(E) incorporates the requirement that the witness sign a written deposition.

The final paragraph of division (A)(8) provides for a different certification. It relates to the officer's certification as to the authenticity of a copy. It is applicable to every copy or transcription the officer makes.

Rule 13(A)(9) Certification of edited videotape depositions

When the court requires an edited copy of a videotape deposition pursuant to division (A)(12), the officer who makes the edited copy is required to certify the conformity of the edited copy to the rulings of the court. The officer also is required to certify that the integrity of the original videotape recording has not been breached.

Rule 13(A)(10) Filing where objections not made

The rule is the counterpart of a provision in Civ. R. 30(F)(1). Filing is not automatic in the case of a deposition irrespective of the medium in which it is recorded. Filing depends upon the request of the party or order of the court. When there are no objections interposed, there is no further step to be taken before the deposition is viewed by the trier of fact.

Civ. R. 30(F)(3) requires that the party requesting the filing of a deposition give notice of its filing to all other parties. Civ. R. 5(A). The modes of service are set forth in Civ. R. 5(B). Filing of the notice with proof of service is provided for in Civ. R. 5(D).

Rule 13(A)(11) Filing where objections made

The officer's log of objections is required by division (A)(5) and provides a means of easy reference to the location of the objections by listing the time of the objection as shown by the date and time generator's recording. When there are objections, a party may request the court to rule on the objections. The appropriate form of request would be a written motion. The rule has extended the period for filing the request to fourteen days from the filing of the deposition or such reasonable time as may be stipulated by the parties. Civ. R. 32(A) provides that a deposition need be filed only one day before trial to be used in the trial. In the event of late filing of a deposition, the disposition of the objections should be as the court directs.

Rarely does an objecting party urge all objections made. Good procedure requires the objecting party to indicate, by log reference, the objections no longer urged.

Rule 13(A)(12) Editing alternatives

It is vital to the use of videotape that the integrity of the original recording be maintained at every stage of the proceedings. No mode of editing may alter the original recording. The rule specifies three alternatives to be followed in the editing process, the choice among which lies with the court. The court, in an order to the officer, specifies the method desired.

One of the purposes of videotape usage is to provide an uninterrupted flow of admissible testimony. Editing serves to keep inadmissible testimony from the jurors.

The first alternative involves the making of a second tape, which is a copy of the original except that it omits all reference to inadmissible testimony. This method has the disadvantage of additional expense in material and time in creating the second tape, the one actually played to the jury.

The second alternative involves the use of the original videotape deposition. At the playing of the tape to the jury, the operator suppresses the sound where there is inadmissible testimony. A schedule of suppression, keyed to the time recorded on the videotape, is prepared in advance by the officer. The operator merely follows the directions of the schedule in playing the videotape recording. Editing for that mode consists of creating the suppression schedule in conformity to the court's rulings. Usage has demonstrated that the jury is not adversely affected by viewing the picture during the period of sound suppression. The method has the advantage of economy in preparation.

The third alternative involves the suppression of the picture as well as the sound.

The rule requires the court to instruct the jury against reading some meaning into the periods of suppression.

Rule 13(A)(13) Storage

The provision is necessitated by Civ. R. 30(B)(3), which requires the notice to contain information as to the method of preserving the recording. Rule 12(A)(2) permits compliance by a reference to Civ. R. 30(B)(3).

Rule 13(A)(14) Inspection or viewing

Former R.C. 2319.19 provided that a deposition, when sealed and filed, remained sealed until opened by the clerk for use, by order of the Court, or at the request of a party or counsel. Civ. R. 30(F)(1), which superseded the statute, provides that the deposition is sealed only upon request or upon court order with the implication of its unavailability to others until it is offered into evidence. The videotape medium requires mechanical aid in viewing that places an additional limitation upon inspection. Division (A)(14) limits inspection to that ordered by the court. Provision for copies of depositions in the form of videotape, audio recording, or written transcript is made in division (A)(6). The simplest and most economical copy is on audio tape and it obviates the necessity for viewing of the videotape deposition. To facilitate the making of a copy for a party, division (A)(14) provides for release of the original recording to the officer before whom the deposition was taken for the purpose of making a copy. Release may be by the clerk without a court order.

Rule 13(A)(15) Objections at trial

The rule recognizes that it is not possible for all objections to be ruled upon in advance of trial. For example, an objection to a hypothetical question propounded to a medical witness may be found to incorporate facts not established in the trial. Until the testimony relative to the facts has been introduced, the sufficiency of the question cannot be determined. In addition, it cannot be assumed that attorneys can foresee every valid objection, particularly when the testimony is being taken out of the normal sequence. The rule recognizes the possibility of a proper objection made at the trial for the first time. Two limitations are placed upon such objections. It cannot be the renewal of an objection previously ruled upon and it cannot be an objection waived under Civ. R. 32(D)(3). Under division (D)(3)(a) of that rule, objection to the competency of a witness or the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony is not waived by failure to raise at the deposition unless the ground might have been obviated or removed, if presented then. Errors and irregularities (e.g., form of question, which might be obviated), if raised, are waived unless objected to at the hearing. Division (A)(15) provides that objections raised at trial must be considered and ruled upon in advance of the playing of the recording. Testimony ruled inadmissible at that point poses no problem. The sound (and picture) may be suppressed for that testimony and thus not heard by the jury.

Rule 13(B) Videotape trials

Rule 13(B)(1) Authority

Division (B) implements Civ. R. 40, which permits the presentation of the entire testimony and other appropriate evidence in a civil case by videotape. It does not authorize the use of videotape for the presentation of part of the testimony. If only part of the testimony is to be offered on videotape, then the deposition procedure of division (A) is to be followed. Division (B)(1) spells out the limitation of the concept to the entirety of the testimony in a civil trial and also provides that the limitations placed upon the use of depositions do not apply when Civ. R. 40 is invoked. The reason is that the deposition rule does not apply because depositions are not being offered.

In State v. Gettys (1976), 49 Ohio App. 2d 241, a local rule of court required the prerecording of testimony on videotape in a criminal case for presentation to the jury without the intervention of testimony from the witness stand. The court of appeals held the rule to be unconstitutional as a violation of Article I, Section 10 of the Ohio Constitution, which limits depositions in criminal cases to situations of witness unavailability. The Court viewed the videotape recording of all testimony as a collection of depositions. The court also noted that the procedure was inconsistent with Crim. R. 15(A) and (F).

Rule 13(B)(2) Initiation of videotape trial

The procedure is to be invoked by agreement between the parties with the consent of the trial judge or upon the order of the trial judge in appropriate cases. The current application in municipal and county courts is more limited than in the common pleas court. Rising jurisdictional levels, refinements in docket control and scheduling, together with the development and usage of the medium, may increase the use of videotape prerecorded testimony in all courts. In its present form, agreement of the parties is necessary. A court is empowered to order the use of the procedure only after inquiry into the appropriateness of the measure.

Rule 13(B)(3) Procedure

The entire prerecording of testimony is distinguished from the taking of a deposition in division (B)(1). Although the concept is different, there are parallels. Division (B)(3) takes advantage of the similarity by making the procedures relative to the taking of depositions applicable to the taking of the entire testimony. If the parties do not simplify the procedure by stipulation pursuant to Civ. R. 29, the procedure of Civ. R. 30, as supplemented by division (A), is applicable. Division (B)(3) contains a very important reference to an inclusion in the order for prerecording of the entire testimony. That inclusion is the date for filing of all of the videotape. The trial judge must set a date that will permit him or her to rule on all objections before trial as required in division (B)(4).

The cost provisions for videotape trials parallel those for depositions. The proponent bears the cost of the videotape used to record the testimony because it is returned to the proponent for reuse when it has fulfilled its purpose. Requesting parties bear the cost of copies of the videotape or of transcriptions they have made in accordance with the basic rule practice expressed in Civ. R. 30(F)(2). For the same reasons expressed in the comment to division (D), the expense of the playback of the videotape trial is a general expense of the court not allocable as costs to the parties. All other expenses are costs to be charged or allocated as provided by law.

Rule 13(B)(4) Objections

The procedure differs significantly from the provision for objections relative to depositions as set forth in division (A). In a Civ. R. 40 proceeding, all objections must be ruled upon in advance of trial and no objections may be made at trial. With all of the evidence recorded, there is no development at trial that is not known upon the completion of the recording of all of the evidence. The videotape record played to the jury must exclude all nonadmissible testimony. The method of editing may be the creation of a second videotape or the suppression of the audio, or audio and video, relating to inadmissible evidence.

Rule 13(B)(5) Presence of counsel and trial judge

The provision clarifies the practice and answers the questions as to the obligations of the judge and counsel during the playing of the testimony.

Rule 13(C) Equipment

Rule 13(C)(1) Standard

Compatibility of equipment is absolutely essential. Thus, the standard is set in the rule using the only existing accepted standard in equipment of less than broadcast quality. A party deviates from the standard at the party's expense.

This provision affirms the obligation of the court to provide facilities for replay of videotape and indicates that the court may own or lease the necessary equipment or may contract with a service company where usage is infrequent. The purpose of the provision is to make clear that the furnishing of playback equipment is no different from the obligation to provide adequate furniture, supplies, and equipment for the conduct of the court. The cost of providing the videotape equipment is indistinguishable from the cost of providing a blackboard in terms of obligation.

It is incumbent upon counsel to determine what equipment the court has or can acquire and conform to that standard. If the proponent does not conform, the proponent has the obligation to provide equipment or pay the cost incurred in providing it.

Rule 13(C)(2) Minimum equipment

The rule specifies minimum facilities, but the specification does not foreclose the court from providing additional or more highly developed equipment utilizing the same standard.

Rule 13(C)(3) Maintenance

Compatibility relates to maintenance as well as to the size of the tape and the specifications for recorders and players. If either the recording equipment or the playback equipment is running at a speed outside the tolerances specified in the standard, the reproduction will be adversely affected. It is essential that the equipment be properly maintained whether leased or owned. The court shall take appropriate steps to maintain the equipment used.

Rule 13(D) Costs; videotape depositions

Material. The proponent of a deposition must bear the cost of the videotape used to record the deposition. There is no provision that the amount be charged as costs in the action because, under Rule 13(E), the videotape is returned to the proponent after it has served its purpose.

Recording and playback expense. The reasonable expense of recording and playing a videotape deposition is charged as costs in the action pursuant to Civ. R. 54. "Reasonable" is inserted to make it clear that, for example, a color videotape of broadcast quality may not be used to increase the cost burden on a losing party.

Costs of copies. Under Civ. R. 30(F)(2), copies of depositions are the responsibility of the requesting party.

Rule 13(E) Disposition of videotape filed with the court

Rule 13(E)(1) Ownership

The provision as to ownership is essential because the videotape has substantial value and may be reused.

Rule 13(E)(2) Release of videotape recording

The provisions are keyed to final disposition of the case except where the testimony is converted to stenographic recording during the presentation of the evidence in the trial, in which case the release may be made following the trial on the basis that the transcript of proceedings will be made up from the stenographic recording. The provision emerged in the early consideration of videotape applications when stenographic recording of the testimony as played at the trial was considered a safety factor. It is unlikely that the duplication would appear in current practice. When the trial is of a criminal matter rather than a civil matter, the finality of disposition of the case may be more difficult to establish. The testimony recorded on videotape may be converted to some other method of recording, audio or stenographic, upon the ostensible closing of the case. The videotape could then be released and reused. Should the testimony be essential to some post-judgment proceeding, it could be used in the converted form. Prudence would dictate the transcription of the stenographic recording into the written form at the time of the release. Release is to be by order, hence the provision for journalization.

RULE 14. Declaration of Judicial Emergency.

(A) Issuance of order

In the event of a natural or man-made disaster, civil disorder, or any extraordinary circumstance that interrupts or threatens to interrupt the orderly operation of a court or a division of a court, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may issue an order declaring a judicial emergency for the affected court or division. The order shall include each of the following:

- (1) The name of the affected court or division;
- (2) A description of the circumstances necessitating the declaration of the judicial emergency;
- (3) The duration of the judicial emergency. The duration of the judicial emergency shall be limited to an initial period of not more than thirty days, provided at the end of that period the Chief Justice may issue additional orders extending the duration of the judicial emergency for additional periods of time as determined by the Chief Justice in consultation with the administrative judge of the affected court or division of the court. The Chief Justice may withdraw, cancel, or rescind an order at any time after its issuance.
- (4) Any other information relevant to the declaration of the judicial emergency.

(B) Filing of order

The Chief Justice shall file an order declaring or extending a judicial emergency with the clerk of the Supreme Court. If possible given the circumstances of the judicial emergency, the Chief Justice shall file a copy of the order with the clerk of the affected court or division.

(C) Authority

The authority of the Chief Justice to declare a judicial emergency pursuant to this rule shall be independent of the authority of the administrative judge of a court or division of a court to issue an order authorizing the court or division to operate at a temporary location pursuant to R.C. 1901.0211(A), 1907.0111(A), 2301.011(A), or 2501.04(A).

RULE 14.01. Authority of Chief Justice During Judicial Emergency.

During a judicial emergency declared pursuant to Sup.R. 14, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may do any of the following:

- (A) Suspend or modify the operation of any local rule of the affected court or division;
- (B) Adopt temporary local rules for the affected court or division;
- (C) Suspend or modify the operation of any rule or requirement of the Supreme Court for the affected court or division;
- (D) Adopt temporary rules of the Supreme Court for the affected court or division;
- (E) Authorize the use of any audiovisual devices for actions and proceedings of the affected court or division;
- (F) Assign and transfer any sitting or retired judge to emergency judicial duty at the affected court or division;
- (G) Do and direct to be done all things necessary to ensure the orderly and efficient administration of justice for the duration of the judicial emergency.

RULE 14.02. Consultation with Affected Court or Division and Notification of Justices During Judicial Emergency.

During a judicial emergency declared pursuant to Sup.R. 14, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, whenever possible under the circumstances, shall do both of the following:

- (A) Consult with the administrative judge and court administrator of the affected court or division prior to taking any actions in accordance with Sup.R. 14.01;
- (B) Report to the Justices of the Supreme Court any actions taken in accordance with Sup.R. 14.01.

RULE 15. Arbitration.

(A) Arbitration in civil cases.

(1) The judge or judges of general divisions of courts of common pleas, of municipal courts, or of county courts shall consider, and may adopt, a plan for the mandatory arbitration of civil cases. The plan shall specify the amount in controversy that will require submission of the case to arbitration and arbitration shall be required in cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed that specified sum. Arbitration shall be permitted in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum specified in the plan for mandatory arbitration where all parties to the action agree to arbitration. The court shall determine at an appropriate pre-trial stage whether a case is to be referred to mandatory arbitration.

(2) Every plan for the mandatory arbitration of civil cases adopted pursuant to this rule shall be filed with the Supreme Court and shall include the following basic principles:

(a) Actions excluded. Actions involving title to real estate, equitable relief and appeals shall be excluded.

(b) Arbitrators. The court shall establish a list of qualified attorneys who have consented to serve as arbitrators. The court shall appoint from the list an arbitrator who has no interest in the determination of the case or relationship with the parties or their counsel that would interfere with an impartial consideration of the case. Upon written request of a party, the court shall appoint a board of three arbitrators in the same manner as a single arbitrator is appointed.

(c) Report and award. Within thirty days after the hearing, the board or the single arbitrator shall file a report and award with the clerk of the court and forward copies to all parties or their counsel. The report and award, unless appealed, shall be final and have the legal effect of a verdict upon which judgment shall be entered by the court.

(d) Appeals. Any party may appeal the award to the court if, within thirty days after the filing of the award with the clerk of court, the party does both of the following:

(i) Files a notice of appeal with the clerk of courts and serves a copy on the adverse party or parties accompanied by an affidavit that the appeal is not being taken for delay;

(ii) Reimburses the county or municipal corporation for all fees paid to the arbitrator or arbitrators in the case or pays the fees directly to the arbitrator or arbitrators, unless otherwise directed by the court.

All appeals shall be de novo proceedings at which members of the deciding board or the single arbitrator are barred as witnesses.

Exceptions to the decision of the board or single arbitrator based on either misconduct or corruption of the board or single arbitrator may also be filed by any party within thirty days after the filing of the report, and, if sustained, the report shall be vacated.

(B) Arbitration in juvenile and domestic relations cases.

(1) The judge or judges of a division of a court of common pleas having domestic relations or juvenile jurisdiction may, at the request of all parties, refer a case or a designated issue to arbitration.

(2) The parties shall propose an arbitrator to the court and identify all issues to be resolved by the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall consent to serve and shall have no interest in the determination of the case or relationship with the parties or their counsel that would interfere with the impartial consideration of the case. An arbitrator selected pursuant to this section is not required to be an attorney.

(3) The request for arbitration submitted by the parties shall provide for the manner of payment of the arbitrator.

(4) The arbitrator shall file a report and award pursuant to division (A)(2)(c) of this rule.

(5) Any party may appeal the report and award pursuant to division (A)(2)(d) of this rule.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

The rule establishes guidelines for arbitration procedures. Adoption of a plan for the arbitration of cases is within the discretion of the court. Arbitration has been proven to be an effective method of case disposition.

Two changes are made from the former rule. The rule now permits the appointment of a single arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators. This change was recommended by the Supreme Court Committee on Dispute Resolution. The amendment brings the rule into conformance with practice in several courts and provides a more cost effective route for litigants who seek arbitration services. Further, the use of a single, trusted, respected neutral should eliminate some advocacy that currently takes place when the three arbitrators engage in the decision-making aspect of the process. Also, as a cost savings measure, the rule provides for the direct payment of fees to the arbitrator or arbitrators.

Commentary (November 30, 1992 Amendment to C.P. Sup. R. 15)

Rule 15 authorizes the general division of a court of common pleas to permit mandatory arbitration, by local rule, in civil cases. The Supreme Court Committee on Dispute Resolution has reviewed this rule in the context of cases in the juvenile and domestic relations divisions of the common pleas courts. In these divisions, the Committee believes that the use of arbitration in appropriate cases would be of benefit to both the parties and the court. The Committee believes that the primary use of arbitration in juvenile and domestic relations cases would occur in cases involving the valuation of real and personal property.

By way of example, the appraisal of real and personal property involved in a divorce proceeding generally requires expert evaluation of the worth. However, in cases where there is a significant dispute or difference of opinion between the experts regarding the worth of the property, the Committee believes that the parties could benefit by having the option to request arbitration of the issue. A court could reserve ruling on issues of spousal support, child support, or custody until the valuation of personal and real property has been arbitrated. This process would free the court to direct its attention to other cases.

Accordingly, the Committee recommends the adoption of division (B). This division would permit the parties, with leave of court, to select an arbitrator for a case or an issue. The parties would select an arbitrator and propose this arbitrator to the court. Under the rule, the judge may, but is not required to, grant the parties leave to have the case or issue arbitrated. This permissive rule will allow the judge to intervene when he or she feels that the selection of the arbitrator by the parties is not appropriate under the specific circumstances of a given case. However, the Committee also stresses its strong belief in the fundamental principle that parties should be permitted to freely contract between themselves, unless strong public policy reasons intervene.

Division (B) also provides that the arbitrator need not be an attorney. In some cases, an expert from outside the area of the law may have the expertise necessary to provide a fair and just decision to the parties. The remaining provisions of division (B) mirror the requirements for arbitration in the general division of the court.

RULE 16. Mediation.

(A) General Provisions. A division of the court of common pleas, municipal court, and county court shall consider, and may adopt, a local rule providing for mediation.

(B) Content of Mediation Rule. A local rule providing for mediation shall include the applicable provisions set forth in this division, in addition to such other provisions as the court or division considers necessary and appropriate.

(1) Required provisions for all mediation rules. A local mediation rule shall include all of the following provisions:

(a) Procedures for ensuring that parties are allowed to participate in mediation, and if the parties wish, that their attorneys and other individuals they designate are allowed to accompany them and participate in mediation.

(b) Procedures for screening for domestic violence both before and during mediation.

(c) Procedures for encouraging appropriate referrals to legal counsel and other support services for all parties, including victims of and suspected victims of domestic violence.

(d) Procedures for prohibiting the use of mediation in any of the following:

(1) As an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence;

(2) In determining whether to grant, modify or terminate a protection order;

(3) In determining the terms and conditions of a protection order; and

(4) In determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

Nothing in division (B)(1)(d) of this rule shall prohibit the use of mediation in a subsequent divorce or custody case even though that case may result in the termination of the provisions of a protection order.

(2) Required provisions for domestic relations and juvenile court mediation rules. A local rule for mediation of allocation of parental rights and responsibilities or the care of, or visitation with, minor children or delinquency or status offense cases shall include the provisions of division (B)(1) of this rule. The mediation rule shall include provisions that allow mediation to proceed, when violence or fear of violence is alleged, suspected, or present, only if the mediator has specialized training set forth in division (C)(2) of this rule and all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence is fully informed, both orally and in writing, about the mediation process, his or her right to decline participation in the mediation process, and his or her option to have a support person present at mediation sessions.

(b) The parties have the capacity to mediate without fear of coercion or control.

(c) Appropriate procedures are in place to provide for the safety of the person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence and all other persons present at the mediation.

(d) Procedures are in place for the mediator to terminate mediation if he or she believes there is continued threat of domestic violence or coercion between the parties.

(e) Procedures are in place for issuing written findings of fact, as required by R.C. 3109.052, to refer certain cases involving domestic violence to mediation.

(3) Required provisions for child abuse, neglect, or dependency mediation rules.

A local rule for mediation in child abuse, neglect, or dependency cases shall include the provisions of division (B)(1) and (B)(2) of this rule and all of the following:

(a) A provision that allows mediation to proceed only if the mediator has specialized training set forth in division (C)(1), (C)(2), and (C)(3) of this rule.

(b) Procedures for ensuring that parties who are not represented by counsel attend mediation only if they have waived the right to counsel in open court, and that parties represented by counsel attend mediation without counsel only where the right to have counsel present at the mediation has been specifically waived. Waivers can be rescinded at any time.

(c) Procedures for the selection and referral of a case to mediation at any point after the case is filed.

(d) Procedures for notifying the parties and nonparty participants of the mediation.

(C) Qualification and Training for Domestic Relations and Juvenile Mediators.

Each domestic relations and juvenile division of the court of common pleas that adopts a local rule providing for mediation shall include the following applicable provisions for the qualification and training of mediators.

(1) General qualifications and training. A mediator employed by the division or to whom the division makes referrals for mediation of allocation of parental rights and responsibilities, the care of, or visitation with, minor children, abuse, neglect, and dependency, or juvenile perpetrated domestic violence cases shall satisfy all of the following:

(a) Possess a bachelor's degree, or equivalent education experience as is satisfactory to the division, and at least two years of professional experience with families. "Professional experience with families" includes mediation, counseling, casework, legal representation in family law matters, or such other equivalent experience satisfactory to the division.

(b) Complete at least twelve hours of basic mediation training or equivalent experience as a mediator that is satisfactory to the division.

(c) After completing the training required by division (C)(1)(b) of this rule, complete at least forty hours of specialized family or divorce mediation training that is provided by a training program approved by the Supreme Court Dispute Resolution Section in accordance with standards established by the Commission on Dispute Resolution.

(2) Specific qualifications and training; domestic abuse. A mediator employed by the division or to whom the division makes referrals for mediation of any case shall complete at least fourteen hours of specialized training in domestic abuse and mediation through a training program approved by the Supreme Court Dispute Resolution Section in accordance with standards established by the Commission on Dispute Resolution. A mediator who has not completed this specialized training may mediate these cases only if the mediator co-mediate with another mediator who has completed the specialized training.

(3) Specific qualifications and training; abuse, neglect, and dependency cases. In addition to satisfying the requirements of division (C)(1) and (C)(2) of this rule, a mediator employed by the division or to whom the division makes referrals for mediation of abuse, neglect, or dependency cases shall satisfy both of the following:

(a) Possess significant experience in mediating family disputes;

(b) Complete at least thirty-two hours of specialized child protection mediation training through either a formal training session or through a mentoring program approved by the Supreme Court Dispute Resolution Section in accordance with standards established by the Commission on Dispute Resolution.

(D) Aspirational Standards. Each division that adopts a local rule providing for mediation of family cases shall encourage mediators to comply with the Model Standards of Practice for Family and Divorce Mediation as set forth in Appendix F and the Special Policy Considerations for State Regulation of Family Mediators and Court Affiliated Programs as set forth in Appendix G to this rule. Wherever a conflict exists between the Model Standards of Practice for Family and Divorce Mediation set forth in Appendix F and the Special Policy Considerations for State Regulation of Family Mediators and Court Affiliated Programs in Appendix G and this rule, this rule shall control.

A subcommittee should consist of select commission members and such other persons who the chairperson believes will assist in a full exploration of the issue under the review of the subcommittee.

(B) Size

(2) “Sitting judge” means a person who currently holds judicial office by reason of election or gubernatorial appointment.

The Chief Justice or acting Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may assign any of the following persons who consent to temporarily serve as a judge on any municipal or county court:

(1) A sitting judge of a municipal or county court;

(2) A retired judge of a municipal or county court, provided the judge was not defeated in the judge’s final election for new or continued service on a municipal or county court;

(6) A retired judge of a court of common pleas who has not formerly served as a judge of a municipal or county court, but has completed an educational program established by the Judicial College.

(C) Compensation

(1) While serving on assignment pursuant to this rule, a judge shall receive actual and necessary expenses, in addition to compensation for each day assigned, computed as follows:

(a) If the assigned judge is a sitting full-time judge of a municipal court, thirty dollars.

(b) If the assigned judge is a sitting part-time judge of a municipal court or a sitting judge of a county court, the greater of the following:

(i) Thirty dollars;

(ii) The per diem compensation of a full-time judge of a municipal court, less the per diem compensation of the assigned judge, each calculated on the basis of two hundred fifty working days per year.

(c) If the assigned judge is a retired judge of a municipal or county court or a court of common pleas, the established per diem compensation for a full-time judge of a municipal court calculated on the basis of two hundred fifty working days per year, in addition to any retirement benefits to which the assigned judge may be entitled;

(2) All compensation and expenses payable to an assigned judge under this rule, other than any compensation payable pursuant to division (A)(5) or (6) of section 141.04 of the Revised Code, shall be paid from the municipal treasury or, in the case of a county-operated municipal court or a county court, from the county treasury. (E) Waiver

The Chief Justice may waive compliance with any requirement of this rule to assist the exercise of the Chief Justice's discretion in making temporary assignments of judges pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and the Revised Code.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Assignment of sitting and retired municipal and county court judges

The assignment and compensation of all other sitting and retired judges is addressed in the Ohio Constitution, the Revised Code, and the Guidelines for the Assignment of Judges.

Compensation

The language "actual and necessary expenses" in division (C)(1) of this rule does not appear in the Constitution, but reflects State, ex rel. Winn v. Galvin (1974), 39 Ohio St.2d 58, which held actual and necessary expenses are a part of the established compensation of a visiting judge as specified in Section 6(C). While Winn concerned common pleas judges, State, ex rel. Graves v. Brown (1969), 18 Ohio St.2d 61 held Section 6(C) applies to municipal court judges.

Construction

Section 1901.10 of the Revised Code provides for the appointment of acting judges in municipal courts in the case of temporary absence, incapacity, or unavailability or because of the volume of caseload and the assignment of visiting judges. Section 1901.12 of the Revised Code provides for the appointment of acting judges during periods of vacation. Section 2701.031 of the Revised concerns the assignment of a judge in municipal or county court in the event the sitting judge is disqualified.

RULE 18. Minor Misdemeanors: Violations Bureau--Municipal and County Courts.

Each municipal and county court shall establish a violations bureau for minor misdemeanors utilizing the citation system and procedure set forth in Criminal Rule 4.1.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Only nonsubstantive changes were made to former M.C. Sup. R. 11 in the 1997 amendments to this rule.

A minor misdemeanor is any offense specifically classified as such or any unclassified offense for which the only penalty is a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. R.C. 2901.02.

Crim. R. 4.1 provides that a court may establish a violations bureau for all or particular minor misdemeanors. Thus, each court, by local rule, must specify that all or particular minor misdemeanors are to be processed by violations bureau.

Crim. R. 4.1 specifies the form of citation to be used and that the citation “* * * shall inform the defendant that, in lieu of appearing at the time and place stated, he may, within that stated time, appear personally at the office of the clerk of court and upon signing a plea of guilty and a waiver of trial pay a stated fine and stated costs, if any.”

Crim. R. 4.1(E) requires the court to establish a fine schedule listing the fines and court costs for each minor misdemeanor. The fine schedule is to be prominently posted at the place violation fines are paid.

RULE 19. Magistrates.

(A) Definition

As used in this rule, “magistrate” means a magistrate appointed by a court pursuant to App.R. 34, Crim.R. 19, Civ.R. 53, Juv.R. 40, or Traf.R. 14.

(B) Notification

An administrative judge of a court or division of a court shall notify the Office of Attorney Services of the Supreme Court, in a manner prescribed by the office, within thirty days of the appointment or termination of appointment of a magistrate for that court or division.

(C) Annual registration

A magistrate shall annually register with the Office of Attorney Services by filing a certificate of registration furnished by the office.

(D) Oath of office

(1) Upon appointment to a court or a division of a court, a magistrate shall take an oath of office administered by the administrative judge of that court or division. The oath shall be the same or substantially similar to the following:

“I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Ohio, will administer justice without respect to persons, and will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as a magistrate of the (name of court) according to the best of my ability and understanding.”

(2) Within thirty days of appointment, a magistrate shall file a certificate of oath, signed by the administrative judge administering the oath, with the clerk of the court in which the magistrate serves.

RULE 19.1. Magistrates - Municipal Court.

(A) Mandatory appointment and use. All municipal courts having more than two judges shall appoint one or more magistrates who may hear the following proceedings:

- (1) Default proceedings under Civil Rule 55;
- (2) Forcible entry and detainer proceedings under Chapter 1923 of the Revised Code in which the right to trial by jury is waived or not demanded;
- (3) Small claims proceedings under Chapter 1925 of the Revised Code;
- (4) Traffic proceedings in which there is a guilty plea or written waiver by the defendant of the right to trial by a judge;
- (5) Other appropriate matters referred by the court for report and recommendation.

(B) Permissive appointment. This rule does not preclude the appointment of magistrates by courts having two or fewer judges.

RULES 20 through 22 are reserved for future use

RULE 23. Complaint for Abortion without Parental Notification Pursuant to R.C. 2151.85.

(A) Complaint

(1) All actions pursuant to R.C. 2151.85 shall be commenced by filing a complaint on “Form 23-A” in the juvenile court of the county in which the juvenile resides or in a county bordering the county where the juvenile resides. The complaint shall be filed promptly upon the request of the complainant.

(2) A certified copy of the second page of “Form 23-A,” with the case number noted on it, shall be given to the complainant after she signs it. The original second page of the form shall be removed from the file jacket and filed under seal in a safe or other secure place where access is limited to essential juvenile court personnel. All index records shall be filed under, “In the Matter of Jane Doe.”

(B) Assistance to minor

A minor seeking to file an action pursuant to R.C. 2151.85 shall be given prompt assistance by the clerk of the juvenile court in a private, confidential setting. Assistance shall include performing the notary services necessary to file the complaint and affidavits described in this rule and Sup.R. 24.

(C) Filing fees and court costs

A complaint filed pursuant to division (A) of this rule and other forms described in these rules shall be provided without cost to the minor. No filing fees or court costs shall be imposed on the minor in connection with these proceedings or any notice of appeal filed in connection with these proceedings.

(D) Appointment of counsel

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to division (A) of this rule, the juvenile court shall appoint an attorney to represent the complainant if she is not represented by an attorney. Court-appointed attorneys shall be paid by the court without expense to the complainant.

(E) Appointment of guardian ad litem

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to division (A) of this rule, the juvenile court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. The court may appoint the same individual to serve as both the attorney and the guardian ad litem. If the court appoints an individual who volunteers to serve as a guardian ad litem for the complainant, that individual need not be paid. Other guardians ad litem shall be paid by the court without expense to the complainant.

(F) Hearing

(1) The juvenile court shall promptly conduct a hearing after the filing of a complaint pursuant to division (A) of this rule and should, if possible, conduct the hearing within twenty-four hours. In no event shall the court hold the hearing later than five business days after the filing of the complaint. The court shall accommodate school hours if at all possible. The hearing shall be conducted by a judge and shall not be heard by a magistrate. Hearings shall be closed to the public and exclude all persons except witnesses on behalf of the complainant, her attorney, her guardian ad litem, and essential court personnel. The hearing shall be conducted in a manner that preserves the anonymity of the complainant. The complainant's name shall not appear on the record.

(2) If both maturity and either abuse or best interest are alleged in the complaint, or if maturity, abuse, and best interest are alleged in the complaint, the court shall rule on the issue of maturity first. If the court finds against the complainant on the issue of maturity, it then shall determine the other issues alleged in the complaint.

(G) Judgment

(1) The juvenile court shall enter judgment immediately after the conclusion of the hearing and immediately provide a copy of the judgment to the complainant. The court shall issue an order on "Form 23-B" authorizing the complainant to consent to the performance of an abortion without notice to a parent, guardian, or custodian if it finds either of the following by clear and convincing evidence:

(a) The complainant is sufficiently mature and well enough informed to decide intelligently;

(b) There is evidence of a pattern of physical, sexual, or emotional abuse by one or both of the complainant's parents, guardian, or custodian or that notification is not in the best interest of the complainant.

(2) If the court determines that the complainant has not established the allegations of the complaint by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall dismiss the complaint. The court shall notify the complainant that she has a right to appeal pursuant to R.C. 2505.073 and provide the complainant with a copy of the notice of appeal, "Form 23-C."

(H) Appeals

(1) Immediately after the notice of appeal has been filed by the complainant, the clerk of the juvenile court shall notify the court of appeals. Within four days after the notice of appeal is filed, the clerk shall deliver a copy of the notice of appeal and the record, except page two of the complaint, to the clerk of the court of appeals who immediately shall place the appeal on the docket of the court of appeals.

(2) The juvenile court shall prepare a written transcript if possible. If a transcript cannot be prepared timely and if the testimony is on an audio or video recording, the recording may be forwarded as part of the record in the case to the court of appeals without prior transcription and the court of appeals shall accept the recording as the transcript in the case without prior transcription. The juvenile court shall ensure that the court of appeals has the necessary equipment to play the recording.

(I) General rule of expedition

If a complainant files a notice of appeal on the same day as the dismissal of her complaint, the entire court process, including the juvenile court hearing, appeal, and decision, shall be completed in sixteen calendar days from the time the complaint was filed.

(J) Confidentiality

The juvenile court shall not notify the parents, guardian, or custodian of the complainant that she is pregnant, that she wants to have an abortion, or that the complaint was filed. All court papers and records that pertain to the action shall be kept confidential and shall not be available for public access pursuant to Sup.R. 44 through 47.

(K) Verification notice

Upon request of the complainant or her attorney, the clerk of the juvenile court shall verify on "Form 23-D" the date the complaint was filed and whether a hearing has been held within five business days after the filing of the complaint. The clerk shall file and include the form as part of the record and shall provide a date-stamped copy to the complainant or her attorney.

COMPLAINT FOR AN ORDER AUTHORIZING CONSENT TO AN ABORTION WITHOUT NOTIFICATION OF A PARENT, GUARDIAN, OR CUSTODIAN (R.C. 2151.85)

INSTRUCTIONS

If you are pregnant; unmarried, under 18 years old, and unemancipated; and want to have an abortion without telling your parent, guardian, or custodian, you may ask a juvenile court for permission. The court will then decide whether your parent, guardian, or custodian must be told before you may have an abortion. The attached form, called a complaint, should be used to ask a court to let you have an abortion without telling your parent, guardian, or custodian.

If you are under 18 and not married, you are “unemancipated” if any of the following apply:

1. You have not entered the armed services of the United States;
2. You do not have a job and support yourself;
3. You are under the care and control of your parent, guardian, or custodian.

By law, you do not have to pay a filing fee or any court costs. If you do not have a lawyer, the court will appoint one for you free of charge.

The court is not allowed to tell your parent, guardian, or custodian that you are pregnant or that you want to have an abortion. The court must keep the complaint and all other papers in your case confidential.

The complaint must be filed in a juvenile court in the county where you reside or have a legal settlement or in any county that borders the county where you reside or have a legal settlement.

HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM

Completing Statement #5: Check one or more of the statements. If you check the first statement, the court will first consider if you are mature enough and well enough informed to intelligently decide whether to have an abortion without telling your parent, guardian, or custodian. If the court does not find that you are sufficiently mature and well enough informed to make the decision, and you have checked either or both of the remaining statements, the court will then consider either of the following:

- Whether there is a pattern of physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of you by your parent, guardian, or custodian;
- Whether telling your parent, guardian, or custodian is not in your best interest.

Completing Statement #6: Check the statement that applies to you. If you have a lawyer, fill in the name, address, and telephone number of your lawyer.

Completing the Top of Page 2: The law requires that the statements in the complaint be made under oath. This part of the form must be completed in the presence of a person who is allowed to administer oaths, such as a notary public. After you sign your name on the signature line, that person should notarize the form.

Completing the Bottom of Page 2: Fill out the bottom of Page 2 only if you do not have a lawyer. Provide any address and telephone number where you may be contacted about this matter. When the court appoints a lawyer for you, the lawyer will reach you at the address or telephone number you provide. You do not have to complete the bottom of Page 2 until after the notary public signs the top of Page 2.

The hearing shall be conducted by a judge and shall not be heard by a magistrate. Hearings shall be closed to the public and exclude all persons except witnesses on behalf of the petitioner, her attorney, her guardian ad litem, her next friend, if any, and essential court personnel. The hearing shall be conducted in a manner that preserves the anonymity of the petitioner. The petitioner's name shall not appear on the record.

If the court does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner is sufficiently mature and well enough informed to decide intelligently or that the abortion is in the best interests of the petitioner, or if the court finds that it does not have jurisdiction over the petition, the court shall issue an order on "Form 23.1-B" denying or dismissing the petition. The court shall enter judgment as soon as possible and no later than twenty-four hours after the conclusion of the hearing.

(2) If the judgment is entered immediately at the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall provide the petitioner and her attorney with a copy of the judgment. PETITION FOR CONSENT TO AN ABORTION OR FOR JUDICIAL CONSENT TO AN ABORTION (R.C. 2919.121).

INSTRUCTIONS

If you are pregnant; unmarried, under 18 years old, and unemancipated; and want to have an abortion without the consent of your parents, you may ask a juvenile court for permission. The court will then decide whether you are sufficiently mature and well-enough informed to decide intelligently to have an abortion or whether an abortion is in your best interests. The attached form, called a petition, should be used to ask a court to let you have an abortion without the consent of your parents.

If you are under 18 and not married, you are “unemancipated” if any of the following apply:

1. You have not entered the armed services of the United States;
2. You do not have a job and support yourself;
3. You are under the care and control of your parent, guardian, of custodian.

By law, you do not have to pay a filing fee or any court costs. If you do not have a lawyer, the court will appoint one for you free of charge. The court also will appoint a guardian ad litem, who is a person responsible for protecting your interests. The court may appoint your lawyer to be your guardian ad litem.

The court is not allowed to tell your parent, guardian, or custodian that you are pregnant or that you want to have an abortion. The court must keep the petition and all other papers in your case confidential.

The petition must be filed in a juvenile court in the county where you reside or have a legal settlement or in any county that borders the county where you reside or have a legal settlement.

HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM

Completing Statement #5: Check one or both of the statements. If you check the first statement, the court will first consider if you are mature enough and well enough informed to intelligently decide whether to have an abortion. If the court does not find that you are sufficiently mature and well enough informed to make the decision, and you have checked the second statement, the court will then consider whether the abortion is in your best interest. If you are not sure which statement to check, you may check both and then discuss this with your lawyer.

Completing Statement #6: Check the statement that applies to you. If you have a lawyer, fill in the name, address, and telephone number of your lawyer.

Completing the Top of Page 2: The law requires that the statements in the petition be made under oath. This part of the form must be completed by you or someone who is assisting you (called a “next friend”) in the presence of a person who is allowed to administer oaths, such as a notary public. After you or the person assisting you signs the petition, the person who administers oaths should sign the form.

Completing the Bottom of Page 2: Fill out the bottom of page 2 only if you do not have a lawyer. Provide any address and telephone number where you may be contacted about this matter. When the court appoints a lawyer for you, the lawyer will reach you at the address or telephone number you provide. You do not have to complete the bottom of page 2 until after the notary public signs on page 2.

FORMS ALLEGING ABUSE BY PARENT AND REQUESTING THAT NOTIFICATION OF ABORTION BE PROVIDED TO OTHER RELATIVE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORMS 24-A and 24-B

If you use these forms, the person performing your abortion will not be required to give notice of your abortion to a parent, guardian, or custodian. Instead, you can choose to have notice provided to a brother or sister over 21 years of age or a stepparent or grandparent.

These forms are called affidavits. An affidavit is a sworn statement signed before a person authorized to administer oaths, such as a notary public. The clerk's office will provide a notary public if you want to complete the forms in the clerk's office.

These forms may be used if all of the following apply.

You are:

1. Pregnant;
2. Unmarried;
3. Under 18 years old;
4. Unemancipated, which means that any of the following apply:
 - You have not entered the armed forces of the United States;
 - You do not have a job and support yourself;
 - You are under the care and control of a parent, guardian, or custodian.
5. You fear, based on events that have happened in the past, physical, sexual, or severe emotional abuse if notice of the abortion is given to a parent, guardian, or custodian.

These forms will be filed with the juvenile court and kept confidential. The clerk of the court will provide notice to the abortion provider that the forms have been filed and the clerk will inform the abortion provider of the name of the person you have chosen to receive notice of your abortion. The forms will not be released by the court.

You do not have to pay any filing fee or court costs to the clerk for notarizing these forms, filing these forms, or issuing the notice to the abortion provider.

The affidavit must be filed in a juvenile court in the county where you reside or have a legal settlement or in any county that borders the county where you reside or have a legal settlement.

HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORMS

There are two forms. You complete one of them. The other form is completed by the person you select to receive notice of your abortion. That must be a brother or sister over 21 years old or a stepparent or grandparent.

Your form requires that you name the person to receive notice and provide the name and address of the person to perform the abortion.

Both of the forms must be signed in front of a notary public or other person, such as a judge or attorney, authorized to administer oaths.

WHAT TO DO AFTER FILLING OUT THE FORMS

After the forms are signed and notarized, give them to the juvenile court clerk, who will file them in a confidential place within the clerk's office. Then the clerk will issue a notice that you may take to the abortion provider. With that notice the abortion provider will be authorized to provide notice of the abortion to the brother, sister, stepparent, or grandparent that you have selected.

As used in this rule, “days” means calendar days and includes any intervening Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the last day on which a judgment is required to be entered falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the computation of days shall not be extended and judgment shall be made either on the last business day before the Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, or on the Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(B) General rule of expedition.

(1) If a complainant or petitioner files a notice of appeal on the same day on which the juvenile court denies or dismisses her complaint or petition, the entire court process, including the court hearing, appeal, and decision, shall be completed in sixteen calendar days from the time the complaint or petition was filed.

(2) If a complainant or petitioner files a notice of appeal after the day on which the juvenile court denies or dismisses her complaint or petition, the entire court process, including the court hearing, appeal, and decision, shall be completed in sixteen calendar days from the time the complaint or petition was filed, plus the number of calendar days that elapsed between the date on which the court’s decision was issued and the date on which the notice of appeal was filed.

(C) Processing appeal.

(1) Immediately after a notice of appeal has been filed by a complainant or petitioner, the clerk of the juvenile court shall notify the court of appeals. Within four days after the notice of appeal is filed, the clerk shall deliver a copy of the notice of appeal and the record, except page two of the complaint or petition, to the clerk of the court of appeals who immediately shall place the appeal on the docket of the court of appeals.

(2) Record of all testimony and other oral proceedings in actions pursuant to R.C. 2151.85 or 2919.121 may be made by audio or video recording. If the testimony is on a recording and a transcript cannot be prepared timely, the court of appeals shall accept the recording as the transcript in this case without prior transcription.

(3) The appellant under this section shall file her brief within four days after the appeal is docketed. Unless waived, the oral argument shall be within five days after docketing. Oral arguments shall be closed to the public and exclude all persons except the appellant, her attorney, her guardian ad litem, and essential court personnel.

2505.073 or 2919.121 shall be kept confidential and shall not be available for public access pursuant to Sup.R. 44 through 47.

(E) Judgment entry.

The court of appeals shall enter judgment immediately after conclusion of oral argument or, if oral argument is waived, within five days after the appeal is docketed.

(F) Release of records.

(1) The public shall be entitled to secure all of the following from the records pertaining to each case filed pursuant to R.C. 2505.073 or 2919.121:

- (a) The docket number;
- (b) The name of the judge;
- (c) The judgment entry and, if appropriate, a properly redacted opinion.

(2) Opinions shall set forth the reasoning in support of the decision in a way that does not directly or indirectly compromise the anonymity of the minor. Opinions written in compliance with this requirement shall be considered public records available upon request. If, in the judgment of the court, it is impossible to release an opinion without compromising the anonymity of the minor, the entry that journalizes the outcome of the case shall include a specific finding that no opinion can be written without disclosing the identity of the minor. Such finding shall be a matter of public record.

(3) The court shall remove any and all information in its opinion that would directly or indirectly disclose the identity of the minor.

(G) Notice and hearing before release of opinion.

(1) After an opinion is written and before it is available for release to the public, the court shall notify the minor and give her the option to appear and argue at a hearing if she believes the opinion may disclose her identity. Notice may be provided by including the following language in the opinion:

“If appellant believes that this opinion may disclose her identity, appellant has a right to appear and argue at a hearing before this court. Appellant may perfect this right to a hearing by filing a motion for a hearing within fourteen days of the date of this opinion.

The clerk is instructed that this opinion is not to be made available for release until either of the following:

- Twenty-one days have passed since the date of the opinion and appellant has not filed a motion;

- If appellant has filed a motion, after this court has ruled on the motion.”

(2) Notice shall be provided by mailing a copy of the opinion to the attorney for the appellant or, if she is not represented, to the address provided by appellant for receipt of notice.

(2) This rule and Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 shall be interpreted to allow for technological advances that improve the efficiency of the courts and simplify the maintenance, preservation, and destruction of court records.

(B) Definitions. As used in this rule and Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05:

(C) Combined records. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a court may combine indexes, dockets, journals, and case files provided that the combination contains the components of indexes, dockets, journals, and case files as defined in this rule and Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05. A court may replace any paper bound books with an electronic medium or microfilm in accordance with this rule.

(D) Allowable record media. (1) A court may create, maintain, record, copy, or preserve a record on traditional paper media, electronic media, including text or digital images, or microfilm, including computer output to microfilm.

the process complies with American National Standards Institute (“ANSI”) standards and guidelines or, in the event that ANSI standards cease to exist, other nationally accepted records and information management process standards.

(a) If a court creates, maintains, records, copies, or preserves a record using a records and information management process in accordance with division (D)(2) of this rule and the record is required to be retained in accordance with the schedules set forth in Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05, the court shall cause a back-up copy of the record to be made at periodic and reasonable times to insure the security and continued availability of the information. If Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 require the record to be retained permanently, the back-up copy shall be stored in a different building than the record it secures.

(b) Records shall be maintained in conveniently accessible and secure facilities, and provisions shall be made for inspecting and copying any public records in accordance with applicable statutes and rules. Machines and equipment necessary to allow inspection and copying of public records, including public records that are created, maintained, recorded, copied, or preserved by an alternative records and information management process in accordance with division (D)(2) of this rule, shall be provided.

(E) Destruction of records. (1) Subject to the notification and transfer requirements of divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this rule, a record and any back-up copy of a record produced in accordance with division (D)(2) of this rule may be destroyed after the record and its back-up copy have been retained for the applicable retention period set forth in Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05.

(2) If Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 set forth a retention period greater than ten years for a record, or if a record was created prior to 1960, the court shall notify the OHS in writing of the court’s intention to destroy the record at least sixty days prior to the destruction of the record.

(3) After submitting a written notice in accordance with division (E)(2) of this rule, the court shall, upon request of the OHS, cause the record described in the notice to be transferred to the OHS, or to an institution or agency that meets the criteria of the OHS, in the media and format designated by the OHS.

(3) The written notification required in division (F)(1) of this rule informs the party that tendered the exhibits, depositions, or transcripts of the location for retrieval of the exhibits, depositions, or transcripts;

(4) The party that tendered the exhibits, depositions, or transcripts does not retrieve the exhibits, depositions, or transcripts within sixty days from the date of the written notification required in division (F)(1) of this rule.

(G) Local rules. By local rule, a court may establish retention schedules for any records not listed in Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 and may extend, but not limit, the retention schedule for any record listed in Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05. Any record that is not listed in Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 but is listed in a general retention schedule established pursuant to section 149.331 of the Revised Code may be retained for the period of time set by the general retention schedule and then destroyed.

(H) Extension of retention period for individual case files. A court may order the retention period for an individual case file extended beyond the period specified in Sup. R. 26.02 to 26.05 for the case file.

Commentary (July 1, 2001 Amendments)

The July 1, 2001 amendments to Sup. R. 26 removed the words “produce” and “production” from division (A) and the words “receive” and “receives” from division (D) for the purpose of restricting the scope of the rule to records management and retention. The word “advances” replaced the word “enhancements” in division (A)(2).

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

The Supreme Court’s Task Force on Records Management recommended the substantive provisions of this rule and Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 after studying the records management procedures of Ohio courts for approximately eighteen months. This rule and Sup. R. 26.01 to 26.05 require courts to keep certain records and mandate minimum records retention schedules for administrative and case records of the courts. The rules also authorize the courts to maintain records in forms other than paper provided that when an alternative process is employed, it conforms to the standards established by the American National Standards Institute (“ANSI”). Courts are not required to use the alternative processes permitted by this rule.

To obtain information concerning ANSI standards, courts may contact the Ohio Historical Society, State Archives Division, 1982 Velma Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43211-2497, (614) 297-2581.

(b) The assignment is arbitrated by chance with the determination fortuitous and wholly uncontrolled;

(c) The assignment is made using the entire base of the number of judges in the court or division, as applicable.

(2) “Assigned by lot” does not include an assignment of cases to judges in an established order of rotation, even if the order of rotation is altered periodically.

(B) Individual assignment system

“Individual assignment system” means the system in which, upon the filing in or transfer to a court or a division of the court, a case immediately is assigned by lot to a judge of the court or division, as applicable, who becomes primarily responsible for the determination of every issue and proceeding in the case until its termination.

(C) Particular session of court

“Particular session of court” means the system in which cases are assigned by subject category rather than by the individual assignment system.

RULE 36.011. Individual Assignment System.

- (b) Timely processing of cases through prompt judicial control over cases and the pace of litigation;
- (c) Random assignment of cases to judges of the division through an objective and impartial system that ensures the equitable distribution of cases between or among the judges of the division.

Commentary

The individual assignment system is defined by the rule as a system whereby, upon the filing or transfer of a civil case, or upon arraignment in a criminal case, the case is immediately assigned to a judge of the court. The rule sets forth three purposes of the individual assignment system. All multi-judge divisions of the court of common pleas and all multi-judge municipal and county courts, except as provided in Sup.R. 36.012 through 36.015, are required to adopt the individual assignment system. Courts or divisions are permitted to deviate from the individual assignment system only if the modifications satisfy the three stated purposes of the system and are adopted by local rule of court pursuant to Sup.R. 5. Permissible modifications include the assignment and consideration of cases involving the same criminal defendant, parties, family members, or subject-matter.

The distinguishing feature of the individual assignment system is that it places responsibility upon one judge for the disposition of cases. Once a case is assigned to a judge under this system, all matters pertaining to the case are to be submitted to that judge for determination. An exception is made where that judge is unavailable. In that instance, the administrative judge may act in the assigned judge's absence.

Under Sup.R. 36.011, the administrative judge is responsible for the assignment of cases to the individual judges of the court. Assignment may be made by the administrative judge personally or by court personnel at the administrative judge's direction. All assignments of cases to individual judges must be made by lot.

The purpose of the random assignment, by lot, of cases is to avoid judge-shopping on the part of counsel and to distribute the cases equitably among the judges.

RULE 36.012. Assignment of Commercial Docket Eligible Cases.

A case eligible for assignment into a commercial docket of a court of common pleas pursuant to Sup.R. 49.05 shall be assigned as follows:

- (A) If the court has established a commercial docket pursuant to Sup.R. 49.01, the case shall be assigned to the commercial docket pursuant to Sup.R. 49.07;
- (B) If the court has not established a commercial docket pursuant to Sup.R. 49.01, the cases shall be assigned by lot to a judge of the court or division pursuant to the individual assignment system.

RULE 36.013. Assignment of Capital Cases.

Criminal cases in which an indictment or a count in an indictment charges the defendant with aggravated murder and contains one or more specifications of aggravating circumstances listed in R.C. 2929.04(A) shall be assigned to a judge of the court or division who is qualified to hear the cases pursuant to either of the following methods:

- (A) Randomly assigned by lot among all judges who are qualified;
- (B) By a method that meets each of the following requirements:
 - (1) Assignments are made by lot from a pool consisting of the names of each judge of the court or division who is eligible to hear the criminal cases;
 - (2) Upon receipt of such criminal case, the name of the assigned judge is removed from the pool;
 - (3) Upon the assignment of such criminal case to the second-to-last judge in the pool, the names of each judge of the court or division who is eligible to hear capital cases are added back into the pool.

RULE 36.014. Assignment to Individual Judge or Particular Session.

(A) Cases eligible for assignment

In each multi-judge municipal or county court or division, cases may be assigned to an individual judge or to a particular session of court. The following subject categories shall be disposed of by particular session:

- (1) Civil cases in which a motion for default judgment is made;
- (2) Criminal cases in which a plea of guilty or no contest is entered;
- (3) Initial appearance in criminal cases;
- (4) Preliminary hearings in criminal cases;
- (5) Criminal cases in which an immediate trial is conducted upon initial appearance;
- (6) Small claims cases;
- (7) Forcible entry and detainer cases in which the right to trial by jury is waived or not demanded.

(B) Apportionment of assignments

(1) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this rule, the administrative judge shall equally apportion particular session assignments among all judges. A judge shall not be assigned to a particular session of court for more than two consecutive weeks.

(2) Division (B)(1) of this rule shall not apply to cases involving an allegation that a judge or staff member of a court, a staff member of the office of the clerk of a court, or any relative of such individuals has committed a traffic or misdemeanor violation within the court's jurisdiction. Such cases shall be initially assigned to the administrative judge to determine if the case shall be reassigned to one of the judges of the court by random lot, assigned to a visiting judge for disposition, or, with the agreement of the parties, retained and disposed of by the administrative judge.

Commentary

Assignment system

In multi-judge municipal and county courts, Sup.R. 36.014 establish a dual system for the assignment of cases. Under this system, certain types of cases are processed in a court session, designated particular session, presided over by a judge or magistrate for a specified period of time. Other types of cases are assigned to an individual judge pursuant to the individual assignment system.

Particular session; assignment

The types of cases designated in Sup.R. 36.014 for disposition in particular sessions of court are high volume cases that may be processed by a judge or magistrate at a single session. The rule does not preclude the processing of types of cases, other than those listed, that are susceptible to disposition in particular sessions.

Cases that may not be processed by particular session are civil cases where an answer is filed or a motion, other than one for default judgment, is filed and criminal cases in which a plea of not guilty is entered. These cases are to be assigned pursuant to the individual assignment system at the time the answer, motion, or plea is filed or made.

Duration of assignment to particular session

Assignments to particular session are to be equally divided among the judges of the court and are to be limited to two-week periods. The two-week limitation accommodates the individual assignment system, and allows each judge adequate time to work on the cases individually assigned to the judge. Judges should not be assigned to a particular session or a series of particular sessions for more than two consecutive weeks.

RULE 36.015. Assignment of Case Arising out of Pre-Indictment Matter.

If a judge has been randomly assigned to preside over a pre-indictment matter pertaining to a particular person, upon the filing of any case arising out of the same incident or subject matter against that person, the judge previously assigned shall preside over the new case, unless that judge is precluded from hearing the case or other good cause exists to reassign the case by lot.

RULE 36.016. Case Management of Individual Judge Docket.

(A) Authority

Pursuant to Sup.R. 4.01, the administrative judge may take necessary action to assist with the case management of an assigned judge's individual docket.

(B) Request

Upon the request of a judge in a multi-judge court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court, or the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court, the administrative judge of the court or division may, for good cause, take necessary action to assist with the case management of the assigned judge's docket.

(C) Reassignment

Any cases transferred from the assigned judge's docket shall be reassigned by lot among the remaining judges of the court or division.

RULE 36.017. Assignment of Refiled Cases.

If a previously filed and dismissed case is refiled, the case shall be reassigned to the judge originally assigned by lot to hear it unless, for good cause shown, that judge is precluded from hearing the case.

Commentary

To promote judicial economy and discourage judge-shopping, this division mandates that all dismissed and subsequently refiled cases be reassigned to the originally assigned judge. An exception exists for circumstances in which the original judge develops a conflict or transfer to a newly drawn judge is sensible.

RULE 36.018. Assignment of Cases to New Judicial Positions.

After the date of election, but prior to the first day of the term of a new judicial position, the administrative judge of a court or division through a random selection of pending cases shall equitably reassign cases pending in the court or division between or among the judges of the court or division and shall create a docket similar to a representative docket. Reassignment shall be completed in a manner consistent with this rule and may exclude criminal cases and cases scheduled for trial. Any matters arising in cases assigned to the docket for the new judicial position prior to the date on which the judge elected to that position takes office shall be resolved by the administrative judge or assigned to another judge.

Commentary

This provision governs the reassignment of pending cases where a new judicial position is added to the court or division. Reassignment of cases must be random, equitable, and accomplished in a manner consistent with the principles set forth in Sup.R. 36.011(C)(2). In effect, a random selection system must be used, rather than culling cases from pending dockets. Certain dockets or portions of dockets may be created through the individual assignment system. This method may be particularly useful in assigning criminal cases. The process set forth in this rule should facilitate the creation of a balanced docket with a minimum disruption of the pending caseload of the court or division.

RULE 36.019. Assignment of Cases Following a Recusal.

(A) General

Following the recusal of a judge in a multi-judge court or division, the administrative judge shall randomly assign the case among the remaining judges of the court or division who are able to hear the case.

(B) Request for visiting judge

In any case in which the administrative judge reasonably believes based on all circumstances that no judge of the court should hear the case, the administrative judge may request a visiting judge be assigned.

Each judge temporarily assigned to a municipal or county court by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and each judge of a municipal or county court temporarily assigned to another division of the court by the presiding judge of the court shall prepare and submit monthly a completed report of the judge’s work in the division to which the judge has been assigned. The report shall be submitted to the judge for whom the assigned judge is sitting and included in that judge’s report to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court submitted by the administrative judge of the division pursuant to division (B) of this rule. If submitted in hard-copy format pursuant to Sup.R. 37(A), the report form shall contain the signatures of the reporting judge, the administrative judge, and the preparer, if other than the reporting judge, attesting to the accuracy of the report. If submitted in electronic format pursuant to Sup.R. 37(B)(1), the reporting judge and administrative judge shall be deemed to have attested to the accuracy of the report.

Staff Notes

Reports to administrative judge

Under Sup.R. 4(B)(3), the administrative judge may require reports from each judge as are necessary to discharge the overall responsibility for the administration, docket, and calendar of the court. Sup.R. 38 sets out the duties of the administrative judge with respect to the preparation of reports.

Municipal and county court reports

The Administrative Judge Report pertains to cases pending on the docket of the court which have not been individually assigned pursuant to Sup.R. 36. The preparation of this report and the review of cases required by Sup.R. 40 are the principal tools that the administrative judge uses to discharge the responsibilities under Sup.R. 4.

The timely and accurate preparation of the Individual Judge Report and the review of cases required by Sup.R. 40 provide the information necessary for the individual judge to discharge the judge's duties.

For purposes of this reporting requirement, an assigned judge may be an active or retired judge. Additionally, assigned judges, as well as acting judges, report their work in accordance with the instructions regarding the Visiting Judge column.

RULE 37.04. Reporting Standards.

The following standards shall apply in completing the statistical reports required by Sup.R. 37.01 through 37.03:

- (A) In domestic relations cases, motions filed prior or subsequent to a final decree of divorce or dissolution shall be considered part of the original case and reported under the original case number;
- (B) A motion filed in delinquency and unruly cases shall be considered part of the case in which the motion is filed, unless the motion is considered a separate delinquency case under R.C. 2151.02(B);
- (C) A criminal case and a traffic case arising from the same act, transaction, or series of acts or transactions shall be considered separate cases.

RULE 37.05. Capital Case Reporting.

Each judge of a court of common pleas required to submit reports in hard-copy format to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court pursuant to Sup.R. 37(A) and who is assigned a criminal case in which an indictment or a count in an indictment charges the defendant with aggravated murder and contains one or more specifications of aggravating circumstances listed in R.C. 2929.04(A) shall include with the report form notice, on a form prescribed by the Manager of Case Management Programs, of any of the following events that occur during the reporting period:

- (A) The assignment of the case to the judge;
- (B) The defendant pleading guilty or no contest to any offense in the case or the dismissal of the indictment or any count in the indictment;
- (C) The final disposition of the charges and specifications in the case. This shall include when the defendant is found guilty of capital charges and specifications, but does not receive the death penalty.

RULE 37.06. Public Access to Submitted Reports and Information.

All reports and information submitted to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court pursuant to Sup.R. 37 shall be available for public access pursuant to Sup.R 44 through 47.

RULE 37.07. Requests for Additional Information; Accuracy of Reports.

(A) Chief Justice requests

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice's designee may require additional information concerning the disposition of cases and the management of the courts in order to discharge the Chief Justice's constitutional and statutory duties. All judges, clerks, and other officers of all courts shall furnish any requested information.

(B) Accuracy of reports

All judges, clerks, and other officers of all courts shall cooperate with the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court to ensure the accuracy of the reports submitted to section pursuant to Sup.R. 37.

RULE 38. Annual Case Inventory; New Judge Inventory.

(A) Definitions

As used in this rule:

(1) “Case inventory” means the review of the physical or electronic case files, as applicable, to ensure an accurate count and to evaluate the accuracy of the court’s case management practice.

(2) “Case file” means the compendium of documents and information in documents submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court in a judicial action or proceeding.

(B) Requirement

Within three months of the date of a judge taking office to the court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court and thereafter annually on or before October 1st, the judge shall be responsible for the completion of a case inventory of all cases reported as pending on the applicable statistical report forms filed by the judge in accordance with the instructions prescribed by the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court. If determined necessary by the judge, the judge may include in the case inventory all cases reported as closed or inactive on the applicable statistical report forms filed by the judge.

(C) Documentation of inventory

A judge shall document completion of a case inventory performed pursuant to division (B) of this rule in the appropriate space on the applicable statistical report forms.

(D) Reporting of discrepancies

A judge shall report corrections of discrepancies found during a case inventory performed pursuant to division (B) of this rule on the next statistical report form filed after the inventory is completed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF CASE INVENTORY

New Judge Inventory.

1. Within three months of the date of a judge taking office to the court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court, the judge shall be responsible for the completion of a physical or electronic case inventory, as applicable, of all pending cases.
2. A case inventory involves actually reviewing the physical case files, if the court maintains paper files, or the electronic case files, if the court maintains electronic files through a case management system. A judge decides whether reviewing closed or inactive cases is necessary; however, pending cases must be reviewed. A computer-generated list of pending cases may be used to identify the pending cases which must be physically or electronically retrieved and reviewed.
3. Once the physical or electronic case files, as applicable, are retrieved, a judge should review each file and do the following:
 - a. Identify cases in which a conflict of interest exists and therefore must be reassigned to another judge of the court or assigned to a visiting judge;
 - b. Identify cases that lack a next scheduled event date;
 - c. Identify cases that should be terminated or closed for purposes of reporting on the Supreme Court of Ohio Statistical Report Form;
 - d. Identify cases that are ripe for settlement or resolution prior to the scheduled trial date;
 - e. Identify cases that have been incorrectly classified on a previous report.
4. A judge shall document completion of the case inventory in the space provided on the applicable statistical report form by indicating the date the most recent case inventory was completed.
5. A judge may amend any report the judge's predecessors previously submitted. For example, a case inventory performed pursuant to Sup.R. 38 might reveal cases that are pending that were not previously being reported as such or cases that had been previously reported as pending which in fact have been terminated. In these and similar instances, the report preparer (if other than the judge) should confer with the reporting judge to determine the best solution for resolving the discrepant pending case counts or contact the Case Management Section for assistance. The most important goal is to ensure good quality data going forward.

Annual Case Inventory.

1. The judge shall be responsible for annually completing a physical or electronic case inventory, as applicable, of all pending cases.
2. A case inventory involves actually reviewing the physical case files, if the court maintains paper files, or the electronic case files, if the court maintains electronic files through a case management system. A judge decides whether reviewing closed or inactive cases is necessary; however, pending cases must be reviewed. A computer-generated list of pending cases may be used to identify the pending cases which must be physically or electronically retrieved and reviewed.

3. Once the physical or electronic case files, as applicable, are retrieved, a judge should review each file and do the following:
 - a. Identify cases that lack a next scheduled event date;
 - b. Identify cases that should be terminated or closed for purposes of reporting on the Supreme Court of Ohio Statistical Report Form;
 - c. Identify cases that are ripe for settlement or resolution prior to the scheduled trial date;
 - d. Identify cases that have been incorrectly classified on a previous report.
4. A judge shall document completion of the case inventory in the space provided on the applicable statistical report form by indicating the date the most recent case inventory was completed.
5. A judge may amend any report the judge's predecessors previously submitted. For example, a case inventory performed pursuant to Sup.R. 38 might reveal cases that are pending that were not previously being reported as such or cases that had been previously reported as pending which in fact have been terminated. In these and similar instances, the report preparer (if other than the judge) should confer with the reporting judge to determine the best solution for resolving the discrepant pending case counts or contact the Case Management Section for assistance. The most important goal is to ensure good quality data going forward.

RULE 39. Case Time Limits.

(A) Appellate and civil case time limits. The time limits for disposition of appellate and civil cases shall be as indicated on the Supreme Court report forms.

(B) Criminal case time limits. (1) In common pleas court, all criminal cases shall be tried within six months of the date of arraignment on an indictment or information. In municipal and county court, all criminal cases shall be tried within the time provided in Chapter 2945. of the Revised Code. Whenever a hearing or trial time is extended or shortened pursuant to section 2945.72 of the Revised Code or Criminal Rule 5 or 45, the judge shall state the reason for the change in an order and journalize the order.

(2) Grand jury proceedings. When an accused has been bound over to a grand jury and no final action is taken by the grand jury within sixty days after the date of the bindover, the court or the administrative judge of the court shall dismiss the charge unless for good cause shown the prosecuting attorney is granted a continuance for a definite period of time.

(3) Felony preliminary hearing. A preliminary hearing in a felony case shall be held within one month of the date of arrest or the date of issuance of the summons.

(4) Sentencing. Provided the defendant in a criminal case is available, the court shall impose sentence or hold a sentencing hearing with all parties present within fifteen days of the verdict or finding of guilt or receipt of a completed pre-sentence investigation report. Any failure to meet this time standard shall be reported to the administrative judge, who shall take the necessary corrective action. In a single judge division, the failure shall be reported by the judge to the Case Management Section, which shall refer the matter to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for corrective action.

(5) Post-conviction relief petitions; death penalty cases. All post-conviction relief petitions filed in death penalty cases shall be ruled upon within one hundred eighty days of the date of filing. In any month where a post-conviction relief petition in a death penalty case is filed, pending, or terminated, the administrative judge shall submit the Post-Conviction Relief Petition Report detailing the status of the petition.

(C) Reporting. Any failure to comply with the time limits specified in this rule, and the reason for the failure, shall be reported immediately to the administrative judge, who shall take the necessary corrective action. In a single-judge court or division, the failure shall be reported by the judge to the Case Management Section. The Case Management Section shall report to the Chief Justice, who may take such action as may be necessary to cause the delinquent case to be tried forthwith.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 39 consolidates the time limits contained in former C.P. Sup. R. 8 and 8.01 and M.C. Sup. R. 5. The provisions of C.P. Sup. R. 8.01(B) have been moved to Rule 42. Division (B)(5) is a new time guideline and reporting requirement.

The time limits applicable to criminal cases are for the purpose of facilitating the prompt disposition of criminal cases. These time limits in no way affect the statutorily mandated limits contained in R.C. 2945.71. However, the failure to dispose of cases within these time guidelines may result in intervention by the Chief Justice. While the administrative guidelines set out in Rule 8(B) are keyed to the date of arraignment, the requirement of R.C. 2945.71 begins to run from the date of arrest.

Although criminal cases are not reported as filed on Common Pleas Form A until the accused is arraigned on an indictment or information, the responsibility of the court of common pleas for the processing of the case begins upon receipt of the papers in the case pursuant to Crim. R. 5 (B)(7). When no final action has been taken by a grand jury within sixty days after bindover, the court or administrative judge should dismiss the charge unless the prosecutor is, for good cause, granted a continuance. The key date for purposes of division (B)(2) is the date of bindover. Thus, the summoning of a grand jury under Crim. R. 8 should not be unduly delayed. Although R.C. 2945.71 does not mandate a time limit for completion of the grand jury process, the statutory time limit runs from the date of arrest, including time taken in the grand jury process.

The dismissal contemplated by division (B)(2) is not a dismissal with prejudice.

Crim. R. 5(B)(1) provides time guidelines for preliminary hearings only. Crim. R. 5(A)(2) and 5(B)(1) each contain provisions pertaining to the extension of preliminary hearing time limits. Crim. R. 45(A) explains the method to be used in computing time. Crim. R. 45(B) provides for the enlargement or reduction of time provisions.

Division (B)(1) provides for the journalization of all actions taken pursuant to section 2945.72 of the Revised Code, Crim. R. 5(A)(2), 5(B)(1) or 45(B), which either extend or shorten the time periods provided in section 2945.71 of the Revised Code or Crim. R. 5. The journal entry must include the fact of the extension or shortening of time and a statement of the reasons therefor to provide a record should any question arise concerning compliance with section 2945.71 of the Revised Code.

Rule 39(B)(4) Sentencing

If the defendant is available, the court must take action within fifteen days of the verdict or finding of guilty or within fifteen days of the receipt of a completed presentence investigation report. This action may be to impose sentence, to place on probation, or to hold a hearing on the report.

Although R.C. 2945.71 is satisfied if the accused is brought to trial within the appropriate period from arrest, the Form A report keys termination to the sentencing or granting of probation. Thus, the six month guidelines contained on the report form includes any period of time between the commencement of trial and the imposition of sentence.

Failure to meet the time standard of this section must be reported to the administrative judge for corrective action. In a single judge division, any failure is to be reported to the Case Management Section.

The fifteen day time limit of division (B)(4) of this rule should not be confused with the requirement of Sup. R. 7 that the journal entry be made within thirty days of the judgment.

Rule 39(B)(5) Post-conviction relief petitions; death penalty cases

Prior to July 1997, no reporting requirements existed for post-conviction relief petitions, and these petitions were treated as motions in previously terminated cases. In view of the public policies reflected by the November 1994 constitutional amendment abolishing intermediate appeals in death penalty cases and legislation affecting post-conviction relief actions (Am. Sub. S.B. 4 of the 121st General Assembly, effective September 21, 1995), it is imperative that courts provide timely consideration of death penalty cases and ensuing post-conviction relief petitions in those cases. To assist in the management of post-conviction relief petitions in death penalty cases, division (B)(5) of this rule establishes a one hundred eighty day time guideline for the disposition of these petitions and provides for the monthly reporting of the status of the petitions. The one hundred eighty day time guideline is identical to the guideline contained in Rule 35 of the Ohio Rules of Criminal Procedure, effective July 1, 1997.

Although the assigned judge is ultimately responsible for the termination of the case and is so designated on the report form, the administrative judge is responsible for tracking and reporting the status of these petitions.

Rule 39(C) Reporting

The time limits imposed by this rule are for administrative purposes only. Failure to comply with these time limits does not give rise to the sanctions imposed by R.C. 2945.71. However, failure to dispose of cases within these times limits may result in the intervention of the administrative judge and the Chief Justice.

The reports required by this rule should be submitted monthly to the administrative judge or the Case Management Section. A case should be listed on this report for each month during which it is delinquent.

Although no specific form is prescribed for this report, it should contain, at a minimum, the style of the case, the offense charged, the date of its filing, an explanation of the delay in disposition, and the date on which it is anticipated that the case will be completed.

Failure to meet the time standard of this section must be reported to the administrative judge for corrective action. In a single-judge division, any failure is to be reported to the Case Management Section.

RULE 40. Review of Cases; Dismissal; Rulings on Motions and Submitted Cases.

(A) Review; dismissal; rulings.

(1) Each trial judge shall review, or cause to be reviewed, all cases assigned to the judge. Cases that have been on the docket for six months without any proceedings taken in the case, except cases awaiting trial assignment, shall be dismissed, after notice to counsel of record, for want of prosecution, unless good cause be shown to the contrary.

(2) All cases submitted for determination after a court trial shall be decided within ninety days from the date the case was submitted.

(3) All motions shall be ruled upon within one hundred twenty days from the date the motion was filed, except as otherwise noted on the report forms.

(4) All child support hearings involving an obligor or obligee called to active military service in the uniformed services, as defined in section 3119.77 of the Revised Code, shall be heard within thirty days from the date the court receives notice that the obligor or obligee has requested a hearing.

(B) Reporting.

(1) Each judge shall report to the administrative judge decisions that have not been ruled upon within the applicable time period. The administrative judge shall confer with the judge who has motions pending beyond the applicable time period and shall determine the reasons for the delay on the rulings. If the administrative judge determines that there is no just cause for the delay, the administrative judge shall seek to rectify the delay within sixty days. If the delay is not rectified within sixty days, the administrative judge shall report the delay to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court.

(2) In a single-judge court, if the judge has not rectified the delay, the judge shall report the delay in the rulings to the Case Management Section within one hundred eighty days from the date of the filing of the overtime motion or the submission of the case.

(3) All reports submitted to the administrative judge and the Case Management Section under this rule shall be available for public access pursuant to Sup. R. 44 through 47.

(C) Assigned judges. The provisions of this rule apply to judges sitting by assignment of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 40 is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 6 and M.C. Sup. R. 6.

Rule 40(A) Review; dismissal; rulings

Each trial judge is required to periodically review all cases assigned to the judge. This requirement applies to civil and criminal cases. The dismissal sanction does not apply in criminal cases because it is overridden by Rule 39 and by R.C. 2945.73, which contain specific provisions as to criminal cases. The review may be conducted personally or be done under the direction of the judge.

The purpose of the review of assigned cases is to: (1) identify and dismiss those cases that have been on the docket for six months without any activity or action being taken; (2) dismiss those inactive cases for want of prosecution; and (3) bring to the attention of each judge those matters which are pending and require decision.

“Been on the Docket” as used in the rule means pending, that is, being on the appearance docket. It does not refer to being on the trial docket for six months.

“Except cases awaiting trial assignment” does not refer to cases that are not yet placed on the trial docket by reason of the issues not being made up or that are awaiting the next establishment of the trial docket. It refers to those cases that are ready for trial but have not been tried because of the volume of cases in the court. The exception exists to prevent the dismissal of those cases where the delay is not the responsibility of the parties or their counsel.

“Without any proceedings taken in the case” means a case that has been totally inactive as revealed by the appearance docket and the case file. The absence of appearance docket entries over a six-month period indicates a case either is ready for trial or is an inactive case.

Dismissal is not summary; notice to the parties or counsel is a condition precedent. The notice is not limited to plaintiff’s counsel, but must go to the counsel of record for all parties. Ordinary mail notice suffices under the rule. The return of ordinary mail notice should not be permitted to frustrate the action of the court.

Counsel is required to provide counsel’s address with all pleadings and motions; Civ. R. 11. The address must be kept current so that the notice requirements of the Civil Rules function throughout the litigation. The requirement of notice to counsel is not a requirement for an oral hearing on the matter of dismissal. Such a requirement does not appear in the rule and does not appear in Civ. R. 41(B)(1) (dismissal for failure to prosecute). An oral hearing may be conducted. The notice issued by the court may set a time period within which counsel can show cause as to why the action should not be dismissed.

The control and supervision of the docket is the responsibility of the administrative judge. The administrative judge must rely on the individual judges in implementing this assignment. The review, with its sanction of dismissal, is a powerful tool in keeping cases moving and dockets current.

“For want of prosecution”, as used in the rule, does not limit the dismissal of cases to those situations where the inactivity is directly attributable to the plaintiff. When a defendant fails to take a required step, the plaintiff, under the Civil Rules, has an available remedy. If the plaintiff files a complaint and the defendant does not answer, and the court finds no proceedings taken for six months, the court may dismiss the case for want of prosecution because the plaintiff could have prosecuted the case by seeking a default judgment. The rule is an example of the intent of the rules of superintendence to expedite the disposition of cases.

Each trial judge is required by the rule to review, or cause to be reviewed, all pending motions and cases that have been submitted to the judge for determination following court trial.

As to motions, the applicable time period begins to run on the day the motion is filed or made. As to cases submitted, the ninety days runs from the day the trial is ended or, if applicable, the day all post-trial pleadings have been filed.

Rule 40 (B) Reporting

Each trial judge is required to report to the administrative judge motions and submitted cases pending beyond the applicable time period. If the administrative judge is unable to resolve the delay, or, in a single judge court, the matter is referred to the Case Management Section for reporting to the Chief Justice for corrective action.

Rule 40(C) Assigned judges

Visiting judges and retired judges sitting by assignment of the Chief Justice are subject to the applicable time periods for disposition of motions and submitted cases, and to the reporting requirements of this rule.

Commentary (July 4, 2005)

The 2005 amendment to Rule 40(A) added an expedited process for hearings regarding child support orders for those called to active military service pursuant to Amended Substitute House Bill 149 (eff. 06/02/04).

RULE 41. Conflict of Trial Court Assignment Dates, Continuances and Engaged Counsel.

(A) Continuances; granting of. The continuance of a scheduled trial or hearing is a matter within the sound discretion of the trial court for good cause shown.

No party shall be granted a continuance of a trial or hearing without a written motion from the party or counsel stating the reason for the continuance, endorsed in writing by the party as well as counsel, provided that the trial judge may waive this requirement upon a showing of good cause. No court shall grant a continuance to any party at any time without first setting a definite date for the trial or hearing.

When a continuance is requested by reason of the unavailability of a witness at the time scheduled for trial or hearing, the court shall consider the feasibility of resorting to the several methods of recording testimony permitted by Civil Rule 30(B) and authorized for use by Civil Rule 32(A)(3).

(B) Conflict of Trial Date Assignments

(1) When a continuance is requested for the reasons that counsel is scheduled to appear in another case assigned for trial on the same date in the same or another trial court of this state, the case which was first set for trial shall have priority and shall be tried on the date assigned. Criminal cases assigned for trial have priority over civil cases assigned for trial. The court should not consider any motion for a continuance due to a conflict of trial assignment dates unless a copy of the conflicting assignment is attached to the motion and the motion is filed not less than thirty days prior to trial.

(2) Except as provided in division (B)(3) of this rule, a continuance shall be granted, upon request, under either of the following circumstances:

(a) A party, counsel, or witness under subpoena is scheduled to appear on the same date at a hearing before the Board of Professional Conduct of the Supreme Court as a member of the Board, as a party, as counsel for a party, or as a witness under subpoena for the hearing;

(b) Counsel requesting the continuance will be unavailable to participate in the judicial proceeding because counsel is a member of the General Assembly whose attendance is required at a scheduled voting session or committee meeting of the General Assembly.

(3) In considering a continuance requested pursuant to division (B)(2)(b) of this rule, the court may require counsel to obtain the consent of the client and provide notice to all other parties to the action. The court may deny the requested continuance if either or both of the following apply:

(a) Counsel has been granted prior continuances in the same case based on attendance at scheduled voting sessions or committee meetings of the General Assembly;

(b) The court determines that further delay in the proceeding would result in substantial prejudice to a party.

(C) Engaged counsel. If a designated trial attorney has such a number of cases assigned for trial in courts of this state so as to cause undue delay in the disposition of such cases, the administrative judge may summon such trial attorney who persistently requests continuances and extensions to warn the attorney of the possibility of sanctions and to encourage the attorney to make necessary adjustments in the management of his or her practice. Where such measures fail, restrictions may properly be imposed by the administrative judge on the number of cases in which the attorney may participate at any one time.

(D) Continuances; reporting. Trial continuances shall be reported on a monthly basis to the administrative judge. Where a judge is persistently and unreasonably indulgent in granting continuances or extensions, the administrative judge shall investigate the reasons for the excessive continuances and take appropriate corrective action at the local level. If corrective action at the local level is unsuccessful, the administrative judge shall report that fact to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court. If it comes to the attention of the Case Management Section that the judge of a single-judge division is persistently and unreasonably indulgent in granting continuances, it shall report the information to the Chief Justice, who shall take appropriate corrective action.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 41 consolidates the provisions of former C.P. Sup. R. 7 and M.C. Sup. R. 16.

Rule 41(A) Continuances; granting of Division (A) provides that the granting of a continuance is within the sound discretion of the court, and only upon a showing of good cause.

Written motion must be filed specifying the reason for the continuance. The motion must be signed by the party requesting the continuance, as well as their counsel. The requirement that the motion be signed by the party may be waived by the trial judge, for good cause. If a continuance is granted, the court shall, at that time, reset the trial or hearing for a definite date.

If a continuance is requested because of the unavailability of a witness, the court is required to consider the feasibility of recording testimony as permitted by Civ. R. 30(B).

The standards relating to court delay reduction adopted by the American Bar Association focus, to a great extent, upon the limitation of continuances as a means of expediting case dispositions.

Rule 41(B) Conflict of trial assignment dates

Division (B) sets priorities among all trial courts for resolution of conflicts when counsel is assigned for trial in more than one court on the same date.

When a continuance is requested by reason of conflict, the case first set for trial is to be given priority and tried on the date assigned. Priority is dependent on firm assignment for trial. Thus, a general policy of early assignment to achieve priority would be inconsistent with the purpose of this rule. Within this general system, criminal cases assigned for trial are to be accorded priority over civil cases.

Attached to the motion for a continuance should be a copy of the conflicting assignment, and the motion should be filed not less than thirty days prior to the trial sought to be continued. These provisions are not mandatory, and there may be situations where compliance with one or both is not possible.

Rule 41(C) Engaged counsel

Division (C) gives the administrative judge authority to restrict the number of cases that an attorney may handle at one time if trial counsel has so many cases assigned for trial that undue delay is caused in the disposition of those cases.

Rule 41(D) Continuances; reporting

Division (D) of this rule requires the administrative judge to take action if it appears that a judge grants an inappropriate number of continuances. The administrative judge shall first take corrective action at the local level. If that action is not successful, the administrative judge has the duty to refer the matter to the Case Management Section. The Case Management Section also has the responsibility to refer any matter to the Chief Justice for corrective action if it is brought to its attention that the judge of a single-judge division or court appears to be granting an inappropriate number of continuances.

RULE 42. Complex Litigation--Court of Common Pleas.

(A) Complex litigation determination. An attorney representing a party to an action filed in the general division of the court of common pleas may request that the case be designated as complex litigation. The attorney filing the request shall certify that the attorney has approval from his or her client to file the request. In determining whether a case shall be designated as complex litigation, the judge to whom the case is assigned shall consider all of the following:

- (1) Number of parties involved;
- (2) Whether a class action is involved;
- (3) Whether it is a products liability case;
- (4) Whether there are other related cases involving unusual multiplicity or complexity of factual or legal issues;
- (5) Extent of discovery necessary to prepare the case for trial;
- (6) Number or availability of parties and witnesses for trial;
- (7) Any endorsement of or objections to the request from an opposing party or counsel for an opposing party.

(B) Complex litigation determination--judicial. The judge to whom the case is assigned may designate a case as complex litigation without a request from an attorney representing a party to the action. The designation shall be made after the judge considers the factors set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this rule.

(C) Time; reporting. A designation of a case as complex litigation pursuant to division (A) or (B) of this rule shall be made within six months of the date on which the case was filed. If a case is designated as complex litigation, the judge shall submit to the Case Management Section of the Supreme Court a report specifying the reasons for the designation of the case as complex litigation. The judge shall include the case in the statistical report submitted pursuant to Sup.R. 37.02(A) under the category of complex litigation. The judge shall have thirty-six months from the date of filing to terminate the case.

(D) Authority of the Chief Justice. The Case Management Section shall periodically report the designation of cases as complex litigation to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who may decide that a case should not be classified as complex litigation. If the Chief Justice determines that a case should not be classified as complex litigation, the Case Management Section shall notify the judge who shall remove the case from the complex litigation docket and notify the parties.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 8.01(B). No changes were made in the 1997 amendments to the Rules of Superintendence.

Commentary (January 1, 1996 Amendment)

Two significant changes have been made to this rule pertaining to complex litigation. First, counsel and the trial judge are in the best position to assess the factors set forth in division (A)(1) to (7) of the rule and determine whether the case merits designation as complex litigation. Accordingly, the process of designating a case as complex litigation is revised to allow an attorney, with the consent of his or her client, to make a request and to have the designation made by the trial judge. The trial judge also may designate a case as complex litigation without a request from counsel. Through Sup. R. 4 and by reviewing and signing Common Pleas Report Form A, the administrative judge of the general division will continue to monitor complex litigation determinations and ensure uniform application of the criteria throughout the division. If the trial judge is considering the designation of a case as complex litigation without a request from counsel, he or she should inform the parties of that fact and the significance of the designation. Once a determination has been made, the judge should notify the parties.

The second revision extends the time for making a complex litigation determination from ninety days to six months. Under the former rule, the complexities of a case often were not apparent within three months of filing, and the additional three months provided by this rule will allow for a more complete and accurate assessment and designation.

RULE 43. Case Numbering--Municipal and County Court.

(A) Method. When filed in the clerk's office, cases shall be categorized as civil, criminal, or traffic and serially numbered within each category on an annual basis beginning on the first day of January of each year. Cases shall be identified by year and by reference to the case type designator on the administrative judge report form. Additional identifiers may be added by local court rule.

(B) Multiple defendants or charges in criminal cases. (1) In criminal cases, including traffic cases, all defendants shall be assigned separate case numbers.

(2) Where a defendant is charged with a misdemeanor and a traffic offense, the defendant shall be assigned separate case numbers pursuant to Sup. R. 37.04(C). The category selected for the case number and its case type designator shall be that of the offense having the greatest potential penalty.

(3) Where as a result of the same act, transaction, or series of acts or transactions, a defendant is charged with a felony or felonies and a misdemeanor or misdemeanors, including traffic offenses, the defendant shall be assigned separate case numbers, one for the felony or felonies and one for each other type of offense pursuant to Sup. R. 37.04(C). The category selected for the case number and its case type designator shall be that of the offense having the greatest potential penalty.

Commentary (July 1, 1997)

Rule 43 is analogous to former M.C. Sup. R. 12(E).

Rule 43(A) Method

This division provides the basis for the case numbering system to be used by all courts to which these rules are applicable. The rule states the following minimum requirements:

- (a) All cases must be categorized as civil, criminal, or traffic;
- (b) All cases must be serially numbered within one of the three categories listed above on an annual basis;
- (c) All cases must be identified by year;
- (d) All cases must be identified with the appropriate alphabetic case type designator from the Administrative Judge Report.

The civil case category is used for Personal Injury and Property Damage cases, Contracts cases, F.E.D. cases, Other Civil cases and Small Claims cases. The criminal case category is used for Felony cases and non-traffic Misdemeanor cases. The traffic case category is used for O.M.V.I. cases and for all Other Traffic cases. Definitions of these case types are contained in the comment concerning preparation of the Administrative Judge Report.

The numbering system can be explained by example. If the first case filed in 2000 is a felony, its case number would be 00-CR-A-00001. The "00" is the year reference. The "CR" is the criminal case category reference. The "A" is the reference to the case type column on the Administrative Judge Report. The "00001" is the serial number for 2000 within the criminal case category. If the second case filed is a non-traffic misdemeanor, it would be numbered 00-CR-B-00002. If the third case filed is a driving under the influence case, it would be numbered 00-TR-C-00001.

(Note that this is the first serial number for 2000 in the traffic category.) If the fourth case filed is an Other Traffic case, it would be numbered 00-TR-D-00002. If the fifth case filed is a Personal Injury or Property Damage case, it would be numbered 00-CV-E-00001.

There are certain circumstances in which a case has been reported in one column on the Administrative Judge Report and the need subsequently arises for the case to be moved to another column.

Since the case designation on the Administrative Judge Report corresponds to the alphabetic designator segment of the case number, the alphabetic designator in the case number must be changed to reflect the change made on the Administrative Judge Report. This is the only segment of the case number which should ever be altered once a number is assigned. The combination of the year, category, and serial number form a unique number to identify a particular case. No matter what the alphabetic designator is, there should never be more than one case which has the same combination of year, category, and serial number. Thus, the alteration of the alphabetic designator segment cannot effect the uniqueness of the number.

The changes in the report and case number can be illustrated by the following example: Assume that a Small Claims case is filed. It is assigned the number 00-CV-I-00006. It is reported as filed on the Administrative Judge Report and is shown as pending at the end of the report period. After the close of the report period the defendant files a counterclaim on a contract which exceeds the jurisdiction of the small claims division. The following action would be taken pursuant to the case numbering rule and the monthly report form requirements:

- (a) The case would be listed as terminated by transfer on line 7 of Column I, Administrative Judge Report;
- (b) The case would be shown as transferred in on line 3 of Column F, Administrative Judge Report;
- (c) The case number would be changed from 00-CV-I-00006 to 00-CV-F-00006;
- (d) The case would be shown as terminated by transfer to an individual judge on line 7, Column F, Administrative Judge Report; and,
- (e) The case would be shown as a new case filed on line 2, Column F, Individual Judge Report.

The last sentence of Rule 43(A) provides that courts may add additional identifiers to suit their needs. For example, an identifier for the judge to whom the case is assigned, or an identifier for the degree of misdemeanor charged, may be added.

Rule 43(B) Multiple defendants or charges in criminal cases

Under division (B), each criminal defendant is assigned at least one case number.

Multiple defendants charged with the same offense arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions receive separate case numbers. Where there are multiple defendants, they may be charged in a single complaint or each may be charged by separate complaints. In any event, each defendant is assigned a separate case number and a copy of the complaint is placed in the defendant's file.

Where one defendant is charged with more than one offense arising from the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions, the defendant will be assigned separate case numbers pursuant to Rule 37.04(C). If the offenses charged fall in more than one category, e.g., both criminal and traffic, the case number assigned will correspond to the category. If the offenses charged fall into one category, e.g., traffic, but could be listed in more than one column on the Administrative Judge Report, then the case number assigned will be that of the offense which has the greatest potential penalty. For example, a defendant charged with O.M.V.I. and with a traffic offense other than O.M.V.I. would be assigned the case number of the offense having the greatest potential penalty.

Where a defendant is charged with more than one offense arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions and one or more but not all of the offenses charged are felonies, case numbers for each offense type are assigned. One number is for the felony or felonies, and the other numbers are for each of the non-felony offense types. For example, a multi-count indictment that includes two felonies, two misdemeanors, and two traffic offenses would result in the assignment of three case numbers. In determining what number to assign to the non-felony offenses, the normal rule described above in this Comment is applied.

The criminal case numbering rule is illustrated by the following example. Assume that a defendant is charged with aggravated assault under section 2903.12(A)(2) of the Revised Code, disorderly conduct under section 2917.11(B)(2) of the Revised Code, menacing under section 2903.22(A) of the Revised Code, and driving under the influence of alcohol under section 4511.19 of the Revised Code. Three case numbers are assigned to this defendant as follows:

Charge: Aggravated assault, R.C. 2903.12(A)(2)

00-CR-B-000896.

Charge: Disorderly conduct, R.C. 2917.11(B)(2),
Menacing, R.C. 2903.22(A)

00-TR-C-001334.

Charges: Operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol, R.C. 4511.19

The first case number is for the offense of aggravated assault, which is a felony. The rule states that a felony charged against a defendant will always receive a case number separate from any non-felony offenses charged which occur from the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions. The "CR" indicates that the case is in the criminal category and the "A" indicates that the case is reported in the Felonies column of the Administrative judge Report.

The second case number is for all the other criminal offenses. The third case number is for all the traffic offenses. The case number assigned is determined by comparing the potential penalties for the offenses charged. The case number is assigned based upon the offenses charged. In the example given, the offenses are as follows:

Driving under the influence of alcohol - imprisonment for six months. R.C. 2929.21(B)(1)

Disorderly conduct - fine of not more than $100. R.C. 22929.21(D)

Menacing - imprisonment for thirty days. R.C. 2929.21(B)(4)

In the example, the case number assigned is 00-TRC-001334 and 00-CR-B-000896. The "TR" represents the Traffic category and the "C" represents the O.M.V.I. column on the Administrative Judge Report. The "CR" represents the Criminal category and the "B" represents the misdemeanor column on the Administrative Judge Report. Regardless of the number of offenses, there will never be more than three case numbers for a defendant stemming from one incident.

Rule 43(B) is designed to make the case numbering system consistent with the reporting requirements established by Rule 37.03. If this rule is utilized properly, less bookkeeping will be needed to complete the review of pending cases required by Rule 40, and the record keeping necessary under the individual assignment system will be simplified.

RULE 45. Court Records – Public Access.

(A) Presumption of public access

Court records are presumed open to public access.

(B) Direct access

(1) A court or clerk of court shall make a court record available by direct access, promptly acknowledge any person's request for direct access, and respond to the request within a reasonable amount of time.

(2) Except for a request for bulk distribution pursuant to Sup. R. 46, a court or clerk of court shall permit a requestor to have a court record duplicated upon paper, upon the same medium upon which the court or clerk keeps it, or upon any other medium the court or clerk determines it can be reasonably duplicated as an integral part of its normal operations.

(3) A court or clerk of court shall mail, transmit, or deliver copies of a requested court record to the requestor within a reasonable time from the request, provided the court or clerk may adopt a policy allowing it to limit the number of court records it will mail, transmit, or deliver per month, unless the requestor certifies in writing that the requestor does not intend to use or forward the records, or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. For purposes of this division, "commercial" shall be narrowly construed and does not include news reporting, the gathering of information to assist citizens in the understanding of court activities, or nonprofit educational research.

(4) A court or clerk of court may charge its actual costs incurred in responding to a request for direct access to a court record. The court or clerk may require a deposit of the estimated actual costs.

(C) Remote access

(1) A court or clerk of court may offer remote access to a court record. If a court or clerk offers remote access to a court record and the record is also available by direct access, the version of the record available through remote access shall be identical to the version of the record available by direct access, provided the court or clerk may exclude an exhibit or attachment that is part of the record if the court or clerk includes notice that the exhibit or attachment exists and is available by direct access.

(2) Nothing in division (C)(1) of this rule shall be interpreted as requiring a court or clerk of court offering remote access to a case document in a case file to offer remote access to other case documents in that case file.

(3) Nothing in division (C)(1) of this rule shall be interpreted as prohibiting a court or clerk of court from making available on a website any court record that exists only in electronic form, including an on-line journal or register of actions.

(D) Omission of personal identifiers prior to submission or filing

(1) When submitting a case document to a court or filing a case document with a clerk of court, a party to a judicial action or proceeding shall omit personal identifiers from the document.

(2) When personal identifiers are omitted from a case document submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court pursuant to division (D)(1) of this rule, the party shall submit or file that information on a separate form. The court or clerk may provide a standard form for parties to use. Redacted or omitted personal identifiers shall be provided to the court or clerk upon request or a party to the judicial action or proceeding upon motion.

(3) The responsibility for omitting personal identifiers from a case document submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court pursuant to division (D)(1) of this rule shall rest solely with the party. The court or clerk is not required to review the case document to confirm that the party has omitted personal identifiers, and shall not refuse to accept or file the document on that basis.

(E) Restricting public access to a case document

(1) Any party to a judicial action or proceeding or other person who is the subject of information in a case document may, by written motion to the court, request that the court restrict public access to the information or, if necessary, the entire document. Additionally, the court may restrict public access to the information in the case document or, if necessary, the entire document upon its own order. The court shall give notice of the motion or order to all parties in the case. The court may schedule a hearing on the motion.

(2) A court shall restrict public access to information in a case document or, if necessary, the entire document, if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the presumption of allowing public access is outweighed by a higher interest after considering each of the following:

(a) Whether public policy is served by restricting public access;

(b) Whether any state, federal, or common law exempts the document or information from public access;

(c) Whether factors that support restriction of public access exist, including risk of injury to persons, individual privacy rights and interests, proprietary business information, public safety, and fairness of the adjudicatory process.

(3) When restricting public access to a case document or information in a case document pursuant to this division, the court shall use the least restrictive means available, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) Redacting the information rather than limiting public access to the entire document;
- (b) Restricting remote access to either the document or the information while maintaining its direct access;
- (c) Restricting public access to either the document or the information for a specific period of time;
- (d) Using a generic title or description for the document or the information in a case management system or register of actions;
- (e) Using initials or other identifier for the parties' proper names.

(4) If a court orders the redaction of information in a case document pursuant to this division, a redacted version of the document shall be filed in the case file along with a copy of the court's order. If a court orders that the entire case document be restricted from public access, a copy of the court's order shall be filed in the case file. A journal entry shall reflect the court's order. Case documents ordered restricted from public access or information in documents ordered redacted shall not be available for public access and shall be maintained separately in the case file.

(F) Obtaining access to a case document that has been granted restricted public access

(1) Any person, by written motion to the court, may request access to a case document or information in a case document that has been granted restricted public access pursuant to division (E) of this rule. The court shall give notice of the motion to all parties in the case and, where possible, to the non-party person who requested that public access be restricted. The court may schedule a hearing on the motion.

(2) A court may permit public access to a case document or information in a case document if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the presumption of allowing public access is no longer outweighed by a higher interest. When making this determination, the court shall consider whether the original reason for the restriction of public access to the case document or information in the case document pursuant to division (E) of this rule no longer exists or is no longer applicable and whether any new circumstances, as set forth in that division, have arisen which would require the restriction of public access.

RULE 46. Court Records - Bulk Distribution.

(A) Requests for bulk distribution and new compilations

(1) Bulk distribution

(a) Any person, upon request, shall receive bulk distribution of information in court records, provided that the bulk distribution does not require creation of a new compilation. The court or clerk of court shall permit the requestor to choose that the bulk distribution be provided upon paper, upon the same medium upon which the court or clerk keeps the information, or upon any other medium the court or clerk determines it can be reasonably duplicated as an integral part of its normal operations, unless the choice requires a new compilation.

(b) The bulk distribution shall include a time or date stamp indicating the compilation date. A person who receives a bulk distribution of information in court records for redistribution shall keep the information current and delete inaccurate, sealed, or expunged information in accordance with Sup. R. 26.

(2) New compilation

(a) A court or clerk of court may create a new compilation customized for the convenience of a person who requests a bulk distribution of information in court records.

(b) In determining whether to create a new compilation, a court or clerk of court may consider if creating the new compilation is an appropriate use of its available resources and is consistent with the principles of public access.

(c) If a court or clerk of court chooses to create a new compilation, it may require personnel costs in addition to actual costs. The court or the clerk may require a deposit of the estimated actual and personnel costs to create the new compilation.

(d) A court or clerk of court shall maintain a copy and provide public access to any new compilation. After recouping the personnel costs to create the new compilation from the original requestor, the court or clerk may later assess only actual costs.

(B) Contracts with providers of information technology support

A court or clerk of court that contracts with a provider of information technology support to gather, store, or make accessible court records shall require the provider to comply with requirements of Sup. R. 44 through 47, agree to protect the confidentiality of the records, notify the court or clerk of court of all bulk distribution and new compilation requests, including its own, and acknowledge that it has no ownership or proprietary rights to the records.

RULE 47. Court Records – Application, Remedies, and Liability.

(A) Application

(1) The provisions of Sup.R. 44 through 47 requiring redaction or omission of information in case documents or restricting public access to case documents shall apply only to case documents in actions commenced on or after July 1, 2009. Access to case documents in actions commenced prior to July 1, 2009, shall be governed by federal and state law.

(2) The provisions of Sup.R. 44 through 47 restricting public access to administrative documents shall apply to all documents regardless of when created.

(3) The provisions of Sup.R. 44(C)(2)(h) restricting public access to certain case documents of a court of common pleas or a division thereof with domestic relations or juvenile jurisdiction shall apply only to case documents in actions commenced on or after January 1, 2016.

(B) Denial of public access - remedy

A person aggrieved by the failure of a court or clerk of court to comply with the requirements of Sup. R. 44 through 47 may pursue an action in mandamus pursuant to Chapter 2731. of the Revised Code.

(C) Liability and immunity

Sup. R. 44 through 47 do not affect any immunity or defense to which a court, court agency, clerk of court, or their employees may be entitled under section 9.86 or Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code.

(D) Review

Sup. R. 44 through 47 shall be subject to periodic review by the Commission on the Rules of Superintendence.

RULE 48. Guardians ad litem.

(A) Applicability

This rule shall apply in all domestic relations and juvenile cases in the courts of common pleas where a court appoints a guardian ad litem to protect and act in the best interest of a child.

(B) Definitions

For purposes of this rule:

(1) “Guardian ad litem” means an individual appointed to assist a court in its determination of a child’s best interest.

(2) “Child” means:

(a) A person under eighteen years of age, or

(b) A person who is older than eighteen years of age who is deemed a child until the person attains twenty-one years of age under section 2151.011(B)(5) or section 2152.02(C) of the Revised Code.

(c) A child under R.C. 3109.04 or a disabled child under R.C.3119.86 who falls under the jurisdiction of a domestic relations court or of a juvenile court with a paternity docket.

(C) Appointment of guardian ad litem

(1) Each court appointing a guardian ad litem under this rule shall enter an Order of Appointment which shall include:

(a) A statement regarding whether a person is being appointed as a guardian ad litem only or as a guardian ad litem and attorney for the child.

(b) A statement that the appointment shall remain in effect until discharged by order of the court, by the court filing a final order in the case or by court rule.

(c) A statement that the guardian ad litem shall be given notice of all hearings and proceedings and shall be provided a copy of all pleadings, motions, notices and other documents filed in the case.

(2) Whenever feasible, the same guardian ad litem shall be reappointed for a specific child in any subsequent case in any court relating to the best interest of the child.

(3) The court shall make provisions for fees and expenses in the Order.

(D) Responsibilities of a guardian ad litem

In order to provide the court with relevant information and an informed recommendation regarding the child's best interest, a guardian ad litem shall perform, at a minimum, the responsibilities stated in this division, unless impracticable or inadvisable to do so.

(1) A guardian ad litem shall represent the best interest of the child for whom the guardian is appointed. Representation of best interest may be inconsistent with the wishes of the child whose interest the guardian ad litem represents.

(2) A guardian ad litem shall maintain independence, objectivity and fairness as well as the appearance of fairness in dealings with parties and professionals, both in and out of the courtroom and shall have no ex parte communications with the court regarding the merits of the case.

(3) A guardian ad litem is an officer of the court and shall act with respect and courtesy to the parties at all times.

(4) A guardian ad litem shall appear and participate in any hearing for which the duties of a guardian ad litem or any issues substantially within a guardian ad litem's duties and scope of appointment are to be addressed.

(5) A non-attorney guardian ad litem must avoid engaging in conduct that constitutes the unauthorized practice of law, be vigilant in performing the guardian ad litem's duties and request that the court appoint legal counsel, or otherwise employ the services of an attorney, to undertake appropriate legal actions on behalf of the guardian ad litem in the case.

(6) A guardian ad litem who is an attorney may file pleadings, motions and other documents as appropriate under the applicable rules of procedure.

(7) When a court appoints an attorney to serve as both the guardian ad litem and attorney for a child, the attorney shall advocate for the child's best interest and the child's wishes in accord with the Rules of Professional Conduct. Attorneys who are to serve as both guardian ad litem and attorney should be aware of Rule 3.7 of the Rules of Professional Conduct and act accordingly.

(8) When a guardian ad litem determines that a conflict exists between the child's best interest and the child's wishes, the guardian ad litem shall, at the earliest practical time, request in writing that the court promptly resolve the conflict by entering appropriate orders.

(9) A guardian ad litem shall avoid any actual or apparent conflict of interest arising from any relationship or activity including, but not limited to, those of employment or business or from professional or personal contacts with parties or others involved in the case. A guardian ad litem shall avoid self-dealing or associations from which the guardian ad litem might benefit, directly or indirectly, except from compensation for services as a guardian ad litem.

(10) Upon becoming aware of any actual or apparent conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem shall immediately take action to resolve the conflict, shall advise the court and the parties of the action taken and may resign from the matter with leave of court, or seek court direction as necessary. Because a conflict of interest may arise at any time, a guardian ad litem has an ongoing duty to comply with this division.

(11) Unless excepted by statute, by court rule consistent with this rule, or by order of court pursuant to this rule, a guardian ad litem shall meet the qualifications and satisfy all training and continuing education requirements under this rule and under any local court rules governing guardians ad litem. A guardian ad litem shall meet the qualifications for guardians ad litem for each county where the guardian ad litem serves and shall promptly advise each court of any grounds for disqualification or unavailability to serve.

(12) A guardian ad litem shall be responsible for providing the court or its designee with a statement indicating compliance with all initial and continuing educational and training requirements so the court may maintain the files required in division (G) of this rule. The compliance statement shall include information detailing the date, location, contents and credit hours received for any relevant training course.

(13) A guardian ad litem shall make reasonable efforts to become informed about the facts of the case and to contact all parties. In order to provide the court with relevant information and an informed recommendation as to the child's best interest, a guardian ad litem shall, at a minimum, do the following, unless impracticable or inadvisable because of the age of the child or the specific circumstances of a particular case:

- (a) Meet with and interview the child and observe the child with each parent, foster parent, guardian or physical custodian and conduct at least one interview with the child where none of these individuals is present;
- (b) Visit the child at his or her residence in accordance with any standards established by the court in which the guardian ad litem is appointed;
- (c) Ascertain the wishes of the child;
- (d) Meet with and interview the parties, foster parents and other significant individuals who may have relevant knowledge regarding the issues of the case;
- (e) Review pleadings and other relevant court documents in the case in which the guardian ad litem is appointed;
- (f) Review criminal, civil, educational and administrative records pertaining to the child and, if appropriate, to the child's family or to other parties in the case;
- (g) Interview school personnel, medical and mental health providers, child protective services workers and relevant court personnel and obtain copies of relevant records;

(h) Recommend that the court order psychological evaluations, mental health and/or substance abuse assessments, or other evaluations or tests of the parties as the guardian ad litem deems necessary or helpful to the court; and

(i) Perform any other investigation necessary to make an informed recommendation regarding the best interest of the child.

Commentary (March 25, 2002)

The March 25, 2002 amendment deleted an obsolete reference to the recording of chiropractic licenses in the probate division of the court of common pleas. See former R.C. 4734.08, repealed in H.B. 506 of the 123rd General Assembly.

RULE 51. Standard Probate Forms.

(A) Applicability. This rule prescribes the format, content, and use of standard forms for designated applications, pleadings, waivers, notices, entries, and other filings in certain proceedings in the probate division of the courts of common pleas.

Where a standard form has not been prescribed by this rule, the form used shall be that required by the Civil Rules, or prescribed or permitted by the probate division of the court of common pleas in which it is being filed.

(B) Effective date; use of standard and nonstandard forms.

(1) This rule takes effect July 1, 1977 and applies to proceedings had on and after that date, including proceedings in pending cases.

(C) Modification of standard forms; pleadings and filings prepared for particular cases.

(1) A printed, blank standard form may be modified by deletion or interlineation to meet the circumstances of a particular case or proceeding, if the modification can be accomplished neatly and conveniently. No court shall require the modification of a standard form as a routine matter. If any allegation, statement, data, information, pleading, or filing is required by an appropriate local rule of court and a standard form does not make provision therefor, it shall be provided in a separate or supplemental filing.

(2) Even though a standard form is prescribed, an original instrument may be prepared for filing. Any such instrument shall be typed on eight and one-half by eleven inch paper. The caption prescribed in Sup. R. 52 shall be used, and the instrument shall follow the format prescribed for the standard forms. Any such instrument may modify the language of the standard form, omit inapplicable matter required by the standard form, and add matter not included in the standard form to the extent required by the circumstances of the particular case or proceeding.

(D) Standard probate forms. The standard forms prescribed for use in the probate division of the courts of common pleas are as follows.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 16.

This rule was amended effective December 13, 1989, to add a temporary provision suspending the use of Standard Probate Forms 15.0 through 17.5, the guardianship forms. New guardianship forms were adopted effective September 1, 1991 and the temporary provision was repealed. In addition, additional estate forms were adopted as the result of Amended Substitute House Bill 346 of the 118th General Assembly, effective May 31, 1990. See R.C. 2113.03 and 2113.533.

The distance between the bottom of the repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page shall be as required by division (K) of this rule.

(D) Type styles.

(1) All type shall be sans serif. Bold face type shall be used only as required or permitted by division (D)(2) of this rule. Italics shall not be used. Except as provided in division (D)(3) of this rule, all type shall be upper and lower case.

(2) Bold face type shall be used for the main heading immediately following the caption, and for the form number and repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page. In addition bold face type may be used for:

- (a) The caption;
- (b) Subheadings;
- (c) Directions enclosed in brackets;
- (d) Instructions or identification under a blank line, indicating what is to be inserted in the line or identifying the office or status of a signer;
- (e) Column headings;
- (f) Any matter not covered in division (D)(2)(a) to (e) of this rule, for which the use of bold face type is expressly indicated on a standard form in Sup. R. 51.

(3) The following shall be printed in all capital letters:

- (a) The first two lines of the caption;
- (b) The main heading immediately following the caption;
- (c) All subheadings;
- (d) The form number and repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page;
- (e) Any matter not covered in division (D)(3)(a) to (d) of this rule, for which the use of all capital letters is expressly indicated on a standard form in Sup. R. 51.

(E) Type sizes.

- (1) The following type sizes shall be used:
 - (a) Main headings immediately following the caption shall use sixteen-point or larger type;
 - (b) The first line of the caption, and all subheadings, shall use not smaller than twelve-point nor larger than sixteen-point type;
 - (c) The last two lines of the caption, the body, and the form number and repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page, shall use not smaller than eight-point nor larger than twelve-point type;

(d) Instructions or identification under a blank line, indicating what is to be inserted in the line or identifying the office or status of a signer, shall use not larger than eight-point type.

(2) Whatever type size is used with the limitations of division (E)(1) of this rule:

(a) The first line of the caption and all subheadings shall use type at least two points smaller than the main heading immediately following the caption;

(b) The last two lines of the caption, the body, and the form number and repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page, shall use type at least two points smaller than the subheadings;

(c) Instructions or identification under a blank line, indicating what is to be inserted in the line or identifying the office or status of a signer, shall use type at least two points smaller than the body.

(F) Vertical spacing.

(1) The vertical spacing on all forms shall be in units of one pica, to conform to standard typewriter vertical spacing.

(2) In order to permit optimum placement and promote visual appeal, the main heading and any subheading may be moved up or down within the available area without regard to the vertical spacing of the rest of the form, provided the rest of the form from head to foot maintains vertical spacing in units of one pica.

(G) Centering. The first line of the caption, the main heading, any explanatory information supplementing the main heading and appearing directly below it, subheadings, and the form number and repeat of the main heading at the foot of the first page of a form, shall be centered.

(H) Blank lines; length; vertical spacing in series.

(1) Blanks to be filled in shall be indicated by a printed solid line. Wherever possible, such lines shall be of sufficient length to accommodate comfortably all characters included in any word, phrase, name, date, or other information that might reasonably be expected to be placed in the blank. Spaces and punctuation shall be included in counting characters. It shall be assumed that six pica will accommodate ten characters in calculating the length of a line.

(2) Wherever possible, blank lines shall be a minimum length of:

(a) Eight pica, when the name of a county is to be inserted;

(b) Eighteen pica, when a date is to be inserted;

(c) Twenty pica, when a name or signature is to be inserted;

(d) Eight pica, not counting the dollar sign, when a dollar amount is to be inserted.

(3) One, or two or more blank lines may be used for the insertion of an address. Wherever possible, such lines shall be a minimum length of:

(a) Forty pica when a single line is used;

(b) Twenty pica per line when two or more lines are used.

(4) When a series of signature lines, lines for tabulating particular information, or other blank lines in vertical series are called for in a form, then except where expressly indicated on a standard form in Sup. R. 51, the vertical spacing between lines shall be two pica. This spacing shall be maintained without regard to instructions or identification printed below a line.

(I) Boxes to be checked.

(1) Where a form calls for a “check” or “X” to be inserted, a box shall be used for the purpose. The box shall precede the information to which it refers.

(2) When a series of “checks” or “X’s” are called for in the same sentence or paragraph, each box and the information to which it refers shall be set apart visually from the preceding and following information in the same sentence or paragraph. Any device that provides visual separation and minimizes possible confusion may be used, including without limitation space-hyphen-space or a double or triple space, as in the following example:

“[check one of the following] - - []Decedent’s will has been admitted to probate in this court - []To applicant’s knowledge decedent did not leave a will.”

(J) Caption.

(1) Except as provided in division (J)(3) of this rule, the following captions shall be used, respectively, on all forms for the administration of decedents’ estates, guardianships, and adoptions:

PROBATE COURT OF _____ COUNTY, OHIO

ESTATE OF _____ DECEASED

CASE NO. _____;

PROBATE COURT OF _____ COUNTY, OHIO

GUARDIANSHIP OF _____

CASE NO. _____;

PROBATE COURT OF _____ COUNTY, OHIO

ADOPTION OF _____
(Name after adoption)

CASE NO. _____.

(2) The first line of the caption shall be centered. The second and third lines shall begin at the left margin and end at the right margin. The vertical space between the first and second lines may be two or three pica. The vertical space between the second and third lines shall be two pica.

(3) The following variations from the caption prescribed in division (J)(1) and (2) of this rule are permitted:

(a) The blank line in the first line of the caption may be replaced by the imprinted name of a particular county.

(b) The caption may be expanded to include the address of a particular court, using type of any suitable size. In such case, the blank lines intended for the court's address in the body of any form and introductory material for the address such as, "the court is located at _____," shall be omitted.

(c) In Standard Decedents' Estates Form 5.5, and in any other decedents' estates form dealing with two or more estates, the last two lines of the caption shall be omitted.

(K) Form number and repeat of main heading.

(2) The form number and repeat of the main heading shall be centered, and located not higher than three-eighths inch above the bottom edge of the form.

(L) Printing front and back. When a standard probate form consists of more than one page, each page shall contain the case number in the upper portion of the page.

(M) Standard forms to govern; variations.

(1) Matters not specifically covered in this rule are governed by the standard forms prescribed in Sup. R. 51. Overall, the format of all printed blank forms, whether standard or nonstandard, shall conform substantially to the standard forms. Except as provided in division (M)(2) of this rule, no additions to, deletions from, or changes in the form, content, or language of the standard forms are permitted when printing blank standard forms.

(2) The following variations from the standard forms in Sup. R. 51 are permitted:

(a) In any form calling for a court's address, the blank lines intended for the insertion of such information may be replaced by the imprinted information itself. If the court's address is imprinted in the caption, the blank lines in the body of the form for the address and introductory material for the address shall be omitted as provided in division (J)(3) of this rule.

(b) The name as well as the title of the probate judge may be imprinted below a judge's signature line on any form.

(c) In any form calling for the attorney's typed or printed name, address, telephone number, and attorney identification number, the blank lines intended for the insertion of that information may be replaced by the imprinted information itself. The signature line for the attorney shall be retained.

(d) In Standard Decedents' Estates Form 4.2, the portion of the form below the date line and principal's signature line, and above the repeat at the foot of the page, may be replaced by the imprinted name and address of a corporate surety, identified in some appropriate manner as the surety on the particular bond, and including a signature line for the attorney in fact. The last paragraph of the body of the form, relating to justification of personal sureties, shall be omitted.

(e) When standard forms are generated by computer, they shall conform to all specifications for standard forms stated in this rule. A court may accept for filing nonstandard computer generated forms for the receipts and disbursements attached to a standard account form or the schedule of assets attached to a standard inventory and appraisal form.

(f) All forms may include suitable coding for optical or magnetic scanning, or similar system designed to aid docketing, indexing, cost accounting, or other administrative or clerical activities.

(g) On all forms, the publisher may add its name, logotype, or other suitable identification. The size, style, and placement shall be such as not to detract from, interfere with, or overpower any part of the form.

(h) Wherever a form contains "19__" or "199__", a blank line shall be substituted to accommodate the correct year.

(N) Effective date.

(1) This rule takes effect July 1, 1977.

(2) On and after January 1, 1978, any pleading, application, entry, waiver, notice, or other filing, prepared using a blank form to which this rule applies, shall not be accepted for filing by the probate division of a court of common pleas of this state unless such blank form complies with the specifications in this rule.

(3) The amendment to division M(2)(h) shall take effect on November 16, 1999.

Commentary (November 16, 1999)

This amendment permits the change of preprinted dates on existing standard probate forms.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is unchanged substantively from former C.P. Sup. R. 17.

RULE 53. Hours of the Court.

Each court shall establish hours for the transaction of business.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is unchanged from former C.P. Sup. R. 18.

RULE 54. Conduct in the Court.

(A) Proper decorum in the court is necessary to the administration of the court's function. Any conduct that interferes or tends to interfere with the proper administration of the court's business is prohibited.

(B) No radio or television transmission, voice recording device, other than a device used by a court reporter making a record in a proceeding, or the making or taking of pictures shall be permitted without the express consent of the court in advance and pursuant to Sup. R. 12.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 19.

RULE 55. Examination of Probate Records.

(A) Records shall not be removed from the court, except when approved by the judge. Violation of this rule may result in the issuance of a citation for contempt.

(B) Copies of records may be obtained at a cost per page as authorized by the judge.

(C) Adoption, mental illness, and mental retardation proceedings are confidential. Records of those proceedings, and other records that are confidential by statute, may be accessed as authorized by the judge.

(D) A citation for contempt of court may be issued against anyone who divulges or receives information from confidential records without authorization of the judge.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 20 and summarizes local practice and current law. In general, see R.C. 2101.11(A)(1), 2101.12, 2101.13, 3107.17, 5122.31, 5122.34.

Sup. R. 55 has been amended to make the rule grammatically correct and to make the rule applicable to all confidential records as opposed to specific enumerated confidential records.

RULE 56. Continuances.

(A) Motions for continuance shall be submitted in writing with the proper caption and case number.

(B) Except on motion of the court, no continuance shall be granted in the absence of proof of reasonable notice to, or consent by, the adverse party or the party's counsel. Failure to object to the continuance within a reasonable time after receiving notice shall be considered consent to the continuance.

(C) A proposed entry shall be filed with a motion for continuance, leaving the time and date blank for the court to set a new date.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

Sup. R. 56 is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 23 and is the basic continuance rule within Sup. R. 50 through Sup. R. 78.

Sup. R. 56 has been amended to be gender neutral and to require a "proposed" entry as opposed to a "judgment" entry to be submitted to the court with all motions for a continuance.

RULE 57. Filings and Judgment Entries.

(A) All filings, except wills, shall be on eight and one-half by eleven inch paper, without backings, of stock that can be microfilmed.

(B) All filings shall contain the name, address, telephone number, and attorney registration number of the individual counsel representing the fiduciary and, in the absence of counsel, the name, address, and telephone number of the fiduciary. Any filing not containing the above requirements may be refused.

(C) Failure of the fiduciary to notify the court of the fiduciary's current address shall be grounds for removal. Not less than ten days written notice of the hearing to remove shall be given to the fiduciary by regular mail at the last address contained in the case file or by other method of service as the court may direct.

(D) Filings containing partially or wholly illegible signatures of counsel, parties or officers administering oaths may be refused, or, if filed, may be stricken, unless the typewritten or printed name of the person whose signature is purported to appear is clearly indicated on the filing.

(E) All pleadings, motions, or other filings are to be typed or printed in ink and correctly captioned.

(F) Unless the court otherwise directs, counsel for the party in whose favor a judgment is rendered, shall prepare the proposed judgment entry and submit the original to the court with a copy to counsel for the opposing party. The proposed judgment entry shall be submitted within seven days after the judgment is rendered. Counsel for the opposing party shall have seven days to object to the court. If the party in whose favor a judgment is rendered fails to comply with this division, the matter may be dismissed or the court may prepare and file the appropriate entry.

(G) When a pleading, motion, judgment entry or other filing consists of more than one page, each page shall contain the case number in the upper portion of the page.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

Sup. R. 57 is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 24.

Sup. R. 57(A) is unchanged.

Sup. R. 57(B) has been amended to require the attorney's Supreme Court Registration Number on all filings in addition to the name, address and telephone number of the attorney.

Sup. R. 57 (B) and (D) have been amended to substitute the term "filings" for "papers" as being more descriptive of the documents received by the court.

Sup. R. 57(C) has been amended to provide for removal of a fiduciary who fails to keep the court apprised of a current address. Sup. R. 57(C) has also been amended to reflect the notice requirements of R.C. 2109.24 requiring ten days notice upon the removal of the fiduciary. Sup. R. 57(C) has been amended to allow for service of notice to be by regular mail at the fiduciary's last known address instead of pursuant to Civil Rule

73(E). The amendment is to expedite the removal of dilatory fiduciaries and to timely complete the administration of estates by avoiding the eventual requirement of publication pursuant to Civil Rule 73(E)(6) and the requirement for certified mail notice when such notice is being given by the court.

See, generally R.C. 2109.02, 2109.06, 2109.18, 2109.19, 2109.24, 2109.31, 2109.53.

Sup. R. 57(E) has been amended to reflect recent case law that has noted a distinction between motions, pleadings and filings. The rule now requires all filings to be in ink.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 24(F) and (G) have been combined into new Sup. R. 57(F) since both matters were interrelated. There were no substantive changes made.

RULE 58. Deposit for Court Costs.

(A) Deposits in the amount set forth in a local rule shall be required upon the filing of any action or proceeding and additional deposits may be required.

(B) The deposit may be applied as filings occur.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

Sup. R. 58 summarizes local practice and is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 25.

The reference to R.C. 2101.16 has been deleted as unnecessary in that the statute delegates the amount of the deposit to local rule.

RULE 59. Wills.

(A) Before an application is made to admit the will to probate, to appoint an estate fiduciary, or to relieve an estate from administration, each applicant or the applicant's attorney shall examine the index of wills deposited pursuant to section 2107.07 of the Revised Code. Wills deposited pursuant to section 2107.07 of the Revised Code previous to the will offered for probate shall be filed in the estate proceedings for record purposes only.

(B) Fiduciaries appointed to administer testate estates shall file a Certificate of Service of Notice of Probate of Will (Standard Probate Form 2.4) within two months of their appointment or be subject to removal proceedings. If required by the court, proof of service shall consist of either waivers of notice of the probate of will or certified mail return receipt cards as provided under Civil Rule 73(E)(3), or if necessary, under Civil Rule 73(E)(4) and (5). A waiver of notice may not be signed by any minor, or on behalf of a minor sixteen or seventeen years of age. See Civil Rule 4.2.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule substantially revises former C.P. Sup. R. 26. The title of Sup. R. 59 has been amended because the subject matter of the rule is more inclusive.

The provisions of former C.P. Sup. R. 26(A) and (D) have been deleted to reflect the repeal of R.C. 2107.13 and 2107.14 and reflect the revised method of admitting a will to probate effective May 31, 1990.

Sup. R. 59(A) has been amended to reflect wills in safekeeping pursuant to R.C. 2107.07. Sup. R. 59(A) imposes a duty upon the applicant or his or her attorney to ascertain before applying to administer an estate if a will is in safekeeping. The purpose of this division is to: (1) make certain that an estate is not administered intestate when a will in safekeeping does exist, (2) make certain the decedent's last will and testament has been offered for probate, and (3) remove all prior wills of a decedent from safekeeping.

Sup. R. 59(B) is amended to require a timely filing of the "Certificate of Service of Notice of Probate of Will" so that the will contest period will expire prior to the time for the filing of the account. The amended rule also confirms that waivers of notice of probate of wills shall conform to Civil Rule 4(D).

Former C.P. Sup. R. 26(C) has been entirely deleted. The requirement of R.C. 109.26 and 109.29 are adequately provided for in Standard Probate Form 2.0.

RULE 60. Application for Letters of Authority to Administer Estate and Notice of Appointment.

(A) Notice of an application for appointment of administrator shall be served at least seven days prior to the date set for hearing. If there is no known surviving spouse or next of kin resident of the state, the notice shall be served upon persons designated by the court.

(B) The administrator shall give notice of the appointment within seven days after the appointment to all persons entitled to inherit, including persons entitled to an allowance for support, unless those persons have been provided notice of the hearing on the appointment or have waived notice.

(C) The probate court shall serve by certified mail the spousal citation and summary of rights required by R.C. 2106.02 to the surviving spouse within 7 days of the initial appointment of the administrator or executor, unless a different time is established by local court rule.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 27. The title to Sup. R. 60 has been amended to be more descriptive of the rule's requirements.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 27(A) and (B) have been joined and incorporated under amended Sup. R. 60(A). Any language changes were merely grammatical and not substantive.

Amended Sup. R. 60(B) is a new division that deals with notice of the appointment of a fiduciary. Sup. R. 60(B) reflects local practice requiring that notice of the appointment be given to all persons interested in the decedent's estate, so that they may properly monitor their particular interests.

RULE 61. Appraisers.

(A) Without special application to the court, a fiduciary may allow to the appraiser as compensation for services a reasonable amount agreed upon between the fiduciary and the appraiser, provided the compensation does not exceed the amount allowed by local court rule. If no local court rule exists, the compensation shall be subject to court approval.

(B) If, by reason of the special and unusual character of the property to be appraised, the fiduciary is of the opinion that the appraisal requires the services of persons qualified in the evaluation of that property, a qualified appraiser may be appointed and allowed compensation as provided in division (A) of this rule.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 28. The title to Sup. R. 61 has been amended to be more inclusive and applies to appraisers in all probate matters. The term "appointment" in the title has been deleted since the rule no longer deals with this issue.

Former law required three disinterested appraisers. Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(A) was intended to clarify the transition from three appraisers to one appraiser. The rule is no longer needed and has been deleted.

Former divisions (B), (C), (D), and (F) attempted to set guidelines for appraiser fees when the court did not set forth a local rule. Division (A) now permits the compensation to be set by agreement of the fiduciary and appraiser unless set by local rule. All disputes shall be settled by the probate court.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(A), (B), (C), (D), and (F) are unnecessary since the appraiser's compensation is adequately addressed by R.C. 2115.06.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(E) has been redesignated as Sup. R. 61(B) without substantive changes.

RULE 62. Claims Against Estate.

(A) When a claim has been filed with the court pursuant to section 2117.06 of the Revised Code, the fiduciary shall file a copy of any rejection of the claim with the court.

(B) If the court requires a hearing on claims or the fiduciary requests a hearing on claims or insolvency, the fiduciary shall file a schedule of all claims against the estate with the court. The schedule of claims shall be filed with the fiduciary's application for hearing or within ten days after the court notifies the fiduciary of a court-initiated hearing.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

The rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 30. The title of Sup. R. 62 has been amended to be more inclusive and descriptive. R.C. 2117.06 neither limits nor requires that claims be filed with the court. Filing with the court is merely one alternative pursuant to R.C. 2117.06(A)(2).

The last sentence of former C.P. Sup. R. 30(A) has been deleted because the issue is adequately addressed by R.C. 2117.06(I).

The statutory reference in Sup. R. 62(B) has been deleted as limiting the former rule. Insolvency hearings have been added to the requirement of Sup. R. 62(B). There is no statutory provisions regarding advising the court of the specific claims in an insolvent estate. The court requires this information and the rule supplements this void.

RULE 63. Application to Sell Personalty.

An application to sell personal property shall include an adequate description of the property. Except for good cause shown, an order of sale shall not be granted prior to the filing of the inventory.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 31. Sup. R. 63 has been amended to delete requirements that are currently required by statute. See, R.C. 2109.45.

The first and last sentences of former C.P. Sup. R. 31 have been deleted as they duplicate the requirements of the statute. The second sentence has been amended to permit an order of sale to issue upon the filing of the inventory as opposed to the previous version, which permitted the order to be granted upon the approval of the inventory. This would expedite the administration by permitting the order to be granted at an earlier date.

RULE 64. Accounts.

(A) The vouchers or other proofs required by section 2109.302 and 2109.303 of the Revised Code and receipts filed or exhibited pursuant to section 2109.32(B)(1)(b) of the Revised Code, shall be referenced to the account by number, letter, or date.

(B) If land has been sold during the accounting period, the account shall show the gross amount of the proceeds and include a copy of the closing statement itemizing all of the disbursements.

(C) Receipts for distributive shares signed by persons holding power of attorney may be accepted, provided the power of attorney is recorded in the county in which the estate is being administered and a copy of the recorded power is attached to the account.

(D) Exhibiting assets.

(1) The court may require that all assets be exhibited at the time of filing a partial account.

(2) Cash balances may be verified by exhibiting a financial institution statement, passbook, or a current letter from the financial institution in which the funds are deposited certifying the amount of funds on deposit to the credit of the fiduciary. Assets held in a safe deposit box of a fiduciary or by a surety company on fiduciary's bond may be exhibited by filing a current inventory of the assets. The inventory shall be certified by the manager of the safe deposit box department of the financial institution leasing the safe deposit box or by a qualified officer of the surety company if the assets are held by a surety. If the assets are held by a bank, trust company, brokerage firm, or other financial institution, exhibition may be made by proper certification as to the assets so held. For good cause shown, the court may designate a deputy clerk of the court to make an examination of the assets located in the county, not physically exhibited to the court or may appoint a commissioner for that purpose if the assets are located outside the county. The commissioner appointed shall make a written report of findings to the court.

(E) A final or distributive account shall not be approved until all court costs have been paid.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule revises former C.P. Sup. R. 32.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(A) and (B) have been deleted. This subject matter is more appropriately addressed in proposed Sup. R. 78, the case management rule.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(C) has been changed grammatically and relettered as division (A). The substance has remained the same in that it requires the vouchers to be cross referenced to the account entries. Former divisions (A)(1) to (4) have been deleted in that they describe the parameters of the probate forms created under Sup. R. 52(D) and are therefore superfluous.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(D) has been relettered as division (B). The rule has been amended to require a closing statement to be submitted in lieu of the reporting requirements under the former rule.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(E) has been deleted to reflect local practice where each guardianship of a minor's estate is administered in a separate case file and a separate corresponding case number.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(F) has been relettered as division (C) and amended to require that when a power of attorney is used for the receipt of assets, the instrument must be recorded in the county of the court accepting the account. The previous rule required the instrument to be recorded in the State of Ohio.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(G) has been relettered as division (D). The term "safety deposit box" has been amended to "safe deposit box" to parallel Revised Code references. The term "financial institution" has been substituted for "bank" in order to be consistent with the terminology of Title XI of the Revised Code and to be more inclusive.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 32(H) has been relettered as division (E), and no amendments or language changes have been made.

Commentary (April 8, 2004)

This Rule Amendment is necessary because of the adoption of Sub. H.B. 85, effective October 31, 2001.

RULE 65. Land Sales - R.C. Chapter 2127.

(A) In all land sale proceedings, the plaintiff, prior to the issuance of an order finding the sale necessary, shall file with the court evidence of title showing the record condition of the title to the premises described in the complaint and prepared by a title company licensed by the state of Ohio, an attorney's certificate, or other evidence of title satisfactory to the court. Evidence of title shall be to a date subsequent to the date on which the complaint was filed.

(B) The plaintiff shall give notice of the time and place of sale by regular mail at least three weeks prior to the date of a public sale to all defendants at their last known addresses. Prior to the public sale, the plaintiff shall file a certificate stating that the required notice was given to the defendants and the sale was advertised pursuant to section 2127.32 of the Revised Code.

(C) In all private land sale proceedings by civil action, the judgment entry confirming sale, ordering issuance of deed, and ordering distribution shall show the gross amount of the proceeds and include a copy of the proposed closing statement itemizing all of the proposed disbursements.

(D) The court may appoint a disinterested person, answerable to the court, who shall investigate the circumstances surrounding the proposed transaction, view the property, ascertain whether the proposed sale is justified and report findings in writing. The report shall be a part of the record. The compensation for the person performing these services shall be fixed by the court, according to the circumstances of each case, and shall be taxed as costs.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 33 and has been amended to be inclusive and to apply to all land sale proceedings. Former C.P. Sup. R. 33(A) only applied to public land sale, and not private land sale proceedings. The rule has been amended to require that evidence of title prepared by a title company must be prepared by a title company that is licensed in the State of Ohio.

Former C.P. Sup R. 33(B) has been amended to delete the requirement of giving notice by posting the notice of sale upon the premises. This appeared unnecessary since actual notice of the sale must be given to all defendants, and R.C. 2127.32 requires notice by publication to the general public.

Reference to the filing of an affidavit has been amended to refer to a "certificate," to reflect Civil Rule 73(H), which does not require certificates and pleadings to be under oath. An affidavit, by definition, is under oath. The content of the "certificate" has been amended to comply with the amended notice requirements of division (B).

Former C.P. Sup. R. 33(C) has been deleted in that the requirements are unnecessary and adequately covered by R.C. 2127.23 and 2127.35.

Amended division (C) requires that a proposed closing statement be attached to the order of confirmation of sale issued pursuant to R.C. 2127.35. The inclusion of the proposed closing statement provides the court with the details of the costs associated with the land sale proceedings.

Division (D) has been amended in order to be made gender neutral. No substantive changes have been made.

RULE 66. Guardianships.

(A) All applications for the appointment of a guardian on the grounds of mental incompetency shall be accompanied by either a statement of a physician or clinical psychologist or a statement that the prospective ward has refused to submit to an examination.

(B) An Application for Authority to Expend Funds (Standard Probate Form 15.7) shall not be approved until an Inventory (Standard Probate Form 15.5) has been filed.

(C) An application for allowance of care and support of a minor shall allege, if such is the fact, that the parents are financially unable to provide the items for which the amount is sought.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 34, and the title has been amended to be more inclusive in that the rule does not only apply to the guardian but also to all issues affecting the guardianship.

Division (A) has been deleted in that it described the parameters of the probate forms created under Sup. R. 51(D) and is therefore superfluous.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 34(B) has been relettered as division (A). The rule required the submission of a statement of a physician upon the filing of an application for guardianship or an application for dismissal of a guardianship or a declaration of competency. The rule has been amended to permit a clinical psychologist to complete the expert evaluation. This amendment recognizes that a psychologist's report is often more thorough than that of the physician and recognizes that the psychologist may complete the expert evaluation for the biennial report. The rule has not been expanded to permit the initial evaluation to be completed by a licensed clinical social worker.

The requirement for an expert evaluation for the dismissal or termination of a guardianship has been deleted due to statutory changes under R.C. 2111.49(C).

Former C.P. Sup. R. 34(C) has been deleted and incorporated in part in amended division (B), which continues the requirement to file an inventory prior to the authorization of any expenditure required in former C.P. Sup. R. 34(C).

Former C.P. Sup. R. 34(D) has been relettered as division (C). Division (C) has been amended to delete the term "parent-guardian" from the rule and to allow the application to be filed by the appointed guardian, who is not in all cases also the parent of the minor ward. With an application to expend funds for support of a minor ward, the rule formerly required a parent-guardian to state whether the parents had the ability to provide the support. The amendment expands the rule to require any guardian to state whether the parents can provide the support when requesting expenditure of the ward's funds for support.

RULE 66.01. Definitions.

As used in Sup.R. 66.01 through 66.09:

(A) Best interest

“Best interest” means the course of action that maximizes what is best for a ward, including consideration of the least intrusive, most normalizing, and least restrictive course of action possible given the needs of the ward.

(B) Direct services

“Direct services” means services typically provided by home and community-based care and institutionally-based care providers, including medical and nursing care, care or case management services, care coordination, speech therapy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, psychological services, counseling, residential, legal representation, job training, and any other similar services. The term “direct services” does not include services of a guardian.

(C) Guardian

“Guardian” has the same meaning as in R.C. 2111.01(A).

(D) Ward

“Ward” means any adult person found by the probate division of a court of common pleas to be incompetent and for whom a guardianship is established.

(E) Guardianship services

RULE 66.02. Application of Rules.

(A) General

Sup.R. 66.01 through 66.09 shall apply in an adult guardianship case where the probate division of a court of common pleas appoints a guardian to protect and control a ward pursuant to R.C. 2111.02, provided the appointing court for good cause may, by order of the court, exempt a guardian who is related to the ward by consanguinity or affinity.

(B) Corporation as guardian

Sup.R. 66.01 through 66.09 shall apply to the employees of a corporation who provide guardianship services in an adult guardianship case where the probate division of a court of common pleas appoints the corporation as guardian.

The probate division of a court of common pleas that establishes guardianships shall adopt local rules governing the establishment of guardianships that do all of the following:

- (A) Establish a process for emergency guardianships;
- (B) Establish a process for submitting in electronic format or hard copy comments and complaints regarding the performance of guardians appointed by the court and for considering such comments and complaints. The process shall include each of the following:
 - (1) The designation of a person for accepting and considering comments and complaints;
 - (2) A requirement that a copy of the submitted comment or complaint be provided to the guardian who is the subject of the comment or complaint;
 - (3) A requirement that the court give prompt consideration to the comment or complaint and take appropriate action;
 - (4) A requirement that the court maintain a record regarding the nature and disposition of the comment or complaint;
 - (5) A requirement that the court notify the person making the comment or complaint and the guardian of the disposition of the comment or complaint.
- (C) Addresses other provisions as the court considers necessary and appropriate, including but not limited to indicating where filed comments and complaints will be kept.

RULE 66.04. Establishment of Guardianship.

(A) Scope of guardianship

When establishing a guardianship, the probate division of a court of common pleas shall consider a limited guardianship before establishing a plenary guardianship.

(B) County of residence

The last county of residence in Ohio in which a ward resided prior to losing the cognitive ability to choose shall be the ward's county of residence for purposes of establishing a guardianship, unless determined otherwise by the probate division of the court of common pleas establishing the guardianship.

(C) Guardianship of estate

The probate division of a court of common pleas may waive establishing or continuing the guardianship of the estate of a ward if the assets and principal income of the ward do not support a guardianship of the estate.

(D) Restrictions on direct service providers

The probate division of a court of common pleas shall not issue letters of guardianship to any direct service provider to serve as a guardian for a ward for whom the provider provides direct services, unless otherwise authorized by law.

RULE 66.05. Responsibilities of Court Establishing Guardianships.

(A) General responsibilities

The probate division of a court of common pleas that establishes a guardianship shall do both of the following:

- (1) Conduct, or cause to be conducted, a criminal background check. If the applicant to serve as a guardian is an attorney, the court may accept a certificate of good standing with disciplinary information issued by the Supreme Court in place of a criminal background check.
- (2) Require each guardian appointed by the court to submit to the court information documenting compliance with the guardian qualifications pursuant to Sup.R. 66.06 or 66.07, as applicable.

(B) Responsibilities regarding guardians with ten or more wards

The probate division of a court of common pleas shall do all of the following with respect to guardians with ten or more wards under the guardian's care:

- (1) Maintain a roster, including the name, address, telephone number, and electronic mail address, of the guardians. The court shall require the guardians to notify the court of any changes to this information.
- (2) Require the guardians to include in the guardian's report a certification stating that the guardian is unaware of any circumstances that may disqualify the guardian from serving as a guardian;
- (3) Require the guardians to submit to the court an annual fee schedule that differentiates guardianship services fees, as established pursuant to local rule, from legal or other direct services;
- (4) On or before March 1st of each year, review the roster of guardians to determine if the guardians are in compliance with the education requirements of Sup.R. 66.06 or 66.07, as applicable, and that the guardians are otherwise qualified to serve.

RULE 66.06. Guardian Pre-Appointment Education.

(A) Requirement

Except as provided in division (B) of this rule, the probate division of a court of common pleas shall not appoint an individual as a guardian unless, at the time of appointment or within six months thereafter, the individual has successfully completed, at a minimum, a six-hour guardian fundamentals course provided by the Supreme Court or, with the prior approval of the appointing court, another entity. The fundamentals course shall include, at a minimum, education on the following topics:

- (1) Establishing the guardianship;
- (2) The ongoing duties and responsibilities of a guardian;
- (3) Record keeping and reporting duties of a guardian;
- (4) Any other topic that concerns improving the quality of the life of a ward.

(B) Exception

An individual serving as a guardian on June 1, 2015, or who served as a guardian during the five years immediately preceding that date shall have until June 1, 2016, to complete the training required under division (A) of this rule unless the appointing court waives or extends the requirement for good cause.

RULE 66.07. Guardian Continuing Education.

(A) Requirement

In each succeeding year following completion of the requirement of Sup.R. 66.06, a guardian appointed by the probate division of a court of common pleas shall successfully complete a continuing education course that meets all of the following requirements:

- (1) Is at least three hours in length;
- (2) Is provided by the Supreme Court or, with the prior approval of the appointing court, another entity;
- (3) Is specifically designed for continuing education needs of guardians and consists of advanced education relating to the topics listed in Sup.R. 66.06(A)(1) through (4).

(B) Annual compliance

On or before January 1st of each year, a guardian shall report to each probate division of a court of common pleas from which the guardian receives appointments information documenting compliance with the continuing education requirement pursuant to division (A) of this rule, including the title, date, location, and provider of the education or a certificate of completion.

(C) Failure to comply

If a guardian fails to comply with the continuing education requirement of division (A) of this rule, the guardian shall not be eligible for new appointments to serve as a guardian until the requirement is satisfied. If the deficiency in continuing education is more than three calendar years, the guardian shall complete, at a minimum, a six-hour fundamentals course pursuant to Sup.R. 66.06(A) to qualify again to serve as a guardian.

RULE 66.08. General Responsibilities of Guardian.

(A) Orders, rules, and laws

A guardian shall obey all orders of the probate division of a court of common pleas establishing the guardianship and shall perform duties in accordance with local rules and state and federal law governing guardianships.

(B) Pre-appointment meeting

Unless otherwise determined by the probate division of a court of common pleas, an applicant guardian shall meet with a proposed ward at least once prior to appearing before the court for a guardianship appointment.

(C) Reporting abuse, neglect, or exploitation

A guardian shall immediately report to the probate division of a court of common pleas and, when applicable, to adult protective services any appropriate allegations of abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a ward.

(D) Limitation or termination of guardianship

A guardian shall seek to limit or terminate the guardianship authority and promptly notify the probate division of a court of common pleas if any of the following occurs:

- (1) A ward's ability to make decisions and function independently has improved;
- (2) Less restrictive alternatives are available;
- (3) A plenary guardianship is no longer in the best interest of a ward;
- (4) A ward has died.

(E) Change of residence

(1) A guardian shall notify the probate division of a court of common pleas of a ward's change of residence and the reason for the change. Except if impracticable, the guardian shall notify the court no later than ten days prior to the proposed change.

(2) A ward's change of residence to a more restrictive setting in or outside of the county of the guardian's appointment shall be subject to the court's approval, unless a delay in authorizing the change of residence would affect the health and safety of the ward.

(F) Court approval of legal proceedings

A guardian shall seek approval from the probate division of a court of common pleas before filing a suit for the ward.

(G) Annual plan

A guardian of a person shall file annually with the probate division of the court of common pleas a guardianship plan as an addendum to the guardian's report. A guardian of an estate may be required to file an annual guardianship plan with the probate division of the court of common pleas. The guardianship plan shall state the guardian's goals for meeting the ward's personal and financial needs.

(H) Annual registration

All guardians appointed by the court who have ten or more wards under their care shall annually register with the probate division of the court of common pleas and provide such information as the court may require, including but not limited to a fee schedule that differentiates guardianship services from legal or other direct services.

(I) Ward's principal income

A guardian shall inform the probate division of the court of common pleas and apply to close the guardianship of the estate if the principal income of the ward is from governmental entities, a payee for that income is identified, and no other significant assets or income exist.

(J) Limits on guardian's compensation

(1) A guardian's compensation is subject to Sup.R. 73.

(2) A guardian who is in receipt of fees other than through the guardianship of the estate shall report to the probate division of the court of common pleas the source and entity which reviewed and authorized payment.

(3) A guardian shall not receive incentives or compensation from any direct service provider providing services to a ward.

(K) Conflict of interest

A guardian shall avoid actual or apparent conflicts of interest regarding a ward's personal or business affairs. A guardian shall report to the probate division of the court of common pleas all actual or apparent conflicts of interest for review and determination as to whether a waiver of the conflict of interest is in the best interest of the ward.

(L) Filing of ward's legal papers

In addition to filing an inventory, if applicable, pursuant to R.C. 2111.14(A)(1) and within three months after the guardian's appointment, a guardian shall file with the probate division of the court of common pleas a list of all of the ward's important legal papers, including but not limited to estate planning documents, advance directives, and powers of attorney, and the location of such legal papers, if known at the time of the filing.

RULE 66.09. Responsibilities of Guardian to Ward.

(A) Professionalism, character, and integrity

A guardian shall act in a manner above reproach, including but not limited to avoiding financial exploitation, sexual exploitation, and any other activity that is not in the best interest of the ward.

(B) Exercising due diligence

A guardian shall exercise due diligence in making decisions that are in the best interest of a ward, including but not limited to communicating with the ward and being fully informed about the implications of the decisions.

(C) Least restrictive alternative

Unless otherwise approved by the probate division of a court of common pleas, a guardian shall make a choice or decision for a ward that best meets the needs of the ward while imposing the least limitations on the ward's rights, freedom, or ability to control the ward's environment. To determine the least restrictive alternative, a guardian may seek and consider an independent assessment of the ward's functional ability, health status, and care needs.

(D) Person-centered planning

A guardian shall advocate for services focused on a ward's wishes and needs to reach the ward's full potential. A guardian shall strive to balance a ward's maximum independence and self-reliance with the ward's best interest.

(E) Ward's support system

A guardian shall strive to foster and preserve positive relationships in the ward's life unless such relationships are substantially harmful to the ward. A guardian shall be prepared to explain the reasons a particular relationship is severed and not in the ward's best interest.

(F) Communication with ward

(1) A guardian shall strive to know a ward's preferences and belief system by seeking information from the ward and the ward's family and friends.

(2) A guardian shall do all of the following:

(a) Meet with the ward as needed, but not less than once quarterly or as determined by the probate division of the court of common pleas;

(b) Communicate privately with the ward;

- (c) Assess the ward's physical and mental conditions and limitations;
- (d) Assess the appropriateness of the ward's current living arrangements;
- (e) Assess the needs for additional services;
- (f) Notify the court if the ward's level of care is not being met;
- (g) Document all complaints made by a ward and assess the need to report the complaints to the court of common pleas.

(G) Direct services

Except as provided in Sup.R. 66.04(D), a guardian shall not provide any direct services to a ward, unless otherwise approved by the court.

(H) Monitor and coordinate services and benefits

A guardian shall monitor and coordinate all services and benefits provided to a ward, including doing all of the following as necessary to perform those duties:

- (1) Having regular contact with all service providers;
- (2) Assessing services to determine they are appropriate and continue to be in the ward's best interest;
- (3) Maintaining eligibility for all benefits;
- (4) Where the guardian of the person and guardian of the estate are different individuals, consulting regularly with each other.

(I) Extraordinary medical issues

(1) A guardian shall seek ethical, legal, and medical advice, as appropriate, to facilitate decisions involving extraordinary medical issues.

(2) A guardian shall strive to honor the ward's preferences and belief system concerning extraordinary medical issues.

(J) End of life decisions

A guardian shall make every effort to be informed about the ward's preferences and belief system in making end of life decisions on behalf of the ward.

(K) Caseload

A guardian shall appropriately manage the guardian's caseload to ensure the guardian is adequately supporting and providing for the best interest of the wards in the guardian's care.

(L) Duty of confidentiality

A guardian shall keep the ward's personal and financial information confidential, except when disclosure is in the best interest of the ward or upon order of the probate division of a court of common pleas.

RULE 67. Estates of Minors of Not More Than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

(A) Each application relating to a minor shall be submitted by the parent or parents or by the person having custody of the minor and shall be captioned in the name of the minor.

(B) Each application shall indicate the amount of money or property to which the minor is entitled and to whom such money or property shall be paid or delivered. Unless the court otherwise orders, if no guardian has been appointed for either the receipt of an estate of a minor or the receipt of a settlement for injury to a minor, the attorney representing the interests of the minor shall prepare an entry that orders all of the following:

- (1) The deposit of the funds in a financial institution in the name of the minor;
- (2) Impounding the principal and interest;
- (3) Releasing the funds only upon an order of the court or to the minor at the age of majority.

(C) The entry shall be presented at the time the entry dispensing with appointment of a guardian or approving settlement is approved. The attorney shall be responsible for depositing the funds and for providing the financial institution with a copy of the entry. The attorney shall obtain a Verification of Receipt and Deposit (Standard Probate Form 22.3) from the financial institution and file the form with the court within seven days from the issuance of the entry.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 35. The title of the rule has been amended to include only the estates of minor wards, since the substantive rules even under former C.P. Sup. R. 35 only spoke of minors. The amended title is more descriptive of the subject matter covered by the rule.

Division (A) has been amended to delete any reference to one application being permitted to be filed on behalf of all minors of the same parent. This amendment is to reflect local practice whereby a separate application and corresponding case number is required for each minor ward. The rationale for the amendment is that the amount of funds received and the dates of majority are rarely the same for each ward. The remainder of the amendments to this division are grammatical and not substantive.

Divisions (B) and (C) set forth the requirements of the judgment entry counsel presents to the court for estates of minors less than $10,000. The words "unless the court otherwise orders" has been added in division (B) to alert counsel to the fact that specific circumstances or local court rule may alter these requirements. In addition, the former version of the rule required the attorney to deposit all funds within seven days of the approval of the entry and to obtain a receipt from the financial institution. As amended the rule requires the receipt to be filed with the court within seven days of the issuance of the entry and references the uniform form number of the receipt. The term "bank" has been changed to "financial institution" to reflect the term utilized in Title XI of the Revised Code and to recognize that funds are invested in institutions other than banks.

Commentary (June 6, 2017)

The rule has been amended to reflect Sub.S.B. 106 of the 128th General Assembly, which amended R.C. 2111.18 to increase from $10,000 or less to $25,000 or less the amount of an estate of a ward that the court may terminate upon application by the guardian, for which the court may distribute the estate assets without a guardianship, and for which the court may authorize the settlement of claims of minors or adult incompetents without the appointment of a guardian.

RULE 68. Settlement of Injury Claims of Minors.

(A) An application for settlement of a minor's claim shall be brought by the guardian of the estate. If there is no guardian appointed and the court dispenses with the need for a guardian, the application shall be brought by the parents of the child or the parent or other individual having custody of the child. The noncustodial parent or parents shall be entitled to seven days notice of the application to settle the minor's claim which notice may be waived. The application shall be captioned in the name of the minor.

(B) The application shall be accompanied by a current statement of an examining physician in respect to the injuries sustained, the extent of recovery, and the permanency of any injuries. The application shall state what additional consideration, if any, is being paid to persons other than the minor as a result of the incident causing the injury to the minor. The application shall state what arrangement, if any, has been made with respect to counsel fees. Counsel fees shall be subject to approval by the court.

(C) The injured minor and the applicant shall be present at the hearing.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 36 and 37. Former C.P. Sup. R. 36 and 37 dealt with claims to minors and bifurcated the claims into claims brought by the guardian and claims of less than $10,000 where there was no guardian. The former rules were virtually identical and thus the issues relating to minors have been consolidated into Sup. R. 68 to avoid duplication.

Division (A) has been amended to incorporate the provisions of former C.P. Sup. R. 37(A). In addition, the rule has been amended to require notice to the parents of the minor regardless of their county of residence and to increase the notice time requirement to the parents from three days to seven days in order that the notice is more meaningful.

Division (B) has been amended to provide that the statement of the examining physician is mandatory as opposed to discretionary. Former C.P. Sup. R. 36(D) and (E) have been consolidated into division (B)

Division (C) has been amended to make the applicant's and the minor's appearance at the hearing mandatory. This is to comply with prevailing local practice where the court wishes to view the minor in order to evaluate the nature of the injuries. Pursuant to Sup. R. 76, the court has the ability to waive the appearance of the minor for good cause.

RULE 69. Settlement of Claims of or Against Adult Wards.

(A) An application for settlement of a claim in favor of or against an adult ward shall be brought by the guardian of the estate. Notice of the hearing on the application shall be given to all persons who are interested parties to the proposed settlement, as determined by the court. The court may authorize or direct the guardian of the ward's estate to compromise and settle claims as the court considers to be in the best interest of the ward. The court may dispense with notice of hearing.

(B) The application for settlement of an injury claim shall be accompanied by a current statement of an examining physician describing the injuries sustained, the extent of recovery from those injuries, and permanency of any injuries. The application shall state what additional consideration, if any, is being paid to persons other than the ward as a result of the incident causing the injury to the ward. The application shall state what arrangement, if any, has been made with respect to counsel fees. Counsel fees shall be subject to approval by the court.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is not analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 37, which has been incorporated in Sup. R. 68.

Sup. R. 69 is basically a new rule as it applies to all claims of incompetent adult wards. The purpose for the amended rule is to provide the court with information necessary to make an informed decision regarding a proposed settlement.

Division (A) provides for the application to settle a claim to be brought by the ward's guardian. Absent a guardianship, the "ward" is competent to settle the claim without court approval. Division (A) further gives the court discretion to require notice to interested parties or to dispense with notice with court approval.

Division (B) is similar to Sup. R. 68(B), which provides the court with adequate information to make an informed decision. Division (C) is similar to the last sentence of Sup. R. 68 (B) and requires disclosure to the court and approval of the court of counsel fees in pursuing the adult ward's claim.

RULE 70. Settlement of Wrongful Death and Survival Claims.

(A) An application to approve settlement and Distribution of Wrongful Death and Survival Claims (Standard Probate Form 14.0) shall contain a statement of facts, including the amount to be allocated to the settlement of the claim and the amount, if any, to be allocated to the settlement of the survival claim. The application shall include the proposed distribution of the net proceeds allocated to the wrongful death claim.

(B) The fiduciary shall give written notice of the hearing and a copy of the application to all interested persons who have not waived notice of the hearing. Notwithstanding the waivers and consents of the interested persons, the court shall retain jurisdiction over the settlement, allocation, and distribution of the claims.

(C) The application shall state what arrangements, if any, have been made with respect to counsel fees. Counsel fees shall be subject to approval by the court.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 38. The title has been amended to stress the existence and recognition of survival claims in a decedent's estate and to be in compliance with Standard Probate Forms Series 14.

Division (A) has been amended to incorporate the title of the uniform form as the description of the application to which the rule applies. The phrase "right of action for conscious pain and suffering" has been changed to "survival claim" as being a more complete description of the personal claim of the decedent. The remaining changes are grammatical and intended to stress the need for an allocation between the survival claim and the wrongful death claim.

Division (A) now requires a copy of the proposed distribution in addition to the notice of hearing to be served upon all interested persons who have not waived notice of the hearing. Those who have waived notice are required to receive a copy of the proposed distribution by the requirements of Form 14.1. The amended paragraph contains instructional language to remind interested persons and counsel that the court retains jurisdiction over the settlement notwithstanding an agreement by the parties as to the distribution.

Division (C) has been amended grammatically. There are no substantive changes.

RULE 71. Counsel Fees.

(A) Attorney fees in all matters shall be governed by Rule 1.5 of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct.

(B) Attorney fees for the administration of estates shall not be paid until the final account is prepared for filing unless otherwise approved by the court upon application and for good cause shown.

(C) Attorney fees may be allowed if there is a written application that sets forth the amount requested and will be awarded only after proper hearing, unless otherwise modified by local rule.

(D) The court may set a hearing on any application for allowance of attorney fees regardless of the fact that the required consents of the beneficiaries have been given.

(E) Except for good cause shown, attorney fees shall not be allowed to attorneys representing fiduciaries who are delinquent in filing the accounts required by section 2109.30 of the Revised Code.

(F) If a hearing is scheduled on an application for the allowance of attorney fees, notice shall be given to all parties affected by the payment of fees, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(G) An application shall be filed for the allowance of counsel fees for services rendered to a guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary. The application may be filed by the fiduciary or attorney. The application shall set forth a statement of the services rendered and the amount claimed in conformity with division (A) of this rule.

(H) There shall be no minimum or maximum fees that automatically will be approved by the court.

(I) Prior to a fiduciary entering into a contingent fee contract with an attorney for services, an application for authority to enter into the fee contract shall be filed with the court, unless otherwise ordered by local court rule. The contingent fee on the amount obtained shall be subject to approval by the court.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 40. Divisions (A), (B), (C), (D), (E), (F), and (G) have not been amended substantively.

The second sentence of division (H), pertaining to contingent fee contracts, has been transferred to a new division (I) where it has been combined with former C.P. Sup. R. 39.

Division (I) recognizes that unless a governing instrument has given the power to the fiduciary, the fiduciary has no inherent authority to enter into a contingent fee contract on behalf of the trust. Authority must be granted by the court. The rule as amended adopts the previous rule which required the fiduciary to file an application to enter into a contingent fee contract prior to the contract becoming enforceable. The rule has been amended to permit courts to establish their own procedure in the contingent fee approval process. The second sentence of division (I) was a portion of former C.P. Sup. R. 39 and restates the court's authority to review the contingent fee contract to ascertain whether it meets with the additional standards of this rule.

RULE 72. Executor's and Administrator's Commissions.

(A) Additional compensation for extraordinary services may be allowed upon an application setting forth an itemized statement of the services rendered and the amount of compensation requested. The court may require the application to be set for hearing with notice given to interested persons in accordance with Civil Rule 73(E).

(B) The court may deny or reduce commissions if there is a delinquency in the filing of an inventory or an account, or if, after hearing, the court finds that the executor or administrator has not faithfully discharged the duties of the office.

(C) The commissions of co-executors or co-administrators in the aggregate shall not exceed the commissions that would have been allowed to one executor or administrator acting alone, except where the instrument under which the co-executors serve provides otherwise.

(D) Where counsel fees have been awarded for services to the estate that normally would have been performed by the executor or administrator, the executor or administrator commission, except for good cause shown, shall be reduced by the amount awarded to counsel for those services.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 41. Division (A) has primarily been amended for grammatical purposes. The term "parties" has been replaced with the more descriptive term "interested person". The manner of service pursuant to Civil Rule 4.1 has been replaced with the more appropriate reference to Civil Rule 73(E), which incorporates by reference Civil Rule 4.1.

Division (B) has been amended to parallel R.C. 2113.35. The rule defines the delinquent filing of inventories and accounts as acts that are included within the phrase "not faithfully discharged the duties of the office".

Division (D) has been amended to be more inclusive and to apply to all counsel fees and not only extraordinary fees. The rule continues to allow the probate court discretion to reduce fiduciary fees by the amount of attorney fees charged in performing fiduciary services. The remaining language changes in the division are grammatical and not substantive.

RULE 73. Guardian's Compensation.

(A) Setting of compensation

Guardian's compensation shall be set by local rule.

(B) Itemization of expenses

A guardian shall itemize all expenses relative to the guardianship of the ward and shall not charge fees or costs in excess of those approved by the probate division of a court of common pleas.

(C) Additional compensation

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 43. The statement requiring the filing of the local rule with the Supreme Court has been deleted from division (A) in that the filing is required by Sup. R. 5(A) and Sup. R. 75.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 43(C) has been deleted as being unnecessary.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 43(D) has been relettered division (C) and amended to clarify the requirements and procedure for extraordinary compensation for the trustee. The procedure parallels the procedure that was previously in place for extraordinary compensation to an executor or administrator. Division (C) incorporates the requirements of former C.P. Sup. R. 43(C), which has been deleted. The reference to service in accordance with Civil Rule 4.1 has been revised, since service is controlled by Civil Rule 73.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 43(E) has been relettered as division (D) and has been amended grammatically without substantive changes.

Division (E) is new and parallels R.C. 2113.35. It defines the delinquent filing of inventories and accounts as acts that are included within the phrase "not faithfully discharged other duties of the office."

RULE 75. Local Rules.

Local rules of the court shall be numbered to correspond with the numbering of these rules and shall incorporate the number of the rule it is intended to supplement. For example, a local rule that supplements Sup. R. 61 shall be designated County Local Rule 61.1.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 44. Former C.P. Sup. R. 44(A) has been deleted entirely as its provisions are addressed adequately by Sup. R. 5.

RULE 76. Exception to the Rules.

Upon application, and for good cause shown, the probate division of the court of common pleas may grant exception to Sup. R. 53 to 79.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 45.

RULE 77. Compliance.

Failure to comply with these rules may result in sanctions as the court may direct.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 46.

RULE 78. Probate Division of the Court of Common Pleas -- Case Management in Decedent's Estates, Guardianship, and Trusts.

(A) Each fiduciary shall adhere to the statutory or court-ordered time period for filing the inventory, account, and, if applicable, guardian's report. The citation process set forth in section 2109.31 of the Revised Code shall be utilized to ensure compliance. The attorney of record and the fiduciary shall be subject to the citation process. The court may modify or deny fiduciary commissions or attorney fees, or both, to enforce adherence to the filing time periods.

(B)(1) If a decedent's estate must remain open more than six months pursuant to R.C. 2109.301(B)(1), the fiduciary shall file an application to extend administration (Standard Probate Form 13.8).

(2) An application to extend the time for filing an inventory, account, or guardian's report, shall not be granted unless the fiduciary has signed the application.

(C) The fiduciary and the attorney shall prepare, sign, and file a written status report with the court in all decedent's estates that remain open after a period of thirteen months from the date of the appointment of the fiduciary and annually thereafter. At the court's discretion, the fiduciary and the attorney shall appear for a status review.

(D) The court may issue a citation to the attorney of record for a fiduciary who is delinquent in the filing of an inventory, account, or guardian's report to show cause why the attorney should not be barred from being appointed in any new proceeding before the court or serving as attorney of record in any new estate, guardianship, or trust until all of the delinquent pleadings are filed.

(E) Upon filing of the exceptions to an inventory or to an account, the exceptor shall cause the exceptions to be set for a pretrial within thirty days. The attorneys and their clients, or individuals if not represented by an attorney, shall appear at the pretrial. The trial shall be set as soon as practical after pretrial. The court may dispense with the pretrial and proceed directly to trial.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule imposes case management standards for actions filed in the probate division of the court of common pleas. In addition to establishing time periods for filing of documents and conducting pretrials and trials, the rule requires that an application for a continuance must be signed by the fiduciary and that written status reports be filed in estates that are open for more than one year. The rule also contains a citation procedure that may be employed to bar an attorney who is delinquent in the filing of an inventory, account, or guardian's report from being appointed or serving as attorney of record in any new proceeding until all delinquent pleadings have been filed.

- A. The opportunity for jury service should not be denied or limited on the basis of race, national origin, gender, age, religious belief, income, occupation, disability, or any other factor that discriminates against a cognizable group in the jurisdiction.
- B. Jury service is an obligation of all qualified citizens.

Commentary

Standard 1 is essentially identical to the ABA Standard.

It is the obligation of every court to reasonably accommodate the special needs of physically handicapped jurors. While physically handicapped jurors may pose special issues for courts and their personnel, these issues are manageable.

Support agencies and advancing technologies exist to aid courts in accommodating the special needs of hearing impaired and visually impaired jurors, for example.

The obligation of jury service falls on all citizens; it is vitally important that the legal system open its doors to each person who desires to serve on a jury.

Reference is made to the ADA.

Ohio Statutes

- C. The court should periodically review the jury source list for its representativeness and inclusiveness of the adult population in the jurisdiction as is feasible.
- D. Should the court determine that improvement is needed in the representativeness or inclusiveness of the jury source list, appropriate corrective action should be taken.

Commentary

Standard 2 is identical to the ABA Standard.

There should be a periodic review of the representativeness and inclusiveness of the jury source list.

- B. Random selection procedures should be employed in:
 - 1. Selecting persons to be summoned for jury service;
 - 2. Assigning prospective jurors to panels; and
 - 3. Calling prospective jurors for voir dire.

- C. Departures from the principle of random selection are appropriate:
 - 1. To exclude persons ineligible for service in accordance with Standard 4;
 - 2. To excuse or defer prospective jurors in accordance with Standard 6;
 - 3. To remove prospective jurors for cause or if challenged peremptorily in accordance with Standards 8 and 9; and
 - 4. To provide all prospective jurors with an opportunity to be called for jury service and to be assigned to a panel in accordance with Standard 13.

STANDARD 5 TERM OF AND AVAILABILITY FOR JURY SERVICE

- A. The time that persons are called upon to perform jury service and to be available should be the shortest period consistent with the needs of justice.

- B. A term of service of one day or the completion of one trial, whichever is longer, is recommended. However, a term of one week or the completion of one trial, whichever is longer, is acceptable.

- C. Persons should not be required to maintain a status of availability for jury service for longer than two weeks except in jurisdictions where it may be appropriate for persons to be available for service over a longer period of time.

Commentary

Standard 5 is essentially identical to the ABA Standard.

Courts should reduce, to the extent possible, the number of days a person serves and the period of availability.

STANDARD 6 EXEMPTION, EXCUSE, AND DEFERRAL

- A. All automatic excuses or exemptions, with the exception of statutory exemptions, from jury service should be eliminated.
- B. Eligible persons who are summoned may be excused from jury service only if:
 - 1. Their ability to receive and evaluate information is so impaired that they are unable to perform their duties as jurors and they are excused for this reason by a judge; or
 - 2. They request to be excused because their service would be a continuing hardship to them or to members of the public and they are excused by a judge or a specifically authorized court official.
- C. Deferrals for jury service for reasonably short periods of time may be permitted by a judge or a specifically authorized court official.
- D. Requests for excuses and deferrals and their disposition should be written or otherwise made or recorded. Specific uniform guidelines for determining such requests should be adopted by the court.

Commentary

Standard 6 has been changed from the ABA Standard to be consistent with the O.R.C.

Deferrals are encouraged rather than the granting of excuses.

With a shorter term of service (see Standard 5), reasons for being excused should be reduced.

The Jury Management Project Team recommends that all statutory exceptions be eliminated.

- E. In criminal cases, the voir dire process shall be held on the record. In civil cases, the voir dire process shall be held on the record unless waived by the parties.

- B. Peremptory challenges should be limited to a number no larger than necessary to provide reasonable assurance of obtaining an unbiased jury.
- C. In civil cases, the number of peremptory challenges should not exceed three for each side. If the court finds that there is a conflict of interest between parties on the same side, the court may allow each conflicting party up to three peremptory challenges.
- D. In criminal cases, the number of peremptory challenges should not exceed:
 - 1. Six for each side when a death sentence may be imposed upon conviction;
 - 2. Four for each side when a sentence of imprisonment (state institution) may be imposed upon conviction; or
 - 3. Three for each side in all other prosecutions. One additional peremptory challenge should be allowed for each defendant in a multi-defendant criminal proceeding.
- E. In criminal and civil proceedings each side should be allowed one peremptory challenge if one or two alternate jurors are impaneled, two peremptory challenges if three or four alternates are impaneled, and three peremptory challenges if five or six alternates are impaneled. These additional peremptory challenges shall be used against an alternate juror only, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror.

OHIO COURT SECURITY STANDARDS

APPENDIX C

PREAMBLE

The following Ohio Court Security Standards represent the efforts of the Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Court Security & Emergency Preparedness. The Standards were first adopted by the Supreme Court in 1994 and are now revised to reflect changes in our society affecting them.

Ohio citizens should expect all court facilities to be safe and secure for all who enter so that justice for all may be sought and not unjustly interrupted. Court facilities and each courtroom therein should have appropriate levels of security to address any foreseeable concern or emergency that may arise during the course of business. Elected officials charged with court facility authority must be proactive and sensitive to court security and emergency preparedness concerns. While the Advisory Committee understands providing a safe court facility to all carries a financial price, it is imperative that the topics discussed in the Ohio Court Security Standards be addressed.

Court security and emergency strategies and actions must be consistent with individual rights, civil liberties, and freedoms protected by the United States Constitution, the Ohio Constitution, and the rule of law. Because Ohio has a diverse population, special thought should be given to overcoming language and cultural barriers and physical disabilities when addressing security and emergency issues. However, Ohio citizens must be assured that any security practice or policy is employed in a neutral manner.

The Ohio Court Security Standards attempt to balance the diverse needs of each community. However, each locale is encouraged to promulgate policies and procedures to meet its specific needs. Special consideration should be given to defining the roles and responsibilities of the court and law enforcement officials within each local jurisdiction.

STANDARD 1. COURT SECURITY COMMITTEE

Each court shall appoint a court security committee to meet on a periodic basis for the purpose of implementing these standards. If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively appoint a single committee.

Commentary

Court security issues affect many sectors of the community and include differing local needs and serious funding concerns. Therefore, a Court Security Committee should review these issues in a cooperative and constructive manner.

The Court Security Committee should include representatives of first responders, emergency management agencies, and funding authorities, and may include representatives from each entity within the court facility and the community.

STANDARD 2. SECURITY POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

(A) Adoption of manual

As part of its court security plan, each court shall adopt a written security policy and procedures manual governing security of the court and the court facility to ensure consistent, appropriate, and adequate security procedures. The manual shall include each of the following:

- (1) A physical security plan;
- (2) Routine security operations;
- (3) An emergency action plan that addresses events such as a hostage situation, an escaped prisoner, violence in the courtroom, a bomb threat, and fire;
- (4) A high risk trial plan.

(B) Review of manual

A court shall periodically test and update its security policy and procedures manual for operational effectiveness.

(C) Multiple courts

If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively adopt and review a single security policy and procedures manual.

Commentary

Although traditional forms of security, such as security searches of entrants to the court facility, are an excellent primary safeguard, it is important that courts have a written Security Policy and Procedures Manual addressing the items listed above.

To ensure a thorough knowledge of the court's Security Policy and Procedures Manual, all court security officers should review the manual as a part of their orientation and as a component of regular, continuing education for retained court security officers.

A copy of the Security Policy and Procedures Manual should be available to all court security officers to ensure they understand the appropriate security procedures.

All court security officers should be immediately informed of any changes or amendments to the Security Policy and Procedures Manual.

Security Policy and Procedures Manual is a protected document which should not be shared with non-security court personnel other than court leadership. However, it is recommended that a shorter guidebook be prepared for all other court personnel, which should include emergency evacuation procedures, routes, and building safety guidelines.

STANDARD 3. EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS MANUAL

(A) Adoption of manual

As part of its court security plan, each court shall adopt a written emergency preparedness manual. The manual shall include a plan providing for the safety of all persons present within the court facility during an emergency.

(B) Review of manual

A court shall periodically test and update its emergency preparedness manual for operational effectiveness.

(C) Multiple courts

If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively adopt and review a single emergency preparedness manual.

STANDARD 4. CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS MANUAL

(A) Adoption of manual

As part of its court security plan, each court shall adopt a written continuity of operations manual. The manual shall include a plan that addresses each of the following:

- (1) The continued operation of the court at an alternative site should its present site be rendered inoperable due to a natural disaster, act of terrorism, security breach within the building, or other unforeseen event;
- (2) The provisions of the “Court Continuity of Operations (COOP) Plan Template” available on the website of the Supreme Court.

(B) Review of manual

A court shall periodically test and update its continuity of operations manual for operational effectiveness.

(C) Multiple courts

If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively adopt and review a single continuity of operations manual.

STANDARD 5. PERSONS SUBJECT TO A SECURITY SEARCH

All persons entering a court facility shall be subject to a security search. A security search should occur for each visit to the court facility, regardless of the purpose or the hour.

Commentary

The credibility of court security requires the public be subject to a security search when entering a court facility. Any exemption of personnel from the security search process, including elected officials, court personnel, attorneys, law enforcement officers, or court security officers, should be decided and documented by the Court Security Committee.

At a minimum, each court facility should have at least one portable walk-through magnetometer and a hand-held magnetometer, with court security officers trained in the proper use of that equipment. Walk-through magnetometers at a single point of entry, with accompanying x-ray viewing of packages and handbags, is the optimal method of searching entrants to a court facility and should be utilized to provide the type of security needed to ensure a safe environment. A single point of entry for the public is strongly recommended.

STANDARD 6. COURT SECURITY OFFICERS

(A) Assignment

Uniformed court security officers should be assigned in sufficient numbers to ensure the security of each courtroom and the court facility.

(B) Certification and training

All court security should be certified through the Ohio Peace Officers Training Council. These officers should receive specific training on court security and weapons instruction specific to the court setting.

Commentary

For the purpose of these standards, “court security officer” means an individual employed or contracted to perform security duties or functions at a court facility and includes a law enforcement officer assigned to court security and a bailiff who performs court security duties or functions. “Court security officer” does not include an administrative bailiff who does not perform court security duties or functions.

Law enforcement officers who are present within the court facility for purposes other than court security, such as testifying at a trial, should not be considered a component of the court security system. These law enforcement officers' full attention should be directed to the duties to which they are assigned. The security of the court should not be reliant upon these law enforcement officers, who may have no specific training in court security.

STANDARD 7. WEAPONS IN COURT FACILITIES

(A) Prohibition

No weapons should be permitted in a court facility except those carried by court security officers or as permitted under division (B)(1) of this standard. The court should establish and install adequate security measures to ensure no one will be armed with any weapon in the court facility.

(B) Law enforcement

(1) Each court should promulgate a local court rule governing the carrying of weapons into the court facility by law enforcement officers who are not a component of court security and are acting within the scope of their employment. If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively promulgate a single rule.

(2) In all cases, law enforcement officers who are parties to a judicial proceeding as a plaintiff, defendant, witness, or interested party outside of the scope of their employment should not be permitted to bring weapons into the court facility.

Commentary

There is no issue more controversial relating to court security than whether law enforcement officers should be required to surrender their weapons at the court facility door. As a result, each individual court should review its needs and formulate policy based upon local needs and realities.

STANDARD 8. PRISONER TRANSPORT WITHIN COURT FACILITIES

(A) Transport

Prisoners should be transported into and within a court facility through areas that are not accessible to the public. When a separate entrance is not available and public hallways must be utilized, prisoners should be handcuffed behind the back or handcuffed with use of “belly chains” to limit hand movement and always secured by leg restraints.

(B) Carrying of firearms

During the transport of prisoners, personnel in direct contact with the prisoners should not carry firearms. However, an armed court security officer should be present.

(C) Holding area

Once within a court facility, prisoners should be held in a secure holding area equipped with video monitoring, where practicable, while awaiting court hearings and during any recess.

Commentary

If prisoners cannot be transported through private court facility entrances, public movement in the area should be restricted during the time of prisoner transport since transport through a public area exposes the public to danger, enhances the possibility of prisoner escape, and increases the ability to transfer weapons or other contraband to prisoners.

Law enforcement officers should accompany prisoners to the courtroom, remain during the hearing, and return prisoners to the secured holding area. Court security officers should not assume this responsibility.

STANDARD 9. DURESS ALARMS FOR JUDGES AND COURT PERSONNEL

All courtrooms, hearing rooms, judges' chambers, clerks of courts' offices, and reception areas should be equipped with a duress alarm system connected to a central security station. The duress alarm system should include enunciation capability.

Commentary

There are times when individuals may be able to circumvent standard court security measures. Judges and court personnel should have a readily accessible signal system upon which to rely in emergency situations.

It is important that the duress alarm system be a type which includes an audible alarm at the central security station. However, the system should not include an audible alarm at the activation site. The duress alarm system should quickly summon additional help from the county sheriff's department or the nearest police jurisdiction when needed.

To ensure confidence in the duress alarm system is maintained, duress alarms should be tested periodically and all efforts should be made to minimize false alarms.

STANDARD 10. CLOSED-CIRCUIT VIDEO SURVEILLANCE

If a court utilizes closed-circuit video surveillance, the system should include the court facility parking area, entrance to the court facility, court lobby, courtroom, and all other public areas of the court facility.

Commentary

Posted notices that every judicial proceeding is under surveillance may dissuade those who have intentions of disrupting a hearing. Some court facilities may lack the architectural and structural elements necessary for court security and, therefore, require greater reliance on security devices. Closed-circuit video surveillance is secondary to security searches of entrants to a court facility.

STANDARD 11. RESTRICTED ACCESS TO OFFICES

To ensure safe and secure work areas and to protect against inappropriate interaction between judges and participants in the judicial process, an effective secondary security perimeter should be utilized at the entrance to the office space housing judges and court personnel.

Commentary

The security of the office space housing judges and court personnel must be maintained. Unlimited access to these areas is dangerous and unnecessary. The general public should not be permitted to wander through these areas for any reason. However, attorneys should have controlled access to the areas. Persons having business with a judge or court personnel should be encouraged to make appointments.

Steps which may be taken to facilitate this standard include a main receptionist checkpoint, passive or active electromagnetic hall locks, and cardreader door locks.

Also, the judges' chambers, as differentiated from the staff offices, and judges' parking spaces should not be designated by "Judge" signage.

Finally, parking spaces should be located as close as possible to an entrance.

STANDARD 12. OFF-SITE PERSONAL SECURITY

As part of its court security plan, each court, in conjunction with law enforcement officers, should adopt procedures for the personal security of judges and court personnel at locations outside the court facility. If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively adopt procedures applicable to all judges and court personnel in the court facility.

Commentary

The protection of judges and court personnel from work-related threats and acts of violence outside the court facility is important. It is essential that procedures be in place, when necessary, to respond to such incidents.

The particular procedures may include personal security profiles, residential alarm systems, cellular telephones, weapons training, self-defense training, and personal/family bodyguard security. While all of these steps include some financial commitment, the procedures may be graduated to respond to the needs of any given situation.

STANDARD 13. STRUCTURAL DESIGN OF COURT FACILITIES AND COURTROOMS

When designing new or remodeling old court facilities, consideration should be given to circulation patterns that govern the movement of people to, from, and in the courtroom. Judges, juries, court personnel, and prisoners should have routes to and from the courtroom separate from public routes. Waiting areas should be available to allow separation of parties, victims, and witnesses.

Commentary

The circulation patterns should separate the prisoners from all other persons. The public should also be separated from the judges, juries, and court personnel.

STANDARD 14. SECURITY INCIDENT REPORTING

(A) Reporting of security incidents

(1) Every violation of law that occurs within a court facility should be reported to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction. To facilitate reporting, all court personnel should familiarize themselves with the law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction within and around their court facility.

(2) Each court should adopt a policy for reporting court security incidents and should include the policy in the court's security policy and procedures manual. If more than one court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively adopt a single policy.

(3) A summary of court security incidents should be compiled annually for the court's benefit in evaluating security measures.

(B) Periodic review of security incidents

All courts within the court facility should periodically review all court security incidents so the judges and court personnel are aware of recent events.

Commentary

Although the facility may be a county court facility, in some areas, if the facility is located within the limits of a municipal corporation, the local police may be the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction.

A "court security incident" is any infraction outlined within the court's Security Policy and Procedures Manual and includes any and all disruptions made in the confines of the court facility.

To measure the effectiveness of court security procedures and to aid in securing necessary funding for court security measures, it is useful to recognize and record court security incidents. A standard incident reporting form should be utilized by court personnel to record each event which compromised the security of the court and/or the safety of the participants in the judicial process. Additionally, each court should do an annual summary of court security incidents for its own benefit in evaluating court security measures using the model incident reporting form.

STANDARD 15. NEWS MEDIA IN THE COURT FACILITY

The court security committee, along with other court officials, should consider and formulate a plan governing news media in a court facility. The plan should comply with the requirements of Rule 12 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio and address both of the following:

- (A) The process for news media entering and departing from the court facility in a minimally intrusive manner so other court offices are not disturbed;
- (B) The safety of news media representatives in the courtroom as well as the location of their equipment so as to protect all persons in the courtroom and not create an impediment to court operations.

STANDARD 16. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY OPERATIONS SECURITY

Each court should periodically evaluate and update its security for its information technology operations and implement appropriate security controls to ensure protection of those operations.

COURT FACILITY STANDARDS

APPENDIX D

Court Facility Standards

These standards apply to all courts of record in Ohio except as otherwise indicated. The standards represent the minimum requirements to ensure the efficient and effective administration of justice and are intended to complement federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and standards pertaining to building construction, safety, security, and access.

(A) General considerations. In order to maintain suitable judicial atmosphere and properly serve the public, clean, well-lighted, adequately heated and air-conditioned court facilities shall be provided and maintained.

(B) Location. The facilities should be located in a courthouse or county or municipal building. The location within the building should be separate from the location of non-judicial governmental agencies. Court facilities should be located in a building that is dignified and properly maintained.

(C) Courtroom. Every trial judge should have a separate courtroom.

The courtroom should have adequate seating capacity so that litigants and others are not required to stand or wait in hallways and areas adjacent to the courtroom.

All participants must be able to hear and to be heard. If the room acoustics are not satisfactory, an efficient public address system shall be provided.

Every courtroom should have an elevated bench. Adequate shelving should be provided adjacent to the bench for legal reference materials. United States and Ohio flags should flank the bench.

The witness chair should be near the bench, slightly elevated, and situated in an appropriate enclosure.

Desks, tables, and chairs should be provided for all court personnel regularly present in the courtroom.

Tables and chairs should be provided for parties and counsel. Tables shall be situated to enable all participants to hear and to allow private interchanges between litigants and counsel.

Each trial courtroom should be equipped with a jury box, suitable for seating jurors and alternates sufficient to meet the demands of the court. The jury box should be situated so that jurors may observe the demeanor of witnesses and hear all proceedings.

A blackboard and other necessary demonstrative aids should be readily available. Unnecessary material or equipment should not be kept in the courtroom.

1.00 Definitions

1.01 “Facsimile transmission” means the transmission of a source document by a facsimile machine that encodes a document into signals, transmits, and reconstructs the signals to print a duplicate of the source document at the receiving end.

1.02 “Facsimile machine” means a machine that can send and receive a facsimile transmission either as a stand alone device or as part of a computer system.

[Commentary: E-MAILING OF FILING IS NOT CONSIDERED PART OF FAX FILING. IT WILL BE ADDRESSED IN ELECTRONIC FILING STANDARDS.]

1.03 “Fax” is an abbreviation for "facsimile" and refers, as indicated by the context, to facsimile transmission or to a document so transmitted.

1.04 “Source document” means the document transmitted to the court by facsimile machine/system.

1.05 “Effective original document” means the facsimile copy of the source document received by the Clerk of Court and maintained as the original document in the court’s file.

1.06 “Effective date and time of filing” means the date and time that a facsimile filing is accepted by the Clerk of court for filing.

2.00 Applicability of local rules.

2.01 All local rules of court adopted to permit filing of facsimile documents will be deemed to permit filing of all pleadings, motions, exhibits and other documents that may be filed with the Clerk of Courts. The local rules must specify any exceptions to this permission.

[Commentary: There is not a mandate that requires a court to accept filings by FAX. Only those Courts, that choose to accept faxes, need to create local rules that meet the minimum standards set. We also created a "model rule" for those courts that are looking for more guidance. Clerks who serve in more than one location should specify all exceptions to fax filing.]

2.02 All local rules of court for facsimile filing SHALL place a requirement that the filer provide a cover page containing the following:

- (I) the caption of the case;
- (II) the case number;
- (III) the assigned judge;
- (IV) a description of the document being filed;
- (V) the date of transmission;
- (VI) the transmitting fax number; and
- (VII) an indication of the number of pages included in the transmission, including the cover page.

If a document is sent by fax to the Clerk of Court without the cover page information listed above, it may be deposited in the case jacket but need not be entered into the Case Docket and may be considered to be a nullity and thereby stricken from the record.

3.00 Place of filing

3.01 All local rules of court must specify the telephone number of the facsimile machine receiving transmission. The facsimile machine must have a dedicated telephone line and must be available to receive facsimile transmissions on the basis of 24 hours per day 7 days per week.

4.00 Time of filing

4.01 All local rules of court must specify that the date and time of filing receipt of any document is the date and time imprinted on the document by the facsimile machine receiving the transmission.

4.02 All local rules of court must permit receipt of facsimile transmissions on the basis of 24 hours per day 7 days per week.

4.03 All local rules of court may specify the effective date and time of filing for all documents received outside of the normal business hours of the office of the Clerk of Court and queue them in order of their receipt as documented by the date and time imprinted by the receiving facsimile machine.

4.04 The Clerk of Court may but need not acknowledge receipt of a facsimile transmission.

[Commentary: It was the intention of the committee that if for any reason the fax is not received, the burden of validating or confirming the receipt of the complete fax transmission is on the sending party. Most Fax machines are equipped with the capacity to report back to the sending party, a validation of transmission or a "failed transmission" report.]

5.00 Filing of originals

5.01 All local rules of court must provide that documents filed by facsimile are accepted as the effective original document in the court file. The source document need not be filed. However, the sending party must maintain possession of the source document and make them available for inspection by the court upon request.

[Commentary: The Standards Subcommittee recommends that local rules address the issue of retention of the source document until opportunities for the post judgment relief are exhausted.]

5.02 Documents shall be filed with a signature or notation “/s/” followed by the name of the person signing the source document. The person transmitting the document represents that the signed source document is in his/her possession.

5.03 A local rule of court may limit the number of pages that it will accept by facsimile transmission. If the document to be transmitted exceeds the page limit established by local rule, the original must be filed. All local rules of court may permit exhibits that cannot be transmitted accurately or are lengthy to be replaced by an insert page describing the exhibit. The local rules may provide that the original of such an exhibit may be filed within a specified time subsequent to the facsimile filing.

5.04 A local rule may be adopted that is not inconsistent with any standard regarding the filing of an original source document.

[Commentary: The local rule should address and define what it felt was reasonable page limit. A filing that exceeds the page limit detailed in the local rule would either require filing through other allowable channels. or as is the case with Exhibits in section 6.01 of the Model rule; if the filing has exhibit(s) that cause it to exceed the page limit, then, in the fax filing the exhibit (or other lengthy document), would be "replaced by an insert page describing the exhibit and why it is missing. Unless the court otherwise orders, the missing exhibit shall be filed with the court, as a separate document, not later than five (5) court days following the filing of the facsimile document. Failure to file the missing exhibits as required by this paragraph may result in the court striking the document and/or exhibit." This allows the local court to facilitate filing by allowing faxes without placing an unusual burden on the clerk's office.]

6.00 Filing Fees

6.01 All local rules of court must specify the effective methods of paying fees and costs for any pleading or other document requiring such a fees or costs. The local rules may provide that the Clerk of Court does not have to accept a facsimile transmission filing unless the acceptable method of payment has been paid or arranged to be paid. Local rules of court may not require premium fee schedules for facsimile filings.

[Commentary: In terms of costs associated with acceptance of fax filings, some clerks have expressed concern over related costs. In the case of FAX filing, the only substantive difference between a single original coming in over the counter and one coming in via FAX is the presentation. Section 6 specifically prohibits the charging of fees above and beyond the $3.00/$10.00 fee allowed for court technology, for accepting a FAX filing. However, if it's customary for a clerk's office to charge for copies (including service copies) or additional charges for administrative costs, mailing /postage costs, etc. ... then those fees would still apply regardless of how the original filing came in. Those additional fees would most likely fall under a separate local rule regarding fees that your court would already have in place.]

7.00 Effective Date of Local Rules

7.01 All local rules of court will become effective upon approval by the Supreme Court Committee on Technology and the Courts.

8.00 Time to Compliance

8.01 Courts which choose to offer facsimile filing shall submit local rules for approval by the Supreme Court of Ohio. Courts offering facsimile filing at the time this standard is adopted shall submit their local rule for approval within six months of the adoption of this standard.

ORIGINAL FILING

- 2.01 A document filed by fax shall be accepted as the effective original filing. 2.02 The source document filed by fax shall be maintained by the person making the filing until the case is closed and all opportunities for post judgment relief are exhausted.

DEFINITIONS

As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

- 3.01 A “facsimile transmission” means the transmission of a source document by a facsimile machine that encodes a document into optical or electrical signals, transmits and reconstructs the signals to print a duplicate of the source document at the receiving end.
- 3.02 A “facsimile machine” means a machine that can send and receive a facsimile transmission.
- 3.03 “Fax” is an abbreviation for "facsimile" and refers, as indicated by the context, to facsimile transmission or to a document so transmitted.

- (I) the name of the court;
 - (II) the title of the case;
 - (III) the case number;
 - (IV) the assigned judge;
 - (V) the title of the document being filed (e.g. Defendant Jones’ Answer to Amended Complaint; Plaintiff Smith’s Response to Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss; Plaintiff Smith’s Notice of Filing Exhibit “G” to Plaintiff Smith’s Response to Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss) ;

(XI) if applicable, a statement explaining how costs are being submitted.

4.02 If a document is sent by fax to the Clerk of Court without the cover page information listed above, the Clerk may, at its discretion:

(I) enter the document in the Case Docket and file the document; or

(II) deposit the document in a file of failed faxed documents with a notation of the reason for the failure; in this instance, the document shall not be considered filed with the Clerk of Courts.

4.03 The Clerk of Court is not required to send any form of notice to the sending party of a failed fax filing. However, if practicable, the Clerk of Court may inform the sending party of a failed fax filing.

SIGNATURE

5.01 A party who wishes to file a signed source document by fax shall either:

(I) fax a copy of the signed source document; or

(II) fax a copy of the document without the signature but with the notation "/s/" followed by the name of the signing person where the signature appears in the signed source document.

5.02 A party who files a signed document by fax represents that the physically signed source document is in his/her possession or control.

[Commentary: 5.01 (II) addresses those instances where the fax transmission is generated by the sending party's computer and therefore the document is not printed and capable of being signed prior to transmission.]

EXHIBITS

6.01 Each exhibit to a facsimile produced document that cannot be accurately transmitted via facsimile transmission for any reason must be replaced by an insert page describing the exhibit and why it is missing. Unless the court otherwise orders, the missing exhibit shall be filed with the court, as a separate document, not later than five (5) court days following the filing of the facsimile document. Failure to file the missing exhibits as required by this paragraph may result in the court striking the document and/or exhibit.

6.02 Any exhibit filed in this manner shall be attached to a cover sheet containing the caption of the case which sets forth the name of the court, title of the case, the case number, name of the judge and the title of the exhibit being filed (e.g., Plaintiff Smith's Notice of Filing Exhibit "G" to Plaintiff Smith's Response to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss), and shall be signed and served in conformance with the rules governing the signing and service of pleadings in this court. [See appendix for sample exhibit cover sheet.]

TIME OF FILING

(OPTION I)

7.01 Subject to the provisions of these rules, all documents sent by fax and accepted by the Clerk shall be considered filed with the Clerk of Courts as of the date and time the fax transmission was received by the Clerk of Court. The office of the Clerk of Court will be deemed open to receive facsimile transmission of documents on the basis of 24 hours per day seven days per week including holidays. Each page of any document received by the Clerk will be automatically imprinted with the date and time of receipt. The date and time imprinted on the document will determine the time of filing, provided the document is deemed accepted by the Clerk.

(OPTION II)

- 7.01 Subject to the provisions of these rules, all documents sent by fax and accepted by the Clerk shall be considered filed with the Clerk of Courts as of the date and time the Clerk time-stamps the document received, as opposed to the date and time of the fax transmission. The office of the Clerk of Court will be deemed open to receive facsimile transmission of documents on the same days and at the same time the court is regularly open for business.
- 7.02 Fax filings may NOT be sent directly to the court for filing but may only be transmitted directly through the facsimile equipment operated by the Clerk of Courts.
- 7.03 The Clerk of Court may, but need not, acknowledge receipt of a facsimile transmission.

- 7.04 The risks of transmitting a document by fax to the Clerk of Courts shall be borne entirely by the sending party. Anyone using facsimile filing is urged to verify receipt of such filing by the Clerk of Court through whatever technological means are available.

FEES AND COSTS

- 8.01 No document filed by facsimile that requires a filing fee shall be accepted by the Clerk for filing until court cost and fees have been paid. Court cost and fees may be paid by credit or debit cards or through an escrow account established with the Clerk. The forms necessary for the authorization of payment by credit card or escrow account shall be available at the Clerk's office during normal business hours [and are accessible on-line at _____]. Documents tendered to the Clerk without payment of court cost and fees, or with incomplete information on the charge authorization or request, or which do not conform to applicable rules will not be filed. [See appendix for sample credit card payment form.]

[Commentary: Information furnished for authorization of payment by credit/debit card shall not be part of the case file.]

- 8.02 No additional fee shall be assessed for facsimile filings.

LENGTH OF DOCUMENT

- 9.01 Facsimile filings shall not exceed _____ pages in length. . The filer shall not transmit service copies by facsimile.

[Commentary: The local rule should address and define what it felt to be a reasonable page limit. The subcommittee also recommends that service copies not be sent by fax. However, this is optional, and at the discretion of the local court.]

EFFECTIVE DATE

- 10.01 These local rules shall be effective [insert date], and shall govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect and also further proceedings in pending actions, except to the extent that, in the opinion of the court, their application in a particular action pending on the effective date would not be feasible or would work an injustice, in which event, the former procedure applies.

[Commentary: Facsimile filing standards in the model rule contemplate the facsimile transmission of documents to a court by electronic means. The court receiving the facsimile transmission will maintain its equipment to reconstruct a paper copy version of the source document to serve as the original document. These standards should be differentiated from other types of electronic filing, for which other standards will apply.]

APPENDIX F

[Model Standards of Practice for Family and Divorce Mediation (adopted by the American Bar Association, Association of Family and Conciliation Courts and the Association for Conflict Resolution) modified to reference express provisions of Ohio law.]

Overview and Definitions

Family and divorce mediation (“family mediation” or “mediation”) is a process in which a mediator, an impartial third party, facilitates the resolution of family disputes by promoting the participants’ voluntary agreement. The family mediator assists communication, encourages understanding and focuses the participants on their individual and common interests. The family mediator helps the participants to explore options, make decisions and reach their own agreements.

Family mediation is neither a substitute for the need for family members to obtain independent legal advice or counseling or therapy, nor is it appropriate for all families. However, experience has established that family mediation is a valuable option for many families because it can:

- (A) Increase the self-determination of participants and improve their ability to communicate;
- (B) Promote the best interests of children; and
- (C) Reduce the economic and emotional costs associated with the resolution of family disputes.

Effective mediation requires that the family mediator be qualified by training, experience and temperament; that the mediator be impartial; that the participants reach their decisions voluntarily; that their decisions be based on sufficient factual data; that the mediator be aware of the impact of culture and diversity issues that impact the mediation process; and that the best interests of children be taken into account. Further, the mediator should also be prepared to identify families whose history includes domestic abuse or child abuse.

These Model Standards of Practice for Family and Divorce Mediation (“Model Standards”) aim to perform three major functions:

- (A) To serve as a guide for the conduct of family mediators;
- (B) To inform the mediating participants of what they can expect; and
- (C) To promote public confidence in mediation as a process for resolving family disputes.

The Model Standards are aspirational in character. They describe good practices for family mediators. They are not intended to create legal rules or standards of liability.

The Model Standards include different levels of guidance:

Use of the term “may” in a Standard is the lowest strength of guidance and indicates a practice that the family mediator should consider adopting but which can be deviated from in the exercise of good professional judgment.

Most of the Standards employ the term “should” which indicates that the practice described in the Standard is highly desirable and should be departed from only with very strong reason.

The term “shall” in a Standard is a higher level of guidance to the family mediator, indicating that the mediator should not have discretion to depart from the practice described.

Standard I

A family mediator shall recognize that mediation is based on the principle of self-determination by the participants.

(A) Self-determination is the fundamental principle of family mediation. The mediation process relies upon the ability of participants to make their own voluntary and informed decisions.

(B) The primary role of a family mediator is to assist the participants to gain a better understanding of their own needs and interests and the needs and interests of others and to facilitate agreement among the participants.

(C) A family mediator shall inform the participants that they may seek information and advice from a variety of sources during the mediation process.

(D) A family mediator shall inform the participants that they may withdraw from family mediation at any time and are not required to reach an agreement in mediation.

(E) The family mediator’s commitment shall be to the participants and the process. Pressure from outside of the mediation process shall never influence the mediator to coerce participants to settle.

Standard II

A family mediator shall be qualified by education and training to undertake the mediation.

- (A) To perform the family mediator's role, a mediator should:
 - (1) have knowledge of family law;
 - (2) have knowledge of and training in the impact of family conflict on parents, children and other participants, including knowledge of child development, domestic abuse and child abuse and neglect;
 - (3) have education and training specific to the process of mediation; and
 - (4) Be able to recognize the impact of culture and diversity.

- (B) Family mediators shall provide information to the participants about the mediator's relevant training, education and expertise.

Standard III

A family mediator shall facilitate the participants' understanding of what mediation is and assess their capacity to mediate before the participants reach an agreement to mediate.

- (A) Before family mediation begins, a mediator shall provide the participants with an overview of the process and its purposes, including:
 - (1) informing the participants that reaching an agreement in family mediation is consensual in nature, that a mediator is an impartial facilitator, and that a mediator may not impose or force any settlement on the parties;
 - (2) distinguishing family mediation from other processes designed to address family issues and disputes;
 - (3) informing the participants that any agreements reached will be reviewed by the court when court approval is required;
 - (4) informing the participants that they may obtain independent advice from attorneys, counsel, advocates, accountants, therapists or other professionals during the mediation process;
 - (5) advising the participants, in appropriate cases, that they can seek the advice of religious figures, elders or other significant persons in their community whose opinions they value;

(6) discussing, if applicable, the issue of separate sessions with the participants, a description of the circumstances in which the mediator may meet alone with any of the participants, or with any third party and the conditions of confidentiality concerning these separate sessions;

(7) Informing the participants that the presence or absence of other persons at mediation, including attorneys, counselors or advocates, depends on the wishes of the participants. The mediator shall take controlling statutes or rules into consideration. The mediator may encourage the presence of another person when there is a history or threat of violence or other serious coercive activity by a participant;

(8) describing the obligations of the mediator to maintain the confidentiality of the mediation process and its results as well as any exceptions to confidentiality;

(9) Advising the participants of the circumstances under which the mediator may suspend or terminate the mediation process and that a participant has a right to suspend or terminate mediation at any time.

(B) The family mediator should have participants sign a written agreement to mediate their dispute and the terms and conditions thereof within a reasonable time after first consulting the family mediator, if they desire to mediate.

(C) The family mediator should be alert to the capacity and willingness of the participants to mediate before proceeding with the mediation and throughout the process. A mediator shall not agree to conduct the mediation if the mediator reasonably believes one or more of the participants are unable or unwilling to participate.

(D) Family mediators should not accept a dispute for mediation if they cannot satisfy the expectations of the participants concerning the timing of the process.

Standard IV

A family mediator shall conduct the mediation process in an impartial manner. A family mediator shall disclose all actual and potential grounds of bias and conflicts of interest reasonably known to the mediator. The participants shall be free to retain the mediator by an informed, written waiver of the conflict of interest. However, if a bias or conflict of interest clearly impairs a mediator's impartiality, the mediator shall withdraw regardless of the express agreement of the participants.

(A) Impartiality means freedom from favoritism or bias in word, action or appearance, and includes a commitment to assist all participants as opposed to any one individual.

(B) Conflict of interest means any relationship between the mediator, any participant or the subject matter of the dispute that compromises or appears to compromise the mediator's impartiality.

(C) A family mediator should not accept a dispute for mediation if the family mediator cannot be impartial.

(D) A family mediator shall identify and disclose potential grounds of bias or conflict of interest upon which a mediator's impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Such disclosure should be made prior to the start of mediation and in time to allow the participants to select an alternate mediator.

(E) A family mediator shall resolve all doubts in favor of disclosure. All disclosures shall be made as soon as practical after the mediator becomes aware of the bias or potential conflict of interest. The duty to disclose is a continuing duty.

(F) A family mediator shall guard against bias or partiality based on the participants' personal characteristics, background or performance at the mediation.

(G) A family mediator shall avoid conflicts of interest in recommending the services of other professionals.

(H) A family mediator shall not use information about participants obtained in mediation for personal gain or advantage.

(I) A family mediator shall withdraw pursuant to Standard XI if the mediator believes the mediator's impartiality has been compromised or a conflict of interest has been identified and has not been waived by the participants.

Standard V

A family mediator shall fully disclose and explain the basis of any compensation, fees and charges to the participants.

(A) The participants shall be provided with sufficient information about fees at the outset of mediation to determine if they wish to retain the services of the mediator.

(B) The participants' written agreement to mediate their dispute shall include a description of their fee arrangement with the mediator.

(C) A mediator shall not enter into a fee agreement that is contingent upon the results of the mediation or the amount of the settlement.

(D) A mediator shall not accept a fee for referral of a matter to another mediator or to any other person.

(E) Upon termination of mediation a mediator shall return any unearned fee to the participants.

Standard VI

A family mediator shall structure the mediation process so that the participants can make decisions based on sufficient information and knowledge.

(A) The mediator should facilitate full and accurate disclosure and the acquisition and development of information during mediation so that the participants can make informed decisions. This may be accomplished by encouraging participants to consult appropriate experts.

(B) Consistent with standards of impartiality and preserving participant self-determination, a mediator may provide the participants with information that the mediator is qualified by training or experience to provide. The mediator shall not provide therapy or legal advice.

(C) If the participants so desire, the mediator shall allow attorneys, counsel or advocates for the participants, or other individual designated by the participants, to be present at the mediation sessions.

(D) With the agreement of the participants, the mediator may document the participants' resolution of their dispute. The mediator should inform the participants that any agreement should be reviewed by an independent attorney before it is signed.

Standard VII

A family mediator shall maintain the confidentiality of all information acquired in the mediation process, unless the mediator is permitted or required to reveal the information by law or agreement of the participants.

(A) The mediator should discuss the participants' expectations of confidentiality with them prior to undertaking the mediation. The written agreement to mediate should include provisions concerning confidentiality.

(B) Prior to undertaking the mediation the mediator shall inform the participants of the limitations of confidentiality such as statutory, judicially or ethically mandated reporting.

(C) As permitted by law, the mediator shall disclose a participant's threat of suicide or violence against any person to the threatened person and the appropriate authorities if the mediator believes such threat is likely to be acted upon.

(D) If the mediator holds private sessions with a participant, the obligations of confidentiality concerning those sessions should be discussed and agreed upon prior to the sessions.

(E) If subpoenaed or otherwise noticed to testify or to produce documents the mediator should inform the participants immediately. The mediator shall not testify or provide documents in response to a subpoena without an order of the court that is pursuant to O.R.C. 3109.52, if the mediator reasonably believes doing so would violate an obligation of confidentiality to the participants.

Standard VIII

A family mediator shall assist participants in determining how to promote the best interests of children.

(A) The mediator should encourage the participants to explore the range of options available for separation or post divorce parenting arrangements and their respective costs and benefits. Referral to a specialist in child development may be appropriate for these purposes. The topics for discussion may include, among others:

(1) Information about community resources and programs that can help the participants and their children cope with the consequences of family reorganization and family violence;

(2) Problems that continuing conflict creates for children's development and what steps might be taken to ameliorate the effects of conflict on the children;

(3) Development of a parenting plan that covers the children's physical residence and decision-making responsibilities for the children, with appropriate levels of detail as agreed to by the participants;

(4) The possible need to revise parenting plans as the developmental needs of the children evolve over time; and

(5) Encouragement to the participants to develop appropriate dispute resolution mechanisms to facilitate future revisions of the parenting plan.

(B) The mediator shall be sensitive to the impact of culture and religion on parenting philosophy and other decisions.

(C) The mediator shall inform any court-appointed representative for the children of the mediation. If a representative for the children participates in mediation, the mediator should, at the outset, discuss the effect of that participation on the mediation process and the confidentiality of the mediation with the participants. Whether the representative of the children participates or not, the mediator shall provide the representative with the resulting agreements insofar as they relate to the children.

(D) Except in extraordinary circumstances, the children shall not participate in the mediation process without the consent of both parents and, if applicable, the children's court-appointed representative.

(E) Prior to including the children in the mediation process, the mediator shall consult with the parents and the children's court-appointed representative, if applicable, about whether the children should participate in the mediation process and the form of that participation.

(F) The mediator shall inform all concerned about the available options for the children's participation (which may include personal participation, an interview with a mental health professional, the mediator interviewing the child, or a videotaped statement by the child) and discuss the costs and benefits of each with the participants.

Standard IX

A family mediator shall take reasonable steps to ascertain a family situation involving child abuse or neglect and take appropriate steps to shape the mediation process accordingly

(A) As used in these Standards, child abuse or neglect is defined by applicable state law.

(B) A mediator shall not undertake a mediation in which the family situation has been assessed to involve child abuse or neglect without having completed appropriate and adequate training.

(C) If the mediator has reasonable grounds to believe that a child of the participants is abused or neglected within the meaning of the jurisdiction's child abuse and neglect laws, the mediator shall comply with applicable child protection laws.

(1) The mediator should encourage the participants to explore appropriate services for the family.

(2) The mediator shall consider the appropriateness of suspending or terminating the mediation process in light of the allegations.

Standard X

A family mediator shall take reasonable steps to ascertain a family situation involving domestic abuse and take appropriate steps to shape the mediation process accordingly.

(A) As used in these Standards, domestic abuse includes domestic violence as defined by applicable state law and issues of control and intimidation.

(B) A mediator shall not undertake a mediation in which the family situation has been assessed to involve domestic abuse without having completed appropriate and adequate training.

(C) Some cases are not suitable for mediation because of safety, control or intimidation issues. A mediator shall make a reasonable effort to screen for the existence of domestic abuse prior to entering into an agreement to mediate. The mediator shall continue to assess for domestic abuse throughout the mediation process.

(D) If domestic abuse appears to be present the mediator shall consider taking measures to insure the safety of participants and the mediator including, among others:

(1) establishing appropriate security arrangements;

(2) holding separate sessions with the participants even without the agreement of all participants;

(3) allowing a friend, representative, advocate, counsel or attorney to attend the mediation sessions;

(4) encouraging the participants to be represented and or accompanied by an attorney, counsel or an advocate throughout the mediation process;

(5) referring the participants to appropriate community resources;

(6) Suspending or terminating the mediation sessions, with appropriate steps to protect the safety of the participants.

The mediator should facilitate the participants' formulation of parenting plans that protect the physical safety and psychological well being of the participants and their children.

Standard XI

A family mediator shall suspend or terminate the mediation process when the mediator reasonably believes that a participant is unable to effectively participate or for other compelling reason.

(A) Circumstances under which a mediator should consider suspending or terminating the mediation, may include, among others:

- (1) the safety of a participant or well-being of a child is threatened;
- (2) a participant has or is threatening to abduct a child;
- (3) a participant is unable to participate due to the influence of drugs, alcohol, or physical or mental condition;
- (4) the participants are about to enter into an agreement that the mediator reasonably believes to be unconscionable;
- (5) a participant is using the mediation to further illegal conduct;
- (6) a participant is using the mediation process to gain an unfair advantage;
- (7) If the mediator believes the mediator's impartiality has been compromised in accordance with Standard IV.

(B) If the mediator does suspend or terminate the mediation, the mediator shall take all reasonable steps to minimize prejudice or inconvenience to the participants, which may result.

Standard XII

A family mediator shall be truthful in the advertisement and solicitation for mediation.

(A) Mediators should refrain from promises and guarantees of results. A mediator should not advertise statistical settlement data or settlement rates.

(B) Mediators shall accurately represent their qualifications. In an advertisement or other communication, a mediator may make reference to meeting state, national, or private organizational qualifications only if the entity referred to has a procedure for qualifying mediators and the mediator has been duly granted the requisite status.

Standard XIII

A family mediator shall acquire and maintain professional competence in mediation.

(A) Mediators should continuously improve their professional skills and abilities by, among other activities, participating in relevant continuing education programs and should regularly engage in self-assessment.

(B) Mediators should participate in programs of peer consultation and should help train and mentor the work of less experienced mediators.

(C) Mediators should continuously strive to understand the impact of culture and diversity on the mediator's practice.

APPENDIX G

[Special Policy Considerations for State Regulation of Family Mediators and Court Affiliated Programs]

The Model Standards recognize the National Standards for Court Connected Dispute Resolution Programs (1992). There are also state and local regulations governing such programs and family mediators. The following principles of organization and practice, however, are especially important for regulation of mediators and court-connected family mediation programs. They are worthy of separate mention.

(A) Individual states or local courts should set standards and qualifications for family mediators including procedures for evaluations and guidelines for handling grievances against mediators. In developing these standards and qualifications, regulators should consult with appropriate professional groups, including professional associations of family mediators.

(B) When family mediators are appointed by a court or other institution, the appointing agency should make reasonable efforts to insure that each mediator is qualified for the appointment. If a list of family mediators qualified for court appointment exists, the requirements for being included on the list should be made public and available to all interested persons.

(C) Confidentiality should not be construed to limit or prohibit the effective monitoring, research or evaluation of mediation programs by responsible individuals or academic institutions provided that no identifying information about any person involved in the mediation is disclosed without their prior written consent. Under appropriate circumstances, researchers may be permitted to obtain access to statistical data and, with the permission of the participants, to individual case files, observations of live mediations and interviews with participants.

APPENDIX H

CODE OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT FOR COURT INTERPRETERS AND TRANSLATORS

Preamble.

Foreign language interpreters, sign language interpreters, and translators help ensure that individuals enjoy equal access to justice, including case and court functions and court support services. Foreign language interpreters, sign language interpreters, and translators are highly skilled professionals who fulfill an essential role by assisting in the pursuit of justice. They act strictly in the interest of the courts they serve and are impartial officers of those courts, with a duty to enhance the judicial process.

Definitions.

As used in this code, “provisionally qualified foreign language interpreter,” “Supreme Court certified foreign language interpreter,” “Supreme Court certified sign language interpreter,” and “translator” have the same meanings as in Rule 80 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio.

Applicability.

This code applies to Supreme Court certified foreign language interpreters, provisionally qualified foreign language interpreters, Supreme Court certified sign language interpreters, and translators. This code shall bind all agencies and organizations that administer, supervise, use, or deliver interpreting or translating services in connection with any case or court function.

A court may use this code to assist it in determining the qualifications of any individual providing services as an interpreter under Rule 702 of the Rules of Evidence.

Canon 1. High Standards of Conduct.

Interpreters and translators shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the dignity of the court and shall be as unobtrusive as possible, consistent with the ends of justice.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators should maintain high standards of conduct at all times to promote public confidence in the administration of justice.

Canon 2. Accuracy and Completeness.

Interpreters and translators shall render a complete and accurate interpretation or translation without altering, omitting, or adding anything to what is spoken or written, and shall do so without explaining the statements of the original speaker or writer.

Commentary

In order to preserve the record of the court and assist in the administration of justice, interpreters should completely and accurately interpret the exact meaning of what is said or written without embellishing, explaining, omitting, adding, altering, or summarizing anything. This includes maintaining accuracy of style or register of speech, as well as not distorting the meaning of the source language, even if it appears obscene, incoherent, non-responsive, or a misstatement. Interpreters and translators have a duty to inform the court of any error, misinterpretation, or mistranslation so that the record may be promptly corrected. The terms “accurately,” “completely,” and “exact” do not signify a word-for-word or literal interpretation, but rather mean to convey the exact meaning of the discourse of the speaker or writer.

Canon 3. Impartiality and Avoidance of Conflicts of Interest.

Interpreters and translators shall be impartial and unbiased. Interpreters and translators shall refrain from conduct that may give the appearance of bias and shall disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators must disclose to the court any prior involvement with a case or court function, parties, or witnesses that creates or could be viewed as creating a conflict of interest, provided such disclosure must not include anything that is privileged or confidential. The court must then determine whether the interpreter or translator may continue on the case or court function. Counsel for either party may petition the court for appointment of a different interpreter or translator on the basis of a conflict of interest and the court must determine on the record whether to release the interpreter or translator from the case or court function.

Canon 4. Confidentiality.

Interpreters and translators shall protect from unauthorized disclosure all privileged or other confidential communications, documents, or information they hear or obtain while acting in a professional capacity.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators must maintain confidentiality with respect to any communication, document, information, or other type of confidential matter, including police and medical records and attorney-client privileged communications protected under section 2317.02 of the Revised Code. Interpreters and translators must not derive, either directly or indirectly, any profit or advantage from any confidential communication, document, or information acquired while acting in a professional capacity.

Canon 5. Representation of Qualifications.

Interpreters and translators shall accurately and completely represent their credentials, certifications, training, references, and pertinent experience.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators have a duty to present accurately and completely any applicable credentials, certifications, training, references, and pertinent experience, consistent with Canon 6 of this code. It is essential that interpreters and translators present a complete and truthful account of their qualifications before appointment to allow the court to fairly evaluate their qualifications for delivering interpreting or translating services.

Canon 6. Proficiency.

Interpreters and translators shall provide professional services only in matters in which they can proficiently perform.

Commentary

By accepting an assignment, interpreters and translators warrant they have the skills, training, and understanding of terminology to interpret or translate accurately and effectively in the given setting, are fluent in the required languages, and have the ability to understand regional differences and dialects. Interpreters have a duty to request from the court and the parties all pertinent information and materials necessary to prepare for the case or court function.

Interpreters and translators should strive continually to improve language skills and knowledge of specialized vocabulary and familiarize themselves with the judicial system and any applicable court rules. Interpreters and translators are responsible for having the proper dictionaries and other reference materials available when needed.

Canon 7. Assessing and Reporting Impediments to Performance.

Interpreters and translators shall at all times assess their ability to perform effectively and accurately. If an interpreter or translator discovers anything impeding full compliance with the oath or affirmation of the interpreter or translator and this code, the interpreter or translator shall immediately report this information to the court.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators must immediately inform the court of any condition interfering with their ability to provide accurate and complete interpretation or translation. This may include excessively rapid, quiet, or indistinct speech, physical interference such as inability to see exhibits, noise in their surroundings, or any other interfering factor.

Interpreters and translators must inform the court if they are having difficulties obtaining pertinent information or materials required to prepare for a case or court function that may impede their ability to perform adequately. If at the time of a hearing or trial the interpreter or translator has not been provided with necessary information or materials, the interpreter or translator must inform the court on the record and request a recess to review such information or materials.

Interpreters and translators should withdraw from an assignment if they are unable to understand or satisfactorily communicate with the non-English speaking, limited English proficient, deaf or hard-of-hearing party, witness, or juror, or if they lack required skills, preparation, or terminology to perform effectively in the case or court function for which they have been summoned.

Canon 8. Duty to Report Ethical Violations.

Interpreters and translators shall report to the court any efforts to impede their compliance with any law, this code, or other official policy governing interpreting or translating. Interpreters and translators shall promptly report to the appropriate legal or disciplinary authority if they observe another interpreter or translator improperly performing an assignment; accepting remuneration apart from authorized fees; disclosing privileged or confidential communications, documents, or information; or otherwise committing a breach of this code.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators must report to the court any ethical violation, action, or information that refers to the persistence of a party demanding that an interpreter or translator violate this code, subject to any applicable privilege.

Canon 9. Scope of Practice.

Interpreters and translators shall not give legal advice, communicate their conclusions with respect to any answer, express personal opinions to individuals for whom they are interpreting or translating, or engage in any other activity that may be construed to constitute a service other than interpreting or translating while serving as an interpreter.

Commentary

Since interpreters and translators are only responsible for enabling others to communicate, they should exclusively limit themselves to the activity of interpreting and translating. Interpreters and translators should refrain from initiating communications while interpreting or translating or at all times except as set out below.

Interpreters may be required to initiate communications during a case or court function when they find it necessary to seek assistance in performing their duties. Examples of such circumstances include seeking direction when unable to understand or express a word or thought, requesting speakers to moderate their rate of communication or repeat or rephrase something, correcting their own interpreting errors, or notifying the court of reservations about their ability to satisfy an assignment competently. In such instances the interpreter should refer to him or herself in the third person, making it clear and on the record that the interpreter is speaking for him or herself.

At no time may an interpreter give advice. An interpreter should not explain the purpose of forms, services, or otherwise act as counselor or advisor. The interpreter may sight translate language on a form, but may not provide independent legal advice as to the purpose of the form or instruct the litigant as to the proper manner of completing the form.

Interpreters and translators should not personally serve to perform acts that are the official responsibility of other court officials including, but not limited to, court clerks, pretrial release investigators or interviewers, or probation officers, except as required by and in the presence of such officials.

Canon 10. Restrictions from Public Comment.

Consistent with Canon 4 of this code, interpreters and translators shall not publicly discuss, report, or offer an opinion concerning a matter in which they are or have been engaged, even when that information is not privileged or required by law to be confidential.

Commentary

Interpreters and translators must refrain from making public comments or giving opinions or reports concerning any particulars of a case or court function in which they are or have provided professional services, regardless whether the information is privileged or confidential. This restriction does not apply to general public comments or reports concerning the interpreting or translating professions.

APPENDIX J

STANDARDS FOR THE USE OF TELEPHONIC INTERPRETATION

Preamble.

These standards apply to courts appointing a foreign language interpreter who, pursuant to Sup.R. 88(D)(4), is participating in the case or court function through telephonic interpretation.

Due process requires courts to ensure limited English proficient individuals are able to fully participate in the proceedings of and are afforded meaningful access in case and court functions. The fundamental role of a foreign language interpreter is to provide complete and accurate interpretation services in the case or court function in order to meet these due process requirements. The best way to accomplish this, especially in complex or prolonged proceedings, is to have the foreign interpreter present on-site where the case or court function is taking place.

However, in some instances, this may prove difficult due to factors such as the interpreter's lack of proximity. In these instances telephonic interpretation may be an appropriate alternative. However, telephonic interpretation should not be used when a Supreme Court certified foreign language interpreter, provisionally qualified foreign language interpreter, or language-skilled foreign language interpreter is reasonably available to facilitate communication in person.

Furthermore, the quality and success of telephonic interpretation depend on a variety of factors. Examples include the interpreter's quality of training, the quality of the equipment used, the length of the case or court proceeding, the number of speakers, and whether reference will be made to evidence or documents to which the interpreter does not have access. These and other factors can all have a bearing on the effectiveness of the telephonic interpretation.

Ultimately, telephonic interpretation services should aim to provide the same quality of services as in-person interpretation. To this end, these standards represent recommended practices and minimum requirements to ensure the efficient and effective administration of justice and are intended to complement court rules and federal and state laws, regulations, and standards pertaining to use of court interpretation services.

Definitions.

As used in these standards, "case or court function," "consecutive interpretation," "foreign language interpreter," "limited English proficient," "provisionally qualified foreign language interpreter," "sight translation," "simultaneous interpretation," "Supreme Court certified foreign language interpreter," and "telephonic interpretation" have the same meanings as in Sup.R. 80 and "language-skilled foreign language interpreter" means a foreign language interpreter appointed by a court pursuant to Sup.R. 88(D)(3).
